

President Warren Unveils Six-Point Program

The new president of SUNY Plattsburgh, in his inaugural speech to the faculty, outlined an ambitious program for the future of the college.

Welcoming the faculty back to campus during a breakfast meeting yesterday morning, a departure from the traditional afternoon assembly, Dr. Charles O. Warren listed six areas of immediate and continuing concern:

- insufficient funding of the college by the state;
- improvement of the freshman experience;
- minority recruitment and retention;
- revision of the college's general education program;
- establishment of a permanent Commission on Women; and
- development of a campus-wide planning process.

Referring to the 1987-88 budget as "highly problematic" and "insufficient," he said, "our budgets simply are not responsive to the needs, characteristics, and diversity of the students we teach and will teach." But, he continued, "To some extent we are at fault. We have kept our great worth somewhat of a secret." Warren then announced his intentions of enlisting the help of the entire SUNY Plattsburgh family — alumni, council members, students, faculty, friends — to make the case for a better budget, and to make it a continual year-round process.

Warren listed his next priority as the improvement of the freshman experience for students. He announced the creation of a Freshman Experience Task Force, which he described as "a relatively small group of faculty members, students, and administrators, which will have planning, facilitation and coordinating functions." Warren himself will chair the ad hoc task force, and Dr. Jerome Supple, vice president for academic affairs, and Dr. Eldridge Roark, vice president for student affairs, will also be members.

Minority recruitment and retention of not only students, but faculty and staff as well, will be another priority of the Warren administration.

(Continued on page 2)

weekly

Published by the Office of College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community • September 2, 1987

Enrollment Strong as Academic 1987-88 Begins

Another academic year began this week at SUNY Plattsburgh with a strong enrollment and a new president at the helm.

Dr. Charles O. Warren, former provost and vice president for academic affairs at SUNY Cortland, assumed the presidency in July. He succeeded Dr. Joseph C. Burke, who served for 12 years as Plattsburgh's president before being named provost of the State University system.

The enrollment picture at Plattsburgh is very bright this year, according to Richard Higgins, director of admissions. Despite a decline in the number of graduating high school seniors, Higgins said, 1,100 new freshmen (105% of the goal) and 725 new transfer students (104% of the goal) have enrolled for the fall semester. Both the application rate and the number of students who accepted an offer of admission increased significantly this year, forcing the college to close admissions in early July, one of the earliest closing dates in Plattsburgh's history. Higgins added that the average high school average for the new freshmen stands at 83.6 and their average SAT score is 950.

On-campus living continues to attract an increasing number of students, according to Dr. Eldridge Roark. As a result of this increase, Roark said, about 130 double rooms are expected to be tripled during at least the first part of the semester. Roark said that numerous improvements have been made in the residence halls during the summer, including refurbishing of study rooms, new doors for some of the residence halls, and some new outside lighting.

Numerous opening week activities have been scheduled for students and faculty. On Monday evening, new students gathered to hear Dr. Lary Shaffer, professor of psychology and a 1968 graduate of Plattsburgh State, discuss "Things My Mother Never Told Me About College." The speech was followed by a tree planting ceremony by the Class of 1991.

Other activities scheduled include a tour of downtown Plattsburgh, a "Meet the Coaches" evening, bike registration, receptions for commuter students and returning adult students, a billiard demonstration by NYS Pocket Billiard Champion Ed Church and an all-campus recreation tournament and picnic.

Classes for the fall semester began today.

Major Changes Become Effective in Campus Parking Regulations

Returning students and faculty who intend to register autos or other vehicles will notice major changes effective this semester in parking regulations and traffic control. Over the summer the College Council approved amendments to the regulations, parking spaces were increased substantially, and the Office of Public Safety devised a policy to deal more strictly with chronic violators of parking regulations.

The Council action provides for imposition of an annual fee of $4 for all vehicles registered with the Office of Public Safety. The funds generated by the fee will be applied to meet the ongoing traffic needs of the campus, including administration and enforcement of the regulations and lot maintenance.

Additional parking spaces will accommodate 169 vehicles. The greatest number (50) have been added to campus roadways that are now one-way; to the Sibley School lots (20 in front of the building and 41 in the rear); and to the Health Center lot (35). The remainder have been added in the vicinity of the central-campus podium area (9), Banks Hall (8), Hawkins Hall (4) and Memorial Hall (2).

Tighter parking control will apply primarily to a revised policy on towing. Public Safety Director Lawrence Lorch said that unauthorized vehicles found blocking a loading zone or dumpster will be subject to immediate tow. Those that receive five violation notices for any reason will be considered to be in chronic violation. They will be tagged with a warning sticker indicating that the vehicle has been placed on the tow list and that a further violation will be cause for towing. Chronic violators, Lorch said, will remain on the tow list throughout the academic year.

Campus Employment Identity and Eligibility Rule in Effect

All persons new to the college, including students, who expect to hold jobs on campus this semester or next are required to complete an identity and employment eligibility form before they can report for work.

The procedure, which became effective for persons hired after November 6, 1986, is mandated by a federal immigration law. To facilitate compliance, a registration schedule for establishing identity and employment eligibility is now operative. Registration is being conducted today until 4 p.m. in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge, and it will continue on Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Angell Outreach Desk. Beginning next Monday and thereafter, registration will continue in the Financial Aid office on the fourth floor of the Kehoe Administration Building.

tracts during the past year. He also complimented them on their extensive public service activities which "demonstrate our seriousness of purpose in public service."

Warren listed a number of outstanding achievements by students in such areas as forensic competition, juried art competition, participation in the Organization of American States Model Assembly, and intercollegiate athletics.

He cited a strong enrollment picture for the upcoming year, increased application rates and higher quality indicators of new students, and he complimented the Plattsburgh College Foundation on its contributions to the college's success in attracting students.

Warren concluded with a brief discussion of the college's approaching Centennial Celebration, which will begin in June of 1989. He announced the appointment of Dr. Annette Manganel, professor emeritus of education, as chairperson of the Centennial Committee and noted that Dr. Douglas Skopp, professor of history, is preparing a history of the college.

"The process of preparing for the celebration will involve all of us," the new president concluded. "It will allow us to confirm our strong traditions and extend the best of the past to arrive at the confident assertion that, in a contemporary, substantive, complex sense, we are an outstanding college of liberal learning and professional education. It will become increasingly clear in the next few years to citizens of New York State and beyond, that we are the college of choice."

President Sets Goals (Continued from page 1)

The new president called for a focused, revised general education program to be in place for the next academic year and said that Supple, Dr. Ingrun LaFleur, associate vice president for academic affairs, and Dr. Jack Myers, chairperson of the Faculty Senate, have been asked to take the lead to insure campus-wide involvement with the revision.

Warren announced that within the next few weeks, he will form and charge a permanent Commission on Women in response to a recommendation from the SUNY Plattsburgh Women's Committee.

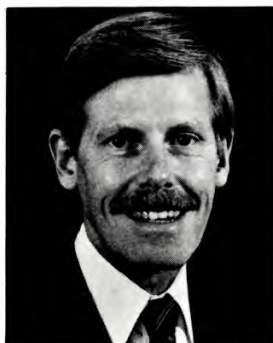

"An immediate and somewhat transcendent goal," he continued, "is our need to establish an inclusive, campus-wide planning process — an annual process that will allow us to clarify major directions and enhance communications. . . . Future major directions, including the soon-to-be-revised general education program, should be linked directly to a clear, focused statement of mission."

The new president elaborated on the positive aspects of SUNY Plattsburgh. "The professional achievements of the teaching and administrative faculty remain strong in all areas; and a primary commitment to excellence in teaching is clear. As teachers, you are respected on campus and beyond for your energy and effectiveness," he said.

He congratulated the faculty for having brought to campus more than $2.7 million in grants and con-

Hamblet Book on French-Canadian Literature Published in Paris

La littérature Canadienne Francophone, a book by Dr. Edwin Hamblet, professor of French and Canadian studies, has been published in Paris by Hatier, one of France's leading publishing houses. The 15,000 copies of the first edition will be distributed in the French-speaking world as well as in the United States.

According to the author, the work is a survey of French-Canadian literature from 1534 to the present, and contains a dozen essays on poetry, drama, the novel and the chanson. Forty-four representative writers from the four genres are introduced, along with 48 excerpts from their key works. The book also contains maps of Quebec and Canada, reference dates for the French regime of the 19th and 20th centuries, an index of themes, an index of authors and a bibliography. "The book," said Hamblet, "is geared to advanced secondary students and college students of French, as well as the general public."

Hamblet joined the Plattsburgh State faculty in 1968. He is a founding member and past president of the American Council for Quebec Studies. The recipient of more than a dozen research grants, he has received three NEH fellowships to pursue post doctoral studies at NYU, Syracuse, and Princeton. Hamblet has also published a book entitled French-Canadian Drama, and has authored more than 50 articles, book reviews and convention papers during the past 17 years.

21 on Sabbatic Leave in '87-88

Twenty-one members of the faculty will be on full-year or one-semester sabbatic leave during academic 1987-88.

Those on full-year sabbatic are Dr. Lonnie Fairchild, associate professor of computer science; Jonathon Jacobs, assistant professor of philosophy; M. Patricia Maher, assistant professor of nursing; and Dr. Joanna Davenport, professor of physical education, athletics and recreation sports.

Faculty on leave for the fall semester are Dr. Gary Brannigan, professor of psychology; Paul Clare, assistant professor of sociology; Dr. Richard Lamb, associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science; Lynn Nichols, associate professor of nursing; Dr. M. Zubaidur Rahman, associate professor in the School of Business and Economics; and Helen Waterhouse, associate professor of nursing.

Faculty who will be on sabbatic leave next spring are William Crosby, professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre; Dr. Ernest Coons, professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services; Dr. William Culver, associate professor of political science; Dr. Peter Gore, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Sciences; Dr. Charles List, associate professor of philosophy; Dr. Martin Lubin, professor of political science; Dr. John Meyer, professor of communication; Dr. John Moravek, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science; Dr. Kissu Schin, professor of biology; Dr. John Shout, professor of English; and Dr. Edward Schaffer, professor of sociology.

Six members of the Maintenance and Operations department recently received certificates in recognition of long-term service to the college. President Charles Warren (r.) presented the certificates to (l. to r.) Antoine "Junior" Barber (20 years), Shirley Matton (15 years), and Sherwood Hart (20 years). Also receiving the awards were Richard Flora and Gary Tamer (15 years), and Kevin Roberts (10 years).

Fall Special Events

Two dedication programs will highlight the fall semester calendar of special events at SUNY Plattsburgh.

September

- 15 Dedication of the Field House Ice Arena in honor of Senator Ronald B. Stafford
- 25-26 Parents' Weekend
- 26 Open House for Prospective Students.

October

- 16-18 Homecoming Weekend
- 18 Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Angell Center Ballroom.
- 24 Dedication of Winkel Sculpture Court. Myers Fine Arts Building — 5:30 p.m.

Counselor Education Specialist Here as Distinguished Professor

Dr. Robert O. Stripling, professor emeritus of counselor education and former chair of the nationally recognized counselor education department at the University of Florida, will be a distinguished visiting professor here during the first five weeks of the fall semester.

During his visit, Stripling, who is acknowledged by his peers to be among the "most influential figures in the development of the counseling profession," will conduct a one-credit research seminar that will focus on his career work and will include a critical review by students of the college's counselor education program. He will also be the featured speaker at three separate functions: on September 22 at noon, he will address the Northeastern New York Counselors Association at the Royal Savage Inn; the following day at 6:30 p.m. at a location yet to be determined, he will speak on "That Delicate Balance: Freedom of Choice Versus Prescription" at a meeting of the Northeast Chapter of the School Administrators Association of New York State; and on September 29 at 4 p.m. he will address the college community and the community at-large in a session scheduled for the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

Stripling, who is the subject of a feature article by Dr. Donald Haight, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, that will appear next spring in the Journal of Counseling and Development, has indicated an interest in meeting with students individually or in small groups. Further information relative to Stripling's visit and schedule may be obtained from Haight or from Center Director Dr. Marilyn Chase at 564-2164.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Lawrence C. Arcarese, associate professor in the department of communication, attended a summer video workshop in Buffalo presented by the SONY Institute of Applied Video Technology of Hollywood, CA. His attendance was made possible through funding by UUP and the college. . . Dr. Suzann Buckley, associate dean of Arts and Science, was among 78 women selected to participate in the Summer Institute for Women in Higher Education Administration sponsored by Bryn Mawr College and HERS, Mid-America. During a four-week program held at Bryn Mawr, institute participants received training in budgeting, finance, long-range planning, administrative computing, organizational management, and academic governance. . . Dr. Robert I. Davis, assistant professor in the Hearing and Speech Science Department, presented a paper entitled "The Interaction of Impulse and Continuous Noise: Energy and Spectral Considerations in the Production of Hearing Loss" at the spring meeting of the American Acoustical Society in Indianapolis. Co-authors from this campus were Dr. William A. Ahroon of the Auditory Research Laboratory and Dr. Roger P. Hamernik, professor of physics and hearing and speech science. Hamernik's article, "Damage of the Auditory System Associated with Acute Blast Trauma," presented last fall at a symposium at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C., was published recently in the symposium proceedings entitled "Archives of Otorhinolaryngology." George Turrentine of the college's Auditory Research Laboratory is listed as a co-author. Hamernik and Turrentine co-authored "The Quantitative Relations Between Sensory Cell Loss and Hearing Thresholds," an invited paper presented by Hamernik in late May at the VIII International Cochlea Symposium in Halle, Germany. . . An article by Dr. Helen Deresky, associate professor in the School of Business and Economics, entitled "How 'General' is the General Manager," was published in the April 1987 issue of the Strategic Planning Management Manual. . .

18 Get Full-Time Appointments

Eighteen persons have joined the college as full-time faculty effective this semester.

New faculty, their titles and departments/centers are: Anna Battigelli, assistant professor of English; Florence Bess, lecturer in foreign languages and literature; Raymond Brusca, visiting associate professor of computer science; Joanna Bujes, assistant professor of English; Terry Dunn, lecturer in the School of Business and Economics; Keith Frantz, lecturer in the School of Business and Economics; L. Giandomenico, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education; Lise Heroux, assistant professor in the School of Business and Economics.

Also, Nicholas Hill, visiting associate professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre; Warner Houth, assistant professor in the Center for Teacher Education; Jurgen Kleist, assistant professor of foreign languages and literature; John Madison, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education; Michael Oliver, instructor in the Center for Human Resources; Marshall Onofrio, assistant professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre; Stewart Robertson, assistant professor of foreign languages and literature; William Tooke, assistant professor of psychology; Rita Ward, assistant professor in the Center for Teacher Education; and Kathleen Whittier, assistant professor in the Center for Teacher Education.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3 – THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3

9 am - noon – Financial Aid Coordinated Student Employment Network: Information and Registration. If you're seeking employment, make this your first stop. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

9 am - 4 pm – Registration for Establishing Identity and Employment Eligibility. You cannot work on campus until the proper form is completed. Open to the campus. Angell Center Outreach Desk.

10 am - 4 pm – American Marketing Association distribution of free Gift Pax of samples. Angell Center Lobby.

noon - 1 pm – Spotlight on: Viewpoints – Panel discussion with Dr. Ingrun Lafleur, Dr. Mary Roark and Dr. Tom Morrissey on The Handmaids Tale. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:30 pm – Shifting Gears – Resources for Adult Students. Informal gathering and information session. Refreshments served. Angell Center, Adult Drop-In Center.

2 pm – Feinberg Library Tour. Open to the campus. Feinberg Library Main Lobby.

4 - 5:30 pm – Financial Aid Work-study Information Session – Students who are eligible for work-study must attend one of these session to receive an assignment. Yokum 203.

4:15 pm – Foreign Language Advanced Placement/Proficiency Exams. For further information, call 564-2829. Open to the campus. Yokum 200 – French; Yokum 206 – German; Yokum 208 – Spanish.

7:30 pm – Auditions for Fall Mainstage Productions. For more information, call 564-2180. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus. Hartman Theatre.

7:30 pm – Introduction and Welcome Reception to Hillel, a student cultural/social organization. Come get acquainted and make your own sundae at the reception. Sponsored by the Hillel and the Opening Week Committee. Open to the campus. Angell Center Orchard Room.

7:30 pm – The Wellness Program at Plattsburgh State, presented by Dr. Merritt Spear and Ms. Sally Stay. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

9 am - noon – Financial Aid Coordinated Student Employment Network: Information and Registration. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

9 am - 4 pm – Registration for Establishing Identity and Employment Eligibility. You cannot work on campus until the proper form is completed. Open to the campus. Angell Center Outreach Desk.

10 am - 4 pm – American Marketing Association distribution of free Gift Pax of samples. Angell Center Lobby.

3:30 pm – Survival on Campus: Resources for Students with Handicapping Conditions. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm – Welcome Reception for New Faculty and Staff and returning personnel. Open to faculty and staff. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm – Aerobic Session – Refreshments provided. Open to the campus. Angell Center Blue Room.

7 pm – Billiard Demonstration featuring Ed Church, N.Y.S. Pocket Billiard Champion. Angell Center Billiard Room.

7:30 pm – Auditions for Fall Mainstage Productions. For more information, call 564-2180. Open to the campus. Hartman Theatre.

7:30 pm – Christian Fellowship and Welcoming of New and Returning Students. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

9 pm – Friday Night at the Movies presents, "Badlands," featuring Martin Sheen and Sissy Spacek. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

11 am – RUN FOR YOUR LIFE – 3.5 Mile Fun Run. Pre-registration at the Angell Center Desk and 10 am the day of the race. Memorial Hall Field.

11 am & 12 noon – Trip to the City Beach. Transportation provided free of charge but you need a ticket. Tickets are available at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from in front of Myers Fine Arts.

12 noon – Trip to AuSable Chasm. Bus transportation provided. Open to the campus. Student and faculty tickets are $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from Angell College Center.

5 pm – Newman Center Welcome Reception following the 4 pm mass. John XXIII Newman Center.

9 pm - midnight – Live Band in the Snack Bar/Point – "The Indica Brothers." Open to the campus. Angell Center Point.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

3 pm – All-campus Recreation Tournament. Softball competition between faculty/staff and students. Open to the campus. Memorial Field.

4 - 7 pm – All-college Picnic. Cookout following the recreation tournament. No cost to students with meal tickets. Faculty tickets are $4, children under 12 are $1. Memorial Hall Field.

6:45 & 9:15 pm – Student Association Film Committee presents "Back to School" starring Rodney Dangerfield. Open to the campus. S.A. member tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

4 pm - dark — Annual Labor Day Welcome Back Picnic for UUP members, guests and families. Valcour Educational Center.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corp Officer Selection Program. Angell College Center Lobby.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Tour Guide Training sponsored by the Admissions Office. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corp Officer Selection Program. Angell College Center Lobby.

3 pm — Women's Soccer vs. Johnson State. Field House soccer field.

4 pm — Mandatory meeting for all Sports Club leaders. Memorial Hall Room 220.

4 - 6 pm — Intramural entrys accepted for men's football, men's and women's volleyball. Angell College Center Desk.

4:15 pm — The Iran/Contra Affair: A Discussion sponsored by Political Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Tour Guide Training sponsored by the Admissions Office. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Cardinal Yearbook Organizational Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corp Officer Selection Program. Angell College Center Lobby.

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum — Inaugural Program. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 - 6 pm — Intramural entrys accepted for men's football, men's and women's volleyball. Angell College Center Desk.

7 pm — Tour Guide Training sponsored by the Admissions Office. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Student Association Organization Fair sponsored by the R.A. Program's Kim Scalzo, Mike Kane and Rich Davino. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballroom.

NOTES

Good-Better-Best Program sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday through Thursday at 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm. Friday and Sunday at 3:30 pm. Open to the campus no charge. You must wear proper footwear. Angell Center Blue Room.

Applications are being accepted for the 1988 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program. The deadline for receipt of applications is October 16. An informational meeting and tour of the Cell Science facilities at Miner Center will be held at 1 pm on October 2. For further information, arrangements for the visit and applications, contact the Biology Secretary in Beaumont 207 (564-3155) or Dr. William Graziadei, Miner Center (1-846-7144).

BASKETBALL MEETING

Head Coach Larry Cowan has called a meeting of all candidates for the 1987-88 men's varsity basketball team for Tuesday, September 8, at 7 p.m. in room 301 of Memorial Hall. Attendance is mandatory for those who hope to make the Cardinal team.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Art, Music & Theatre
Tech. Asst./Instructor of Applied Music (Part-time)	8/31/87	Open
Central Heating Plant
Assistant Stationary Engineer	8/28/87	9/12/87
Library
Director of Libraries	7/17/87	9/30/87
Nursing
Lecturer (Part-time)	(R) 7/23/87	Open
Physical Education, Athletic & Recreational Sports
Asst. Hockey & Basketball Coaches/Ins. (Part-time)	8/31/87	Open

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

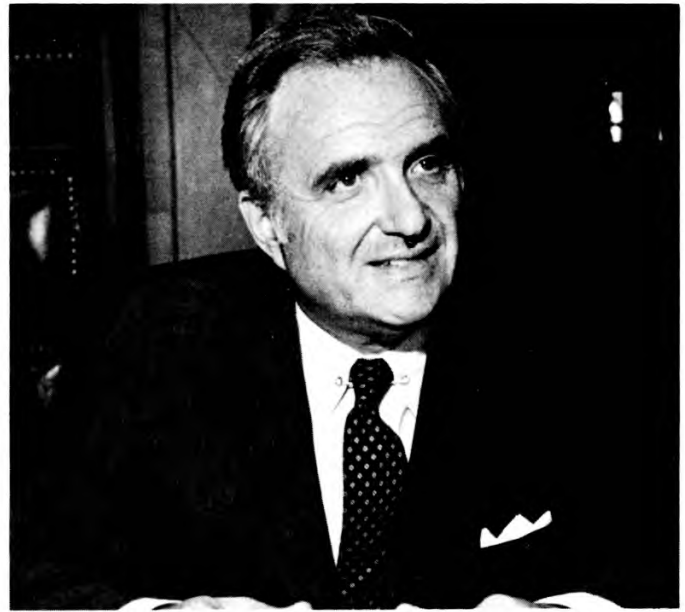

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

Stafford Arena Dedication Scheduled for Tuesday

The SUNY Plattsburgh Field House Ice Arena will be dedicated formally to honor New York State Senator Ronald B. Stafford (R-Plattsburgh) in a public ceremony scheduled for 4 p.m. next Tuesday (Sept. 15) in the lobby of the complex.

The program will feature brief remarks by College Council Chair Robert M. Garrow and Plattsburgh State President Dr. Charles O. Warren, the unveiling of a dedicatory plaque that will hang permanently near the entrance to Stafford Arena, and an acknowledgement by Senator Stafford himself. A reception in the building will follow, and many local, state and regional dignitaries are expected to be present to offer their congratulations.

A recommendation to name the ice arena for Stafford was endorsed by the College Council at its April meeting, although it had been approved earlier by consensus of the Council and made public on March 20 during the NCAA national championship ice hockey tournament hosted by the college at the Field House. The Council resolution proposing the arena be named for Stafford cited his "career-long advocacy of higher education" in the state and his friendship in particular toward SUNY Plattsburgh.

Stafford was instrumental in gaining the release of state funds that provided for construction of the Field House, which was completed in February of 1972. He was similarly effective a few years later in helping to secure funds to erect the college's Benjamin F. Feinberg Library. He has been an ardent follower of Plattsburgh State's intercollegiate hockey teams since the sport was initiated at the varsity level in 1974.

Stafford, who practices law locally with the firm of

(Continued on page 3)

weekly

Published by the Office of College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community • September 9, 1987

20 Receive Promotions; Five to Full Professor

Twenty members of the faculty have received promotions effective with the beginning of the current academic year. Promoted to full professor are Dr.

(Center for Human Resources), Dr. Bryan Higgins (Center for Earth and Environmental Science), Dr. Michael Ritty (Center for Teacher Education and

Denenberg

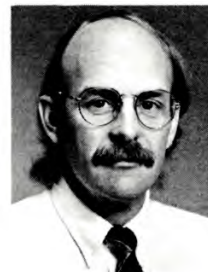

Herod

Lubin

Morrissey

Shaffer

Kimmage

Stewart Denenberg (computer science), Dr. Charles Herod (Afro-American studies), Dr. Martin Lubin (political science), Dr. Thomas Morrissey (English), and Dr. Lawrence Shaffer (psychology). Dr. Dennis Kimmage has been promoted to librarian. Promoted to associate professor are: Dr. Kenneth Adams (Center for Earth and Environmental Science), Dr. James Armstrong (anthropology), Dr. Martha Frost Educational Services), Dr. Mary Roark (Center for Human Resources), Dr. Thomas Rumney (Center for Earth and Environmental Science), Dr. Craig Sample (foreign languages and literature) and Dr. Robert Weiss (sociology).

In addition, Phyllis Wells and Nancy Hoshlyk were

(Continued on page 2)

Millet Gift of Japanese Prints Enriches Permanent Collection

The college's permanent art collection has been enriched with the donation of two albums of rare Japanese woodblock prints. The prints, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Millet through the Plattsburgh College Foundation, have been appraised at more than $16,000.

The albums contain 76 Akae prints by various Meiji artists (done since 1867). Akae prints are created using red anilin dyes instead of natural pigment.

Plattsburgh State President Charles O. Warren commented, "We are very pleased to accept this gift from the Millets. They have had many fascinating and culturally enriching journeys throughout their lives and we are very grateful that they have chosen us to be the beneficiaries of those travels."

Gallery Director Edward Brohel said, "These Japanese prints add a new dimension to our collection and will permit us to offer our students a genuine experience with oriental art. This work will form a bridge between the east and the modern 20th century western art in our collection."

Millet, a 1930 graduate of the Plattsburgh Normal School, and his wife acquired the prints in Japan shortly after the end of World War II. Millet went there with the American Red Cross, and later accepted a post as teacher and course supervisor at the U.S. Tokyo Army College. He served a brief period as a translator during the War Crimes Trials in Japan and later was appointed auditor in charge of the Liquidation Branch of the Economic and Scientific Sections of the Supreme Command of the Allied Powers. The Millets earlier donated an extensive silver collection to the college.

President Charles O. Warren (l) and Director of Galleries Edward Brohel (r.) review one of the albums with Alfred Millet '30.

20 Promoted (Continued from page 1)

promoted to associate librarian, and Leah Monger, Carolyn Leonard, and Carla List to senior assistant librarian.

Denenberg came to SUNY Plattsburgh in 1979 with a joint appointment in the department of computer science and the department of business and economics. From 1979 to 1984 he served as director of academic computing. In addition he has 15 years of experience as a computer professional in government, private industry and academia. Denenberg spent a sabbatic year (1983-84) at the Open University of England designing and documenting a LOGO interpreter for the BBC microcomputer. He is currently writing a textbook on using functional computer languages to develop logical thinking skills and behaviors in college freshmen.

Herod joined the faculty as coordinator of the minority studies program in 1974. He has written numerous articles and reviews on various Afro-American topics and last year co-authored (with Augustina B. Herod) Afro-American Nationalism: An Annotated Bibliography of Militant Separatist and Nationalist Literature, which was published by Garland Publishing.

Lubin has been a member of the political science faculty since 1968. He was one of the founders of the Canadian Studies program and has been involved with that program since its inception. He has been a member of the editorial review board of Quebec Studies since 1983. Lubin will spend the spring semester as a visiting professor of Canadian Studies at the University of California-Berkeley and Mills College.

Morrissey, who currently chairs the English department, is coordinator of the Writing-Across-the-Curriculum program. He is co-editor of SUNY's Composition Review and also serves as a proposal and manuscript reviewer for McGraw-Hill. Morrissey has published numerous articles on such diverse subjects as T.S. Eliot, J.M. Synge, Pinocchio, Science-Fiction, John Donne and the pedagogy of college writing.

Shaffer, a 1968 graduate of SUNY Plattsburgh, has been a member of the faculty since 1976. He is a recipient of the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching, the Phi Eta Sigma Distinguished Teaching Award, and the college's Distinguished Alumnus Award. In 1986, Shaffer won Honorable Mention in the American Psychological Association's Distinguished Teaching Competition. For the past few years, he has delivered the welcoming address to new students at the beginning of the fall semester.

Kimmage came to SUNY Plattsburgh as senior assistant librarian in 1976, after several years teaching Russian language and literature at SUNY Binghamton. During his years here, he has served as head of reference, associate librarian, and acting director of libraries. He had done extensive work in the area of computer-assisted instruction and the computer program he developed to teach Library Skills has been purchased for use by 50 colleges and university libraries since 1986. Kimmage recently returned from a one-month study leave in Russia.

Angell Center Renovations Near Completion; Mini-Store Opens

The unsightly condition of the Angell Center courtyard will be remedied within the next three weeks.

Stanley Supinski, executive director of College Auxiliary Services (CAS), explained that many tons of sand had to be deposited in the vicinity of the courtyard to allow access for heavy equipment required to construct an addition to the building's Sundowner dining area. He added that before the project is completed by an October 1 target date, the sand will be removed and the area will be restored to its original state of appearance.

The project itself involves construction of a glass-enclosed extension of the Sundowner that will provide seating for an additional 200 patrons. It also features internal renovations and additions — already in service — that include enlarged pizza and ice cream parlors, a bakery, a Roy Rogers fast food establishment, an international food fair which each week will offer different cuisine from different foreign lands, and a new delicatessen area. Students may use their meal tickets or snack plan credits to purchase food in the Sundowner.

Supinski said that project will cost $650,000. It is being funded by CAS in conjunction with the Marriott Corp., which provided design and architectural services. Roger P. Kennedy General Contractors, Inc. holds the construction contract.

College Store "mini-store" in Saranac Hall.

Meanwhile, the opening this fall of a "mini-store" adjacent to the College Store marked completion of another CAS summertime project. The mini-store concept derived from an on-campus survey of students by students in a marketing class. The study showed a need for a store featuring convenience items segregated from the large College Store. It also meets a Middle States Association recommendation — and a long-standing request among faculty — for an increase in space for texts and in the selection of trade books and periodicals. Renovations were completed by college personnel.

The new mini-store will be open from 8 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. Monday through Friday when classes are in session (Saturday hours will be established soon). The College Store is open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Four from College in Empire Minority Scholarship Program

SUNY Plattsburgh is among the State University campuses invited to participate this year in the newly established Empire State Minority Honors Scholarship Program.

Dr. David Mowry, professor of philosophy and director of the honors program here, said that participation in 1987-88 was limited to those University institutions having established honors programs. He pointed out that four Plattsburgh State students have received the scholarships, which are valued at the equivalent of full tuition and are funded jointly by SUNY and the Plattsburgh College Foundation. He added that the scholarships are renewable for a maximum of eight semesters or until completion of an undergraduate degree program, but that continuation is based on academic performance considerations.

The college's Empire State Minority Honors Scholars include two currently enrolled students, Randolph Delano, a business management major from Uniondale, and Enrico Lelina, a computer science major from Plattsburgh; Clarence Reese, a business management major from Rochester, who transferred here from Monroe Community College; and freshman Thomas Albury of Bayshore, a communication major.

Authority on U.S. Constitution To Be Distinguished Professor

Professor Wallace Mendelson of the University of Texas in Austin will be a Distinguished Visiting Professor at SUNY Plattsburgh from September 14-25.

A leading authority on the development of the U.S. Constitution and the role of the Supreme Court, Mendelson is the author of several books, including Justices Black and Frankfurter: Conflict on the Court, Capitalism, Democracy and the Supreme Court, and The American Constitution and Civil Liberties.

During his visit to campus, he will deliver a series of four lectures. Details of the lectures are listed on this week's calendar.

Stafford Arena (Continued from page 1)

Stafford and Edwards, is serving his 11th consecutive term in the State Senate. From 1966 through 1978 he chaired the Senate Committee on Higher Education. His current committee assignments include Judiciary, which he chairs; Codes; Corporations, Authorities and Commissions; Environmental Conservation; Finance; Rules; and Higher Education. During spring commencement exercises here in 1974, he was presented the Distinguished Service Award, the highest award the college is permitted to bestow for service to college, community, state, nation or international human community.

Cardinal Men Win Lyndon State Tourney; Women Lose to Colgate

Defense prevailed as the men's soccer team opened its fall campaign in impressive fashion, edging New England College, 1-0, and Lyndon State, 3-0, over the weekend to capture the title in a tournament hosted by the latter Vermont school. Vincent Reid's goal, with an assist from John Clancy, was all the scoring the Cardinals needed in Saturday's opener against New England. In Sunday's final, Brian Dermody tallied twice, and Fernando Gualtieri added an insurance goal to sew up the championship. Assists in the game were recorded by John Archer, Brian Mickeels and Craig Ferraro. Head Coach Chris Waterbury said the Cardinal nets were barely tested, as New England and Lyndon State combined managed to fire on goal only seven times.

In their exhibition opener last Wednesday, the Cardinals and John Abbott University played to a 2-2 draw. They are at Castleton State today and meet SUNY Binghamton at the Field House at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Meanwhile, the Cardinal women's soccer team was blanked, 3-0, in its season opener Saturday at Division I Colgate University. New Coach Kris Wood's squad will play at home at the Field House twice this week: today at 3 p.m. against Johnson State and Saturday at 12 noon versus Cortland State.

College Council Meets Thursday

The next regular meeting of the College Council will be held at 3 p.m. on Thursday, September 10 in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

Agenda items will include discussion of the current status and future plans for enrollment, as well as discussion of assessment and outcomes. Following the meeting, members of the Council will tour the Winkel Sculpture Court, which is currently under construction, and visit several faculty art studios.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Drs. Donald Bogucki and Gerhard Gruending, professors in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, and Marguerite Remillard, a former student who received the B.A. and M.A. in the biological sciences in 1979 and 1984, respectively, have published a chapter on "Disturbance by Beaver (Castor Canadensis Kuhl) and Increased Landscape Heterogeneity" in the publication, Landscape Heterogeneity and Disturbance. Their work is considered to be a major reference in population structure. . . An exhibition of "Landscape Paintings" by William Crosby, professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, opened last Friday in the Mill Gallery at the Ballard Mill Center for the Arts in Malone. The exhibition, which will run until Oct. 4, features paintings by Crosby inspired by the Adirondack Mountains and North Atlantic Coast of New England. . . Dr. Roger P. Hamernik, professor of hearing and speech science and physics, and Dr. Robert I. Davis, assistant professor of hearing and speech science, have written a chapter on workplace noise and noise-induced hearing impairments entitled "Noise and Hearing" for the second edition of the book, Occupational Health. Hamernik is co-author of "The Effect of Impulse Intensity and the Number of Impulses on Hearing and Cochlear Pathology in the Chinchilla," which was published in the Journal of the Acoustical Society of America. In May he spoke at a seminar in Akademisch Ziekenhuis, Vrije Universiteit Hospital in Brussels, Belgium. . . Dr. Sylvie Debevec Henning, assistant professor of French, has been certified as an Oral Proficiency Tester by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages. . . Dr. Ben Morreale, professor of history, will co-author a book on The Italian-

American Experience from 1860-1980 with Jerre Mangione, author of The Dream and the Deal, The World Around Danilo Dolci, Mount Allegro and many other works. The book is to be published in 1989 by Harper and Roe. Morreale will spend the current semester in the Soviet Union where he will lecture at Moscow University on the History of Sicilian Ethnicity and Immigration as a participant in the SUNY-Soviet exchange program. . . Dr. Philip Reins, associate professor of communication, is the recipient of a grant to study aesthetic trends in Quebec cinema. He will deliver a paper at the Association for Canadian Studies in the U.S. (AC-SUS) in Montreal next month. A year ago, Reins introduced the only course in Canadian cinema offered anywhere in the United States. . . Two articles on enzyme adsorption at solid interfaces by Dr. Roger K. Sandwick, assistant professor of chemistry, have been accepted for publication in the Journal of Colloid and Interface Science. . . Dr. George Sheats, professor of chemistry, is the co-author of a paper on "cis-Tetraammineaquachlorochromium (III) Chloride" which has been published in Acta Crystallography. His collaborator on the paper was Dr. Arnold Rheingold of the University of Delaware, who formerly taught chemistry here.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10 — THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

10 am - 3 pm — United States Marine Corps Officer Selection Program sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Angell College Center Lobby.

12:15 - 1:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Lisl Aufschlager and Linda Canzanella speaking on "A Report from Nicaragua." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 - 6 pm — Intramural entrys accepted for men's football, men's and women's volleyball. Sponsored by Intramurals. Angell College Center Desk.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: You Can Do It — Survival and Success in College. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm — Tour Guide Training sponsored by the Admissions Office. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Student Association Organization Fair sponsored by the R.A. Program's Kim Scalzo, Mike Kane and Rich Davino. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballroom.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

7:30 pm — Intervarsity Christian Fellowship Weekly Meeting. Angell Center Blue Room.

9 am — Friday Night at the Movies: "Richard III" sponsored by the Office of Campus Life. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

9 am — Chi Alpha Christian Fellowship — Organizational Meeting. Angell Center Orchard Room.

12 noon — Women's Soccer vs. Cortland. Field House Soccer Field.

1:30 pm — Men's and Women's Cross Country vs. University of Vermont. Field House.

2:30 pm — Men's Soccer vs. Binghamton. Field House Soccer Field.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Top Gun." Open to the campus. S.A. member tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and are on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Adirondack Bike Tour — Mandatory meeting for all interested bikers. Sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

7 pm — Reception for Freshmen sponsored by the Forensic Union. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8:30 pm — Cheerleading meeting — all are welcome. Angell Center Conference Room.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

11 am - 3 pm — CVPH Blood Drive sponsored by Theta Kappa Beta Fraternity. Angell Center Ballroom.

3 pm — Placement Orientation Workshop sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3:30 pm — Men's Soccer vs. Albany. Field House Soccer Field.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: How to Improve Your Lecture Note-taking Skills. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Open House Tour Guide Training sponsored by Admissions. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — International Film Series presents "Time Stands Still" directed by Peter Gothar (Hungarian). Sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 208.

8 pm — Champlain Chamber Music Series and Music Council presents Peter Kairoff, Harpsichordist. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

9 am - 3 pm — Annual Volunteer Fair sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Lobby.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: Resumes and Cover Letters. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3 pm — Women's Soccer vs. Clarkson. Field House Soccer Field.

3 pm — Women's Tennis vs. Clarkson. Field House Tennis Courts.

4 - 6 pm — Faculty Association Informational Meeting — Membership Drive. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: How to Improve Your Lecture Note-taking Skills. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7:30 pm — D.V.P. Wallace Mendelson: "A Gap in the Constitution? James Madison and the 14th Amendment." Sponsored by Political Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

noon - 4 pm — New York State Senate Student Programs — General Information Session sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Lobby.

12:15 - 1:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Barbara Thompson, Administrator, Clinton County Nursing Home, speaking on "Quality Life for Older Women." Sponsored by Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 pm — Behavioral Science Colloquy. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: Targeting Your Job Search. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: How to Improve Your Lecture Note-taking Skills. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:30 pm — American Marketing Association first meeting of the semester with assignment of assistants to the officers. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Open House Tour Guide Training sponsored by Admissions. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Economics Club Reception. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — Student Association Activities Coordination Board presents "The Comedy Laff-Off." Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics Program sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday through Thursday at 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm and Friday and Sunday at 3:30 pm. Open to the campus no charge. You must wear proper footwear. Angell Center Blue Room.

Bus to Montreal — The Campus Life Office will be sponsoring a Bus to Montreal on Saturday, September 19th. Bus departs from the Angell Center at 9 a.m., destination Dominion Square. Returns to campus by 6 p.m. Tickets: $9.00 round trip and on sale at the Angell Center Desk beginning Monday, September 14. For more information, call 564-3824.

The Educational Opportunity Program seeks tutors in all areas. Applicants must have a B or better in the courses they wish to tutor and must submit two letters of recommendation from faculty, one of which must be in the subject area. Pay is $4.50/hour. Please see Sara Richman or Kyle Page, Algonquin 103, for an application and interview, or call 564-2263.

The Champlain Valley Oratorio Society will rehearse Monday evenings from 7:00 to 9:30 in room 300 of the Myers Fine Arts Building, beginning September 14, in preparation for Handel's Messiah, to be performed in December. New members are welcome and encouraged to join.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Art, Music & Theatre
Tech. Asst./Instructor of Applied Music (Part-time)	8/31/87	Open
Central Heating Plant
Assistant Stationary Engineer	8/28/87	9/12/87
Library
Director of Libraries	7/17/87	9/30/87

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

IMS Conservation Support Funds to Preserve Paintings by Kent

The Plattsburgh State Art Galleries have received a Conservation Project Support grant for $11,644 from the Institute of Museum Services (IMS). The money will be used for the conservation of the twenty Rockwell Kent paintings which are the keystone of the permanent collection.

The grant matches a fund of equal amount developed for the project from the New York State Council on the Arts, Campus Auxiliary Services, the Plattsburgh College Foundation and the Art Galleries.

Gallery Director Edward Brohel said, "This grant is a milestone in the professional maturing of the art galleries at Plattsburgh State. It not only allows us to conserve and reframe the Kent paintings, it gives our galleries national visibility as a professional visual art resource in the North Country."

IMS is an independent agency within the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities, established by Congress in 1976 to assist museums in their educational role and help them modernize their methods and facilities so that they will be better able to preserve the nation's cultural, historic and scientific heritage. In this round, IMS funded 248 of 495 applications.

Enrollment Status, Future Plans Highlight Reports to Council

A discussion of the current status and future plans in respect to enrollment highlighted last Thursday's agenda of reports to the SUNY Plattsburgh College Council

Janet M. Edwards, assistant to the president for enrollment management, told the Council that estimates indicate that the college will not only meet but will exceed fall 1987 enrollment goals as student headcount is expected to approximate 6,000. New, full-time freshmen and transfers will exceed the numerical goals for new students, and the persistence rate of continuing students will meet and perhaps exceed projections. Also, she said, quality indicators for freshmen and transfers alike appear to be equal to or better than those for students who entered the college in the fall of 1986.

Future plans in enrollment management, stated Edwards, call for "a realistic but optimistic approach" to the process. The process, she said, will include:

- Continued development of a campus-wide understanding of enrollment issues and the incorporation of enrollment priorities into the planning process;
- Establishment of both numerical (headcount) and quality goals for various enrollment segments, projecting basically a steady-state status; and
- An increase in targeted recruitment and retention activities based on data from a variety of research findings.

An example of the latter, said Edwards, are efforts designed to increase the minority student population at SUNY Plattsburgh. She pointed out that a primary objective is to "create a college community at Plattsburgh that, to the extent possible, reflects the range and variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds represented by the residents of New York State."

Following Thursday's College Council meeting, Council members toured Art Department studios and facilities, including (being shown here by Director of Galleries Edward Brohel) the unfinished Winkel Sculpture Court. Visits to selected areas of the campus will become routine for Council members under a meeting agenda innovation suggested by President Charles O. Warren.

College to Host 'Conversation' Program on Writing Instruction

SUNY Plattsburgh will host a SUNY-wide Conversation in the Disciplines on the subject of composition scholarship on September 18 - 19. The program, entitled "Discourse Analysis, Classroom Experiments and Counting T-Units: Exploring the Multi-Disciplinary Nature of Composition Scholarship" will bring together instructors from all disciplines and university administrators to discuss a variety of issues connected with writing instruction.

Marcia Dickson, who organized the program, said participants will consider such topics as the role of the composition instructor in preparing students to write in disciplines other than English, how to ease the ten-

Parents', Open House Weekend Will Swell Campus Population

The weekend of September 25-27 will be a very busy one on campus, with large crowds expected to attend both the Parents' Weekend activities and the Fall Open House for Prospective Students.

Parents' Weekend activities run from Friday evening through Sunday afternoon and include planetarium shows, Burghy Games, a gallery tour, three informational seminars, a President's Reception and Dinner, a "Party Night at the Angell Center," and the Campus Carnival. The Saturday evening activities — a DJ dance party featuring Time Machine in the Ballroom, a piano bar with Jean Morlock in the Orchard Room, and a performance by Lady Luck in the Point — are open to the entire campus community. More information is available in the Office of College Relations and Development.

Open House is scheduled for Saturday, September 26 and is designed for students who are deciding whether to apply for admission for the fall, 1988 semester. Discussions with faculty members, campus tours, and three seminars will be offered during the day. Details are available from the Admissions Office.

Variety of Art Exhibits Open This Week in Campus Galleries

Several art exhibitions open this week in the various campus galleries.

Drawings and prints by Al Hirschfeld, on loan from the Margo Feiden Gallery in New York City, will be featured in the Myers Gallery. Hirschfeld has been creating caricatures of stage and screen stars for more than 60 years. His drawings are seen frequently in the Arts and Leisure section of The New York Times, and have also appeared in such publications as Vanity Fair, Vogue and The Saturday Evening Post.

Prints and drawings by James Fitzgerald will be on display in the Rockwell Kent Alcove. Fitzgerald lived and worked for several years in the Monhegan Island studio which Rockwell Kent had built. He and Kent became good friends and Fitzgerald later purchased Kent's cottage on Monhegan.

Details and registration forms are available from Dickson in the English department.

Presidential Scholars Program Expanded to Include Sophomores

This year, for the first time, the college's Presidential Scholarship program has been expanded through the establishment of two additional awards to students of sophomore standing.

Presidential Scholarships, funded by the Plattsburgh College Foundation, cover the cost of full-tuition and are renewable annually provided the recipients continue to meet academic performance criteria. Expansion of the program means that 12 undergraduates will qualify for scholarships each year.

According to Dr. David Mowry, professor of philosophy and director of the college's Honors Program, the two sophomore students selected as Presidential Scholars effective this fall are Kevin Days of Brooklyn, and Susan Lofthouse of Plattsburgh. Both are history majors.

This year's freshmen Presidential Scholars, their majors and hometowns are: Ann Bremm, undeclared, Albany; Paul Howard, chemistry, Ft. Covington; Danielle Jose, secondary education/English, Mechanicville; Vicki Lapier, undeclared, Plattsburgh; Aileen Moroney, undeclared, Nanuet; Rachel Patterson, biology, New Berlin; Jennifer Pelzar, undeclared, Congers; Wayne Powell, biology, West Monroe; Anja Rothhaar, biology, Cadyville; and Richard Volo, mass media, Medford.

Also on exhibit in the Kent Gallery is a collection of sixteen prints by distinguished American artists, part of what is known as "The Atelier Project." During the Project, which was conceived and executed at SUNY Purchase, various artists developed print portfolios which are now being donated to various museums, galleries, libraries, and SUNY campuses. The 16 prints on display will become part of the college's permanent art collection.

Finally, selected works from the Juried Student Exhibit of last spring and some additional pieces by students and faculty are on exhibit in the Myers Fine Arts Lobby.

Discussion on Teaching Effectiveness Features Utah's Eble

How does one define "effective teaching!"

How do issues on the SUNY Plattsburgh campus relate to national concerns in higher education?

These and other questions will be explored next week as a campus-wide discussion on "the state of higher education and student learning" continues as an extension of the Town Meeting programs held here following spring commencement in each of the past two years. Town Meeting was conceived as a thoroughgoing exchange of ideas about teaching and learning and how the college as a whole can improve its performance in meeting the needs of new students.

According to Dr. Ingrun Lafleur, associate vice president for academic affairs, next week's program will be highlighted by presentations by Dr. Kenneth Eble, professor of English at the University of Utah and author of The Craft of Teaching. On Monday,

Booster Club Campaign Begins; Fund-Raising Goal Set at $25M

The Cardinal Booster Club will launch its 1987 membership campaign this week. Letters urging membership renewal will be in the mail by Friday to the more than 250 individuals and couples who supported the organization a year ago, and to a substantial number of others who have indicated an interest in becoming "boosters" of the college's intercollegiate sports teams. The campaign goal is $25,000 in contributions.

In 1986, the Cardinal Booster Club, an affiliate of both the Plattsburgh College Foundation and the Plattsburgh State Alumni Association, generated $19,307 in gifts from members. Funds raised by the club support athletic programs and activities that cannot be funded by state appropriations or institutional resources. Its allocations in the past year ranged from equipment and uniform purchases for a variety of men's and women's sports teams and creation of the Plattsburgh State Sports Hall of Fame exhibit in Memorial Hall, to support for coaches' recruitment travel and for the Cardinal hockey team's four-game trip to Alaska last November.

Membership requires a minimum contribution of $50. Donors at the basic level receive a Booster Club card that provides them free admission for one person to home men's basketball and hockey contests. Those who join with a gift of $100 or more receive a Century Club card that allows free admission for two persons to home games in basketball and ice hockey. These privileges are provided courtesy of the Plattsburgh State Student Association.

Further information about the Cardinal Booster Club and membership applications may be obtained by calling the Office of College Relations and Development at 564-2090.

September 21, Eble will discuss "The Dynamics of Learning and Knowledge: Implications of Bloom's Closing of the American Mind and Hirsch's Cultural Literacy" in a session scheduled for 4 p.m. in the Orchard Room of the Angell Center. The following day, from noon to 1:15 p.m., he will outline "Strategies for Improving Student Learning and Teaching, Campus-wide" in a program to be held in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. Faculty in particular are urged to attend either or both lectures.

Eble is the author of six books on teaching effectiveness. He has served as a consultant to numerous colleges, universities and educational foundations. While on campus, he will be available to meet with individuals or groups of faculty and students. Arrangements should be coordinated through Dr. Lafleur's office (2195).

The RA Association and the Office of Campus Life honored Dr. Lary Shaffer last week by planting a silver maple tree in front of Macdonough Hall. Shaffer, professor of psychology, who graduated from SUNY Plattsburgh in 1968, lived in Macdonough Hall during his freshman year on campus. Seen here with Shaffer (planting the tree) are Macdonough RA's John Pugliese and Tim Ayrovainen.

New, 120-foot Chimney Stack to Improve Emission Control

For those who may be wondering, the large crane near the heating plant is there to install a new chimney stack. According to Derek Allan, facilities director, the new stack will be 120 feet high, considerably higher than the old one. Allan said the Department of Environmental Conservation had advised that the stacks be changed, so the emissions would be released at a higher level.

Allan said the 29-section stack is being cast in Essex Junction, Vt. and is expected to be completely operational by November. Murnane Associates is the general contractor.

Men, Women Split in Soccer; Miller Shines in X-Country Loss

Plattsburgh State's men's soccer team won a thriller over Castleton State, 2-1, last Wednesday, but tasted defeat for the first time this fall in a 2-0 setback to nationally ranked Binghamton State on Saturday.

Down 1-0 to Castleton with about five minutes to play, Fernando Gualtieri tallied on consecutive breakaways to seal the victory for the Cardinals. Saturday's loss to Binghamton left Plattsburgh with a 3-1 record going into yesterday's contest against Albany State. The Cards will host SUNYAC rival Cortland State at 2 p.m. on Saturday at the Field House.

Plattsburgh State's women's soccer team also split a pair of games in the past week. The women Cardinals nipped Johnson State, 2-1, on Wednesday on Missy Frenyea's goal with 35 seconds remaining in overtime. Kathy Ritger notched the Cards' first goal, assisted by Mary Jane Dillon. The women return to action today at 3 p.m. at the Field House versus Clarkson University.

In other intercollegiate action, the women's volleyball team lost decisively to Paul Smith's College in last Wednesday's season opener and finished last in Saturday's five-team Cortland Invitational Tournament, won by the host Red Dragons. Jim Miller turned in a steller individual performance in finishing first in 27:03 in Saturday's cross country meet with the University of Vermont, but his effort was not enough as the Catamounts prevailed, 20-43. The Cardinal women dropped an 18-45 decision to UVM, with Kathy Kane running the best race for Plattsburgh with a third place finish.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Edward Engelbride, director of campus/community activities, served recently as a member of a committee planning an upcoming conference on "Greeks and SUNY: Past, Present and Future." . . Dr. Leonard Fontana, associate professor of sociology, is co-author (with Adela Beckerman of Clinton Community College) of "Perceptions and Aspirations of Community College Business Students: Does Gender Make a Difference," a paper that has been accepted for publication in the Community College Review. Fontana will be on leave from the college during the spring semester to be a visiting professor of social policy at the University of Reading, England. . . Dr. Edwin Hamblet, professor of French, reviewed Michel Tremblay's play Albertine en cinq temps and Robert Lalonde's prize-winning Quebec novel Une Belle Journee d'avance in the April volume of the French Review. In the May volume of the Review, Hamblet reviewed Une Historie americaine by the Montreal novelist, Jacques Godbout. . . Dr. Thomas Rumney, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, has published a bibliography entitled "The Physical Geography of Canada — Geomorphology: A Selected Bibliography" . . . Dr. Robert Weiss, associate professor of sociology, is the author of "Humanitarianism, Labour Exploitation, or Social Control? A Critical Survey of Theory and Research on the Origin and Development of Prisons," a monograph accepted for publication in the October issue of the British journal, Social History. Weiss recently published a book review on "Accountability in Prisons" for the Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology."

CORRECTIONS

In last week's article relative to faculty promotions, it was reported that Carla List had been promoted to senior assistant librarian. List was promoted to associate librarian.

In the "Spotlight" section Dr. Philip Reines' name was misspelled. The editors apologize for the error.

Walk for Health Program Begins

"Walking for Health," a program of moderate exercise for members of the college community, will get underway next Monday (Sept. 21) at 12:15 p.m. on the steps of Memorial Hall.

Sponsored jointly by the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), Student Health Services and the Office of Campus Life, Walking for Health will be a 40-minute program available during the noon hour, five days per week, to all students and campus employees. Helen Rock, co-coordinator of EAP, said that sign-up is not necessary and that participants should feel free to walk as many times each week during the six-week period the program is offered.

"Those who want to walk for health merely have to show up on time at Memorial Hall," said Rock. "We urge them to wear comfortable shoes."

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Library
Director of Libraries	7/17/87	9/30/87
Professional Studies
Assistant to the Dean	9/11/87	Open

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17 — THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

noon - 4 pm — New York State Senate Student Programs — General Information Session. Open to the campus. Angell Center Lobby.

12:15 - 1:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Barbara Thompson, Administrator, Clinton County Nursing Home speaking on "Quality Life for Older Women." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 pm — Behavioral Science Colloquy presents Jack Feldman, Georgia Institute of Technology speaking on "Self Generated Validity." Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: Targeting Your Job Search. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 - 7 pm — Welcome Back Reception sponsored by the Adult Student Group. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: How to Improve Your Lecture Notetaking Skills. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:30 pm — American Marketing Association first meeting of the semester with assignment of assistants to the officers. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Open House Tour Guide Training sponsored by Admissions. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Support Group for Anorexia Nervosa and Bulimia — film and discussion. Sponsored by the Student Health Center. Open to the campus. Student Health Center.

7:30 pm — Distinguished Visiting Professor Wallace Mendelson will speak on "Some Problems of Law and Justice in America." City Hall Rotunda.

7:30 pm — Economics Club Reception. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — Student Association Activities Coordination Board presents "The Comedy Laff-Off." Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

9 am - 3 pm — New York State Senate Student Programs — General Information Session. Open to the campus. Angell Center Lobby.

7:30 pm — Intervarsity Christian Fellowship Weekly Meeting. Angell Center Blue Room.

8 pm — Irondale Ensemble Project — "A Theatre of Development" sponsored by the College Theatre Association. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $4, faculty $3 and on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

9 pm — Friday Night at the Movies: "A Place in the Sun" sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

9 am — Adirondack Bike Tour — A 40 mile ride to Twin Valleys with overnight stay. For information call 564-3824. Departs from Saranac Hall Parking lot.

9 am - 6 pm — Bus to Montreal. Round trip tickets are $9 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from Angell College Center.

2 pm — Men's Soccer vs. Cortland. Field House Soccer Field.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

3 pm — Music Hall Dedication by Yenoin Guibbory. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Myers Fine Arts Lobby.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Jumpin' Jack Flash." Open to the campus. Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

Burghy Residence All Star Games. Check with dorm councils for times and places.

12:05 pm — Walking for Health. Meet on front steps of Memorial Hall. Be dressed for walking.

3-4:30 pm — International Studies Study Abroad Informational. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Dietary Club Organizational Meeting. Open to the campus. Ward Hall Lounge.

7:30 pm — D.V.P. Wallace Mendelson lecture on "James Madison's Triumph: The Fourteenth Amendment." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Jeanne Finley, Poet, Fiction Writer, Editor and Assistant to the Director of the New York State Writer's Institute, will give a Poetry Reading. Sponsored by the Visiting Poets and Writer's Series. Open to the campus, no charge. CV Hall Commons.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

11:30 am - 1 pm — UUP Executive Board Meeting. Members only. Angell Conference Room.

12:15 - 1:15 pm — Adult Student Group Weekly Meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge, Angell Center 2nd floor.

3 pm — Office of Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: Interview Techniques. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: Reading Your Textbook — Increase Your Concentration, Motivation and Comprehension. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Lecture: Distinguished Visiting Professor Wallace Mendelson: "Justice Black: The Father of the Warren Court." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Music Artists Series presents: "Roundelay," a duo performing early music. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: Considering Graduate School. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: Reading Your Textbook — Increase Your Concentration, Motivation and Comprehension. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:30 pm — Society for the Advancement of Management presents speaker Dr. Warren. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

5:00 pm — Meeting to discuss application to dietetic internship. Open to Food and Nutrition Majors and interested others. Ward Hall Lounge.

7 pm — Union of Concerned Students Meeting with various special guests (to be announced). Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Dr. Ann Tracy speaking on "Transforming a Novel to a More Feminist Perspective." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: Placement Orientation. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: Reading Your Textbook — Increase Your Concentration, Motivation and Comprehension. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies Seminar Series for Women presents: "Coping With Stress." Registration fee is $10. You can sign up at Hawkins Hall 106. Sibley Hall Room 408.

7:30 pm — Lecture by Distinguished Visiting Professor Wallace Mendelson: "The Decline and Fall of the Constitution." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Visual Artists Series presents Visiting Artist William Daley, ceramic artist and professor at the University of Philadelphia. Angell Center Ballroom.

NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobic Programs sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday through Thursday at 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm and Friday and Sunday at 3:30 pm. Open to the campus no charge. You must wear proper footwear. Angell Center Blue Room.

Bus to Montreal — The Campus Life Office will be sponsoring a Bus to Montreal on Saturday, September 19th. Bus departs from the Angell Center at 9 am, destination Dominion Square. Returns to campus by 6 pm. Tickets: $9.00 round trip and on sale at the Angell Center Desk beginning Monday, September 14. For more information, call 564-3824.

The Walking Club now forming on campus. We are looking for all persons interested in walking a 40-minute course during the noon hour, Monday through Friday. Interested? If so contact Melanie Wyand, at 3824, Sally Stay at 2187 or Helen Rock, EAP coordinator, at 3102.

Applications are being accepted for the 1988 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program. The deadline for receipt of applications is October 16. An informational meeting and tour of the Cell Science facilities at Miner Center will be held at 1 pm on October 2. For further information, arrangements for the visit and applications, contact the Biology Secretary in Beaumont 207 (564-3155) or Dr. William Graziadei, Miner Center (1-846-7144).

Meeting of all Medical Technology students on Tuesday, September 29 at 4:10 pm in Room 432 of Beaumont Hall. Important information concerning Medical Technology and Medical Tech programs will be presented. Non-majors who are interested in Medical Technology are also welcome. Refreshments will be served.

Dr. Robert O. Stripling, Distinguished Visiting Professor in Counselor Education, will deliver two lectures this week. At noon on September 22, at the Royal Savage, he will discuss "The Agenda for Counseling During the Next Decade" at a meeting of the Northeastern New York Counselors Association. The following day, Stripling will discuss "That Delicate Balance: Freedom of Choice Versus Prescription" at a dinner meeting of the School Administrators Association of New York State Northeast Chapter. For details and reservations, call Dr. Donald Haight at 564-4178.

SED Okays Major in Hotel-Restaurant Management

SUNY Plattsburgh has received authorization from the New York State Education Department (SED) to implement a baccalaureate degree program in hotel and restaurant management.

SED approval culminates a planning and program-development process that began more than two years ago, and it marks a first for SUNY as well as for Plattsburgh State. The program is expected to bolster enrollments and to have an invigorating effect on the hotel and restaurant industry in the North Country, whose proprietors and managers have backed its establishment enthusiastically.

"Ours is the first program in this field to be offered by a four-year campus in State University of New York," said Dr. Marilyn Chase, who directs Plattsburgh's Center for Human Resources, which will offer it, and who developed and advanced the proposal to its fruition. "The fact that hotel and restaurant management is new to SUNY explains why action on its approval seemed to inch along," speculated Chase. "We weren't going to get the program until the State Education Department was satisfied it would be first-rate."

Plattsburgh State becomes the fourth institution in New York State to offer a bachelor's degree in hotel and restaurant management. The others, all private institutions, are Cornell University, New York University and Rochester Institute of Technology.

"All of our research relative to demand," explained Chase, indicates that many qualified students are being denied the opportunity to pursue their interests in this field. This is the case particularly among those attending two-year colleges, and we will do everything possible to articulate our program with the 26 community colleges in SUNY that offer associate degrees in hotel-restaurant and related disciplines. The well-documented support of these colleges comprised a cornerstone of our program proposal."

Support came also from the New York State Restaurant Association, the largest organization of its type in the state, and regionally from groups representing the more than 200 motels and hotels and

(Continued on following page)

weekly

Published by the Office of College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community • September 23, 1987

More Than 500 Honor Stafford at Field House Arena Dedication

More than 500 invited guests, members of the campus community and friends and associates of New York State Senator Ronald B. Stafford (R-Plattsburgh) turned out to salute Stafford last Tuesday on the occasion of the formal dedication of the SUNY Plattsburgh Field House ice arena in his honor. The dedication ceremony was highlighted by a reading of letters of commendation and congratulations from President Ronald Reagan and Governor Mario Cuomo, by tributes from college and governmental representatives and from Mrs. Anne Furman Stafford, and by the unveiling of a dedicatory plaque citing Stafford's contributions to the college and his career achievements in behalf of higher education.

Office of General Services Commissioner John C. Egan, standing in for Gov. Cuomo, described Stafford as "the best liked guy in the capitol" who personifies good government, and as a political figure respected for his honesty and integrity. Mrs. Stafford, in a reference to her husband's battle against lymphoma, a form of cancer, noted that although 1987 is an off-election year, the Senator is up against formidable opposition. "It is only primary day," she said, "but it appears that this campaign will be as successful as Ron's others." Stafford is currently serving his 11th consecutive term in the State Senate.

Plattsburgh State President Dr. Charles O. Warren, who presided at the ceremony, referred to Stafford as "a champion of higher education, an ef-

(Continued on following page)

Senator Ronald B. Stafford and Anne Furman Stafford unveil plaque that will hang permanently near the entrance to the Field House ice arena dedicated last Tuesday in the Senator's honor. Looking on are (center) Monsignor Morris L. Dwyer of St. John's Parish in Keeseville, and (right) College Council Chairperson Robert M. Garrow.

Welcome Parents and Prospective Students!

Class of '86 Career Survey Indicates Record Employment Rate

The Office of Career/Life Planning and Placement has published its "Alumni Career Survey" for the Class of 1986, and the results indicate that the employment rate among last year's graduates topped that in any of the past 20 years in which such records have been kept.

The placement report shows that the adjusted total employment rate among 1986 graduates is 98.5%, up from 93.3% in the previous year. The "adjusted" rate takes into account the number of graduates who were employed full-time within a specified period of time following graduation (80.7%), those who were employed part-time (8.2%), those who had not found jobs but were seeking them (1.3%), and those who were not seeking employment (9.7%). Responses to the survey were received from 539 of 1,124 graduates in the class of '86 — a rate consistent with that of past years.

Other highlights of the report:

- The number of students who reported that their jobs relate directly to their college major remained high (79.4% compared to 79.7% among 1985 graduates). Moreover, satisfaction with career potential (78.3%) and with salary and benefits (65.5%) improved dramatically.

- Graduates who entered business or industry climbed from 37% in 1985 to 47% in 1986. Other leading employment categories continue to be education (19%) and health care agencies (11%).
- Average salary for all types of employment totaled $16,999 — up more than $1,000 in comparison with the previous year. Those employed full-time commanded salaries averaging $17,681. Average salaries for men employed full-time totaled $19,552; those for women were $16,771. Figures in all categories showed appreciable gains.
- The rate of graduates who choose to pursue graduate study remained high, with 13% of the class of '86 electing continuing education on a full-time basis and 18.7% — the highest in years — doing so as part-time students.
- Students' satisfaction with their academic preparation at SUNY Plattsburgh for careers was 88%.
- Extra-academic experiences that graduates considered helpful in their job search included internships/fieldwork (58.1%), extracurricular activities (38%) and summer employment (30.1%).

Hotel-Restaurant Program Approved (Continued from page 1)

200 restaurants in Clinton and Essex Counties alone.

"Fantastic!", exclaimed Robert Rathbun, co-owner of the D & H Restaurant in Plattsburgh and treasurer of the Clinton County Hotel, Restaurant and Liquor Dealers Association, upon learning that the program had been approved. "This program will be a boon to a growing industry throughout our region. It will provide independent operators and chain restaurants alike with qualified individuals schooled in management basics ranging from sanitation and nutrition to cost control and the critical function of hiring personnel."

The program at Plattsburgh will be structured to take advantage of the college's strengths in food and nutrition and business administration. Chase pointed out that the college currently offers a well-established and highly reputable concentration in food service systems management which will be revised to include the hotel component. This, she said, will allow currently enrolled students to phase into the program immediately. New students — transfers and a limited number of freshmen — may apply for admission to the program next fall, when it will become a major field of study officially. It may eventually enroll upwards of 250 majors.

"The emphasis will be on quality," said Chase, "and that means that students will have to study calculus, chemistry, microbiology and language as well as satisfy requirements in business and economics and in courses distinctive to the major. Our graduates will be well-prepared for immediate employment or for further study in graduate school."

Stafford Arena Dedicated (Continued from page 1)

fective legislator and humane and caring person" whose reputation "extends far beyond the boundary that separates the North Country from other regions of New York State." He stated that SUNY as a whole is better prepared to fulfill its mission "because you, Ron Stafford, and those who have come under your influence, have placed a premium on education."

Stafford Arena was dedicated formally by College Council Chair, Robert M. Garrow, who pointed out that the Senator's efforts were instrumental in obtaining state funds to construct the Field House. "As an alumnus," said Garrow, a 1953 Plattsburgh State graduate and principal of Monty Street School in Plattsburgh, "I am grateful for the many times he has fought for the college's cause. As an educator, I would like to state emphatically that no one in the North Country has been as dedicated to the cause of education on all levels as Ron Stafford."

After unveiling the dedicatory plaque that will hang permanently near the entrance to the arena, Stafford acknowledged the honor with humility, giving credit for his accomplishments to his family, friends and staff. "The recognition I receive here today is, in my mind, recognition of all of you."

Annual Giving Approaches 76% of Goal as of Mid-September

With less than four months to go in the campaign, annual giving to the Plattsburgh College Foundation is approaching 76 percent of the goal for 1987.

According to Clifford Calongne, chairperson of annual giving, the Foundation had received $232,468 in gifts and pledges to the various fund drives as of September 15. The annual giving goal for the year ending December 31 is $305,000.

Calongne said that the community friends drive can be labeled an overwhelming success, with $55,318 in donations and pledges recorded in a campaign projected to generate $30,000 in gifts in 1987. The Foundation's business and organizations drives were at 101% and 97%, respectively, as of mid-September, with the former $576 over its goal of $90,000 and the latter just $350 shy of a goal of $15,000.

"The faculty and staff effort is at 87% of goal," commented Calongne, "needing a little more than $3,000 in gifts to reach the $25,000 plateau. Meanwhile, the annual alumni fund is nearing 50% of its goal of $100,000 as the fall phonathon picks up momentum, and the Cardinal Booster Club and parents' fund drives are just getting underway."

The Foundation's annual giving leadership committee will meet next Tuesday to plan campaign strategy through the end of the calendar year.

Phi Eta Sigma to Welcome 20 to Honor Society for Freshmen

Nineteen students and a member of the administration will be inducted into Phi Eta Sigma, the national honor society for freshmen, at 4 p.m. on Saturday, September 26. Membership in Phi Eta Sigma is awarded to students who achieve at least a 3.5 grade point average during at least one semester of their freshman year at SUNY Plattsburgh.

New student members are Howard A. Anderson, Frank J. Capurso, Kirk W. Christensen, Frank J. Ciardullo, William C. Fellows, Aimee C. Gomlak, Darcey E. Gregory, Mary H. Guarnieri, Jennifer L. LeBlanc, Michelle D. McAnerney, Eileen M. McBath, Marjorie L. Millea, Suzanne Marotta, Douglas C. Powell, Donna L. Rehm, Katherine A. Shaw, Michelle L. Vedder, Scott M. Wasserman, and Kerri L. Winkler.

Also being inducted, as an honorary member, is Dr. Ingrun LaFleur, associate vice president for academic affairs.

Phi Eta Sigma President Kevin Days will preside during the ceremony and President Charles O. Warren will deliver congratulatory remarks.

8th Annual Campus Community Carnival Scheduled for Sunday

The Eighth Annual Campus Community Carnival will be held on Sunday, September 27 in the Amite Plaza from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. The Carnival will kick off with a 3.5 mile fun run beginning at 10 a.m. (Registration will be held at 9 a.m. in the Saranac Hall parking lot.)

The Carnival will feature booths, rides, clowns, acrobats, gifts and prizes, along with a hack contest, a pizza eating contest, musical chairs, a home run derby and a road rally. At 3 p.m., balloons for the Great Balloon Get-Away will be launched.

More information is available from the Office of Campus Life, which sponsors the Carnival.

Wells to Retire October 1 Ending 30-year Career Here

Phyllis L. Wells, associate librarian, will retire October 1 after 30 years of service to SUNY Plattsburgh and the Benjamin F. Feinberg Library.

Wells joined the college in September of 1957 as an assistant librarian. She was promoted to senior assistant librarian 1979 and to her current post a year ago. Throughout her career at Plattsburgh State, Wells has worked in the Bibliographic Control (cataloging) unit where she has been responsible for cataloging art, language and literature, music and phonodiscs. Her scholarly activities have included research and compilation of materials relative to covered bridges in New York State, local history and churches in Clinton County, and she has published several articles and has lectured extensively on these topics.

During academic 1977-78 Wells exchanged positions with a librarian from California State University, Chico. The exchange, initiated by Wells, has since served as a model for similar exchanges in SUNY.

Wells' colleagues on the Feinberg staff will hold a dinner in her honor on Friday, September 25, at the Royal Savage Inn on the South Shore Road. Her retirement is the second among senior library staff to become effective this academic year. Robert E. Burton, director of libraries since September of 1976, has announced his retirement as of May 26, 1988.

Wins in Women's Tennis, Soccer Offset Dismal Week in Sports

Victories in women's tennis and soccer averted a week-long whitewash on the intercollegiate sports scene at SUNY Plattsburgh. The women netters, led by captain Lynn Becker and Stacey Reartey, breezed to a 7-2 triumph over Clarkson University last Wednesday. Becker and Rearty both won singles matches and then teamed up to win again in first doubles. Other Cardinal women who prevailed in singles play were Marcia DeWitt, Anna Galloway, Lori Shayew and Jennifer Shea. Earlier in the week, the women's tennis team, now 2-2 on the season, dropped a 6-3 decision to Potsdam State.

The Cardinal women's soccer team edged Clarkson, 1-0, on Wednesday behind Mary Jane Dillon's goal, but then lost a pair to Green Mountain College and New Paltz later in the week. Meanwhile, SUNYAC rivals Albany and Cortland handed the men's soccer team back-to-back defeats.

In volleyball, the women spikers beat St. Rose in the North Country Invitational Tournament at Potsdam State over the weekend but were unsuccessful in matches with the host school, St. John Fisher and twice against Union College.

Ceramicist Daley to Lecture

Ceramicist William Daley will present a lecture/slideshow at 8 p.m. on Thursday, September 24 in the Angell Center Ballroom.

Daley is a professor of art and ceramics at Philadelphia College of the Arts and has worked in the field for 30 years. His works are included in the collections at the Philadelphia Museum of Art, the Victoria and Albert Museum in London, and the Dienst Beeldende Kunst in Holland. Daley's presentation is sponsored by the Visual Arts Series and is free and open to the public.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Library
Director of Libraries	7/17/87	9/30/87
Professional Studies
Assistant to the Dean	9/11/87	Open

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Several members of the college community presented a team writing project on "enhancing school climate" at a state-wide conference on school climate held recently in Albany. SUNY Plattsburgh's participants, from the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, were: Judy Charland, lecturer; Dr. Glenda Howell, assistant professor; Dr. Barbara McConville, associate professor; Dr. Nicholas Stupiansky, assistant professor; and Dr. Michael Wolfe, Center director. Dr. Thomas Moran, assistant vice president for academic affairs, also participated. . . Three articles on the subjects of corporate strategies and their implementation issues by Dr. Helen Deresky, associate professor in the School of Business and Economics, have been published in recent months in Strategies Management Journal, Organizational Dynamics and Business Education Journal. . . An article on "The Physics of Aircraft Flight" by Dr. George Flynn, assistant professor of physics, was the cover story in the September 1987 issues of The Physics Teacher, the monthly publication of the American Association of Physics Teachers. . . An intaglio print by Nicholas Hill, visiting associate professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, has been selected for a juried exhibition entitled "New Prints Northeast." The exhibition in Rosedale opened September 1 and continues through October 5. . . Dr. Charles Mitchell, professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, participated in the annual meeting of the Colonial Waterbird Society held in Thunder Bay, Ont., September 10 - 14. The organization, composed of researchers concerned with colonial nesting birds, is international in scope with members from North and South America, western Europe, Scandinavia, Africa and Japan. While at the meeting, Mitchell participated in a session of the Herons Specialist Group — Western Hemisphere Section, an affiliate of the International Council for Bird Preservation and International Waterfowl Research Bureau. He has been appointed to the Colonial Waterbird Society Finance Committee and to membership on the organization's Conservation Committee. . . Dr. Norman Teator, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, presented a paper entitled "A Comparative Analysis of Systems Interventions on the Construct of Empathy" at the summer workshop of the National Association of Teacher Educators held in Buffalo.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24 – THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

12:15 pm – Women's Studies Forum presents Dr. Ann Tracy speaking on "Transforming a Novel to a More Feminist Perspective." Sponsored by Women's Studies and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm – Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: Placement Orientation. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm – Special Services Project Workshop: Reading Your Textbook – Increase Your Concentration, Motivation and Comprehension. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 - 10 pm – Life Planning Strategies Seminar Series for Women presents: "Coping With Stress." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10. You can sign up at Hawkins Hall 106. Sibley Hall Room 408.

7:30 pm – Lecture by Distinguished Visiting Professor Wallace Mendelson: "The Decline and Fall of the Constitution." Sponsored by Political Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm – Visual Artists Series presents Visiting Artist William Daley, ceramic artist and professor at the University of Philadelphia. Sponsored by Art Resources Association. Angell Center Ballroom.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

3:30 pm – Women's Tennis vs. Trinity. Field House Tennis Courts.

7:30 pm – Intervarsity Christian Fellowship weekly meeting. Angell Center Blue Room.

9 am – Friday Night at the Movies presents "Rebel Without a Cause." Sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

12:30 pm – Men's Soccer vs. Oneonta. Field House Soccer Field.

1 pm – Men's and Women's Cross Country Hosts the Cardinal Classic. Field House.

3 pm – Women's Tennis vs. Middlebury. Field House Courts.

3 pm – Women's Soccer vs. McGill. Field House Soccer Field.

9:30 pm - midnight – Party Night at the Angell Center! Dance to Time Machine in the Ballroom, listen to Jean Morlock on the piano in the Orchard Room, and enjoy Lady Luck in the Point. Sponsored by the Parents Weekend Committee. All faculty and students (with or without parents) are welcome to attend.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

2 pm – Men's Soccer vs. Utica Tech. Field House.

6:45 & 9:15 pm – Student Association Film Committee presents "Ferris Bueller's Day Off." Open to the campus. Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

3 pm – Women's Tennis vs. Potsdam. Field House Court.

10:15 pm – Student Association Senate Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

11:30 am - 1 pm – UUP Executive Board Meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

12:15 - 1:15 pm – Adult Student Group Weekly Meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge, Angell Center 2nd floor.

3 pm – Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop – "Resumes and Cover Letters." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm – Distinguished Visiting Professor Program presents Dr. Robert Stripling, University of Florida, speaking on "Options for Teacher Education During the Next Decade." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm – Special Services Project Workshop: "How to Write an 'A' Paper." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm – International Film Series presents "A Room With a View" directed by James Ivory (British). Sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 208.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

3 pm – Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop – "Targeting Your Job Search." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm – Special Services Project Workshop: "How to Write an 'A' Paper." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm – Union of Concerned Students Meeting – various special guests (to be announced). Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents a Discussion on: "Sexual Harassment on Our Campus." Sponsored by Women's Studies and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 - 1:10 pm — Behavioral Science Colloquy features Tom Moran speaking on "Value Added: The Research Design." Sponsored by Behavioral Science Program. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 - 5 pm — Adult Learning Services — Open House. Sponsored by the Office of Adult Learning Services. Open to faculty and staff. Kehoe 712.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: "Interview Techniques." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 - 6 pm — Phi Kappa Chi Sorority Rush. Open to the Campus. 143 Brinkerhoff Street.

4:10 pm — "The Adirondack Land Trust: Private Sector Open Space Protection" by Dr. James C. Dawson, professor of Environmental Science. Sponsored by the Center for Earth and Environmental Science Fall Lecture Series. Open to the campus. Ward Hall 110.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "How to Write an 'A' Paper." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:15 - 6 pm — UUP Benefits Conference. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:30 pm — American Marketing Association Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 - 9 pm — Alpha Kappa Phi Sorority Rush. All women welcome. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies: A Seminar Series for Women presents Career Development and Life Planning. Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged at the Center for Lifelong Learning. Sibley 408.

8 pm — Professor James B. Atkinson, University of Pennsylvania will speak on "Machiavelli and the Comedy of Power." Sponsored by the English, History and Political Science Departments and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobic Program sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday through Thursday at 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm and Friday and Sunday at 3:30 pm. Open to the campus no charge. You must wear proper footwear. Angell Center Blue Room.

Bus to Montreal — The Campus Life Office will be sponsoring a Bus to Montreal on Saturday, October

3. Bus departs from the Angell Center at 9 am, destination Dominion Square. Returns to campus by 6 pm. Tickets: $9.00 round trip and on sale at the Angell Center Desk beginning Monday, September 28. For more information, call 564-3824.

The Walking Club now forming on campus. We are looking for all persons interested in walking a 40-minute course during the noon hour, Monday through Friday. Interested? If so contact Melanie Wyand, at 3824, Sally Stay at 2187 or Helen Rock, EAP coordinator, at 3102.

Applications are being accepted for the 1988 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program. The deadline for receipt of applications is October 16. An informational meeting and tour of the Cell Science facilities at Miner Center will be held at 1 pm on October 2. For further information, arrangements for the visit and applications, contact the Biology Secretary in Beaumont 207 (564-3155) or Dr. William Graziadei, Miner Center (1-846-7144).

The Plattsburgh Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa — National Leadership Honor Society is now accepting nominations of juniors, seniors or graduate students for membership in ODK. Nominations should be sent to: Cheryl Hogle, Faculty Secretary of ODK, Angell Center 110, no later than October 9, 1987.

Internships: Sociology and criminal justice students interested in registering for internships for the Spring 1988 Semester are requested to attend an informational meeting on Thursday, September 24 at 4:00 pm in Room 239 Redcay. General inquiries welcome. Dr. Weiss, ex. 3310.

On Tuesday Sept. 29, there will be a referendum to amend the Student Association constitution. Polls will be open from 8 am to 8 pm at the end of the College Center Desk in Angell Center. Student I.D.'s are required to vote.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery
September 16 - October 18
Drawings and Prints by Famed Caricaturist Al Hirschfeld

Rockwell Kent Alcove Gallery
September 16 - November 8
Paintings and Drawings by James Fitzgerald

Rockwell Kent Gallery
September 16 - November 6
A Collection of Prints from the Atelier Project

Asbestos Study Report: No Immediate Threat Here

The results of the SUNY-wide asbestos survey, conducted by Hall-Kimbrell Environmental Services, were presented to campus personnel last week, and the news for the Plattsburgh campus was good. Derek Allan, facilities director, said, "Exposure to asbestos is not an immediate threat on this campus."

Hall-Kimbrell staff members surveyed every room and mechanical area on the campus during their site visit. Each asbestos location was assigned an exposure number based on 20 variables, such as condition of the asbestos material, accessibility, air movement through the area, and level of actual asbestos content. Exposure numbers ranged from 0 to 162, and seven priority levels were assigned.

On the Plattsburgh campus, three buildings — Feinberg Library, the president's garage, and the service garage — were found to contain no asbestos.

weekly

While it was found in all other buildings, the highest exposure number on the campus was less than 100, and approximately 95% of the occurrences were rated as Priority VI or VII, the two lowest levels.

Two small Priority I areas were found, one located in a steam heating tunnel and one in an unoccupied heating equipment room. Allan emphasized, "There are no high priority levels of asbestos in any areas which pose a threat to faculty, staff or students. The vast majority of areas found to contain asbestos are in mechanical service rooms."

SUNY is proposing a seven-year, seven-tier removal plan, according to Hall-Kimbrell, which is expected to cost about $7 million per year. Allan explained that some maintenance and operations personnel will be trained to deal with small removal projects necessary in the ongoing maintenance of plant operations.

The complete five-volume asbestos assessment study, which lists and ranks each occurrence on the SUNY Plattsburgh campus, will soon be on file in the Feinberg Library.

Published by the Office of College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community • September 30, 1987

President Warren to Convene Permanent Commission on Women

A Permanent Commission on Women will be formed within the next two weeks, as a result of a recommendation from the Presidential Advisory Committee on Women. That committee, formed last spring by Acting President Sherry H. Penney to respond to the report of the SUNY Plattsburgh Women's Committee, has presented its report to President Charles O. Warren, who will convene the commission.

The committee, which was chaired by Dr. Mark Cohen, agreed that, "fundamental issues raised by the report . . . need to be addressed immediately and in a substantive manner by the administration of the college." On the issue of equity and access, committee members said, "Policies and practices that are 'gender blind' may act to the detriment of female members of the Plattsburgh community because historic differences in access to information and power as well as differences in professional opportunities, responsibility and evaluation, can act against women."

On the issue of equality the committee said, "High quality education is education in which the development of both men and women is promoted; and it is education in which issues related to gender are considered appropriate for serious and sensitive consideration in and out of class."

A permanent commission, the report says, should be chosen initially by the president, should be empowered to secure information and assistance from other campus officers and other branches of SUNY, should be able to initiate research on gender related issues, should advise the president concerning procedures and determination of complaints related to gender bias, and should prepare an annual progress and status report for dissemination to the college community.

The report suggested an initial agenda for the commission, to include the following:

- Attention should be given to eliminating sex-based inequity in salary, hiring and professional advancement;
- Scholarship on women and gender issues should be incorporated into the curriculum;
- Efforts should be made to remove remaining formal and informal barriers limiting female students' access to quality education;
- The president, assisted by the commission, should take the lead in educating members of the college population about gender biases and in generating an attitude of respect for women on the campus; and,
- Efforts should be made to continue and expand ways to provide a safe, healthy and supportive environment for women.

Copies of the complete report are available in the Feinberg Library, the president's office, the vice presidents' offices, and the deans' offices.

Four to be Enshrined in Sports Hall of Fame at Homecoming

Four former outstanding athletes who have made their mark professionally in the field of education will be inducted to the Plattsburgh State Sports Hall of Fame on Sunday, October 18 during Homecoming Weekend festivities.

The four and their class years are: Doris E. Benton '50 of Indian Lake; William Garvey '71 of Hopewell

Benton

Garvey

Miller

Potter

Junction; Francis E. "Bud" Miller '38 of Schenectady; and John H. "Jack" Potter '61 of Hudson Falls. They were selected for induction by a committee established by the Cardinal Booster Club, which sponsors the Hall of Fame in cooperation with the Plattsburgh State Alumni Association, and their formal installation will take place during a ceremony following a 9:30 a.m. brunch on Homecoming Sunday in the ballroom of the Angell College Center (tickets for this event are $6 and are available through the college's Office of Alumni Affairs).

Benton, a Dean's List student in elementary education and class president for three years, was an outstanding performer and letter winner in volleyball, softball and basketball throughout her undergraduate career at Plattsburgh. She taught 5th grade in the Indian Lake Central School system from 1957 until her retirement a year ago in June, and her tenure at Indian Lake included nine years as coach of girls' sports at the high school level. Benton has been active in community service and church activities for many years, and, since retirement, has earned certification as a paralegal-legal assistant.

Garvey was a prolific scorer and team leader who led the 1968 Cardinal soccer team to a third place finish in the NAIA national championship tournament. His 16 goals that season established a new Plattsburgh State single-season record, and he left the college as its all-time goal-scorer with 57. Garvey was a perennial SUNYAC first-team selection and a member for four years of the All-New York State collegiate soccer team. Since graduation from Plattsburgh, he has been a 5th grade teacher in the Wappingers Central School District and he has coached soccer at a variety of levels, including the Empire State Games, earning election in 1980 to the Dutchess County Soccer Hall of Fame.

Miller was a three-year starter in varsity basketball at Plattsburgh State who was named to the 1936 All-America Team. He went on to teach and coach varity baseball, basketball and football at Plattsburgh High School, and he subsequently taught and held administrative posts in school systems in Cobleskill, Colonie and Oneonta. Following his retirement in 1972, he spent nine years as associate executive director of the School Administrators Association of New York State (SAANYS), an organization he continues to serve today as a field consultant. Miller is a former member of the SUNY Plattsburgh Alumni Association's Board of Directors and recipient, in 1979, of the association's Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Potter was twice captain (1959-60 and 1960-61) and leading scorer of the Cardinals, and a three-year selection to the All-SUNYAC basketball team. He was elected twice to the Intercollegiate Soccer Conference All-Star Team, and in 1960 he earned recognition as second team goalie on the All-New York State squad. Potter was also a .300 hitter in baseball whose talents earned him a contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates. From graduation to 1985 he taught 6th grade at Maple Street Elementary School in Hudson Falls, and for the past two years he has served as principal of that school. Potter has been director of recreation for the Village of Hudson Falls since 1980, and his community activities include service as a member of the Board of Directors for the Center for Developmentally Handicapped in Glens Falls.

The Plattsburgh State Sports Hall of Fame was created in 1984 "to give recognition to individuals who have participated in the college's intercollegiate athletic program and whose achievements and contributions exemplify the ideals of good citizenship."

SEFA Campaign Begins Soon; Hasting Named Coordinator

Dr. Ann C. Hasting, assistant vice president for academic affairs and director of the college's cooperative education program, has been appointed to coordinate the on-campus State Employees Federated Appeal (SEFA) for 1988. The SEFA campaign will get underway in early October.

In announcing the appointment of Hasting, Plattsburgh State President Charles O. Warren expressed optimism that the campus community will respond generously to benefit the community at-large. "Our support will provide for the delivery of vital services to many in need," commented Warren, "and the beneficiaries include our neighbors. If every employee makes even a small sacrifice, our campus drive will be a tremendous success." President Warren recently accepted an appointment to the Board of Directors of the United Way of Clinton County, a leading agency in SEFA.

Hasting noted that area coordinators representing all departments, academic centers and offices will serve as volunteer solicitors and will be challenged to contact every person in their units individually. "The message we want to convey to prospective contributors," she said, "is that they can choose to keep their donations in the local community by designating specific agencies they wish to support." Hasting said that cash donations will be accepted, but added that contributions by payroll deduction will be encouraged. "It is clear that payroll deduction enables the donor to give more without actually 'feeling' any loss of income."

Hasting pointed out that the 1987 SEFA campaign generated $21,134 in gifts from campus employees. However, she said, if every employee pledged $1 per week, the college's contribution for 1988 would surpass $40,000.

In addition to the United Way of Clinton County and its 17 human service agencies, the SEFA campaign includes five agencies affiliated with the Clinton County Health Council, seven health agencies of New York, and 20 international service agencies. Literature describing the services offered by each will be distributed with campaign pledge cards.

President Charles O. Warren and SEFA campaign coordinator Dr. Ann Hasting show campaign support materials that will soon be distributed to all campus employees.

PBA Supports Ring Project

The Plattsburgh Police Benevolent Association recently contributed $500 in support of the project to purchase rings for Plattsburgh State's 1987 NCAA national championship hockey team. Cardinal Captain Jeff Bunyon, lower left, accepts check from PBA secretary-treasurer Kurt Tobrocke. Rodney Cartier, PBA vice president, and Steve Hoar, head coach of the Cardinals, participated in the check exchange. The championship rings will be presented in a ceremony scheduled for Oct. 24 just prior to the Cardinals' 1987-88 season opener against McGill University.

Campus Mourns Teddy Leavitt; Served College for 27 Years

Teddy C. Leavitt, assistant professor of mathematics and a member of the Plattsburgh State faculty for 27 years, died Thursday, Sept. 24, at the local medical center. He was 62.

A World War II veteran, Leavitt received his bachelor's degree from Oregon State University and the master's in mathematics from Syracuse University. He joined the mathematics department here in 1960. In addition to teaching, he served as an advisor to foreign students. He was a member of the American Mathematical Society and the author of the mathematical text, "Limits and Continuity."

Plattsburgh State President Dr. Charles O. Warren commented, "Our campus community is saddened by the death of Teddy Leavitt. He was an asset to our college and to the broader community in many ways, but he will be remembered especially as an outstanding teacher, who cared deeply about his students, his profession, his colleagues and the well-being of our institution. Teddy Leavitt will be sorely missed by all who knew him, learned from him and worked with him. I offer sincere condolences to the Leavitt family in their behalf."

Leavitt's survivors include his wife, the former Irma J. Clark, three sons, a daughter, three brothers, a sister and several grandchildren. Donations in his memory may be made to the Plattsburgh College Foundation for campus beautification or for the foreign student exchange program.

Cross Country Teams Capture Cardinal Classic Championships

The women's and men's cross country teams established a first on Saturday by sweeping their Cardinal Classic Invitational meets. The women Cardinals sprinted to their sixth straight Classic title, with St. Lawrence finishing second — 19 points off the pace. Junior Kathy Kane finished first over the 3.5-mile course in 21:52. Others in the top ten for the Cardinal women were Julie Dobert, who finished third, and Judy Serth and Janet Day who ran seventh and eighth, respectively. Jim Miller led the Cardinal men by taking first in the field in 26:56 over the 5.1-mile course. Ed Lanane finished fifth, Andy Hill seventh and Matt Nephew in ninth place.

The Cardinal men's soccer team began the week on

Sex Roles and Sexuality Expert to Lecture Here October 5 - 7

Dr. Vern L. Bullough, dean of the faculty of natural and social science at SUNY College at Buffalo, will be a Distinguished Visiting Professor on campus from October 5 - 7. Bullough specializes in the study of sex roles and sexuality and is also a noted authority on the social history of medicine and nursing. During his stay, he will lecture in several regular class sessions. He will also deliver a public lecture on "Women and Prostitution" at 7:30 p.m. on October 6 in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

Bullough holds R.N. and B.S.N. degrees as well as the Ph.D. He is a past president of the Society for the Scientific Study of Sex, and is the author of 28 books. He has edited or served on the editorial board of numerous journals, including "Free Inquiry," "The Journal of Sex Research," and the "Journal of Homosexuality." More information about his visit is available from Dr. Naomi McCormick, psychology department.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Accounting
Calculations Clerk I	9/23/87	10/3/87
Business & Economics
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
3 Positions
Management (2)
Marketing (1)
Political Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
Professional Studies
Assistant Dean	9/11/87	Open

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

a high note, upsetting highly regarded St. Lawrence on Wednesday, 1-0, but then endured frustration in losing to unbeaten Oneonta State, 2-1, on Saturday and playing to a scoreless tie against Utica Tech the following day. The women booters were routed by St. Lawrence, 5-0, on Thursday, but rallied to blank Clinton Community College, 3-0, in a Saturday exhibition contest.

Brown U. Medical Scientist to be Visiting Professor Here

Dr. Anne Fausto-Sterling, professor of medical science at Brown University, will be visiting Distinguished Professor here from October 5 - 9.

Fausto-Sterling's research includes work in women's studies, pedagogy of science and developmental genetics. Her studies on Drosophila melanogaster (a genus of fruit fly) have been published in science journals, including Journal of Experimental Zoology. Her research in the areas of women's studies and teaching have appeared in Women's Studies Quarterly and Radical Teacher. She is the author of the book, Myths of Gender: Biological Theories About Women and Men (1985), which is available in The College Store.

While on campus, Fausto-Sterling will meet with members of the college community and lecture on a variety of topics, including the Cultural Construction of Osteoporosis and Premenstrual Syndrome; Race, Gender and Sexuality: Natural Formations or Cultural Formulations; and The Myth of Neutrality: Race, Sex and Class in Science (refer to "This Week on Campus" for details relative to dates, times and places of lectures).

Further information relative to Fausto-Sterling's visit and schedule may be obtained from Dr. Suzann Buckley (564-3150).

Feinberg to Host Fall Parley of College, Research Libraries

The Benjamin F. Feinberg Library will host the fall conference of the Eastern New York Chapter of the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL) to be held Friday, Oct. 9.

Between 50 and 75 librarians from both SUNY and private institutions are expected to attend the conference, which has as its theme: "Jewels in the Crown: The Diverse Collections of the College and Research Library." Conference workshops will focus on special collections, government publications, software, microforms and other non-print materials. Dennis Kimmage, librarian and head of reference at Feinberg Library, is among the featured speakers. Kimmage will address the question of reference services for diverse collections.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1 — THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents a Discussion on: "Sexual Harassment on Our Campus." Sponsored by Women's Studies and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 - 1:10 pm — Behavioral Science Colloquy features Tom Moran speaking on "Value Added: The Research Design." Sponsored by Behavioral Science Program. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 - 5 pm — Adult Learning Services — Open House. Sponsored by the Office of Adult Learning Services. Open to faculty and staff. Kehoe 712.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: "Interview Techniques." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 - 6 pm — Phi Kappa Chi Sorority Rush. Open to the campus. 143 Brinkerhoff Street.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "How to Write an 'A' Paper." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:15 - 6 pm — UUP Benefits Conference. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:30 pm — American Marketing Association general meeting with guest speaker A. Amy Whitehead, Marketing Director of the Pyramid Companies, speaking on "Marketing and Champlain Centre North and South." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Economics Club Organizational Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 - 9 pm — Alpha Kappa Phi Sorority Rush. All women welcome. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies: A Seminar Series for Women presents Career Development and Life Planning. Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged at the Center for Lifelong Learning. Sibley 408.

8 pm — Professor James B. Atkinson, University of Pennsylvania will speak on "Machiavelli and the Comedy of Power." Sponsored by the English, History and Political Science Departments and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2

7 - 9:30 pm — Weekly Christian Fellowship with speakers, singing, testimonies, retreats and more. Sponsored by Intervarsity Christian Fellowship. Angell Center Blue Room.

9 pm — Friday Night at the Movies presents "A Star is Born" (1937). Sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3

9 am - 6 pm — Bus to Montreal sponsored by Campus Life. Round trip tickets are $9 and on sale at the Angell Center desk. Bus departs from Angell College Center.

9 am — Women's Volleyball hosts the PSUC Tourney (St. Michael's, St. Lawrence, Clarkson, Russell Sage, McGill, Union). Field House.

noon — Trip to AuSable Chasm — Walking tour, boat ride and transportation to the Chasm. Sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Tickets are $2 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from the Angell College Center.

1 pm — Women's Soccer vs. Oneonta. Field House Soccer Field.

1 - 4 pm — Sorority Council All Sorority Rush. Open to the campus. 143 Brinkerhoff Street.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Lethal Weapon." Open to the campus. S.A. member tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 5

7:30 pm — Anne Fausto-Sterling, Professor of Biology and Medicine at Brown University will speak on "The Myth of Neutrality: Race, Sex and Class in Science." Sponsored by the Distinguished Visiting Professor Program. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6

12:15 - 1:15 pm — Adult Student Group Weekly Meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge, Angell Center second floor.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop: "Considering Graduate School. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3:30 pm — Men's Soccer vs. Skidmore. Field House Soccer Field.

4:15 pm — Biology Department Seminar on "Pattern Formation" with Anne Fausto-Sterling, Distinguished Visiting Professor. Open to the campus. Hudson 117.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "Conquer Your Midterm Exams — Test Taking Skills." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm — Distinguished Professor Vern Bullough lectures on "Women and Prostitution." Sponsored by the SUNY Faculty Exchange Scholar Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Concert: Mark Nelson and Thomas Toner. Sponsored by the Music Council. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7

noon - 1 pm — Open Brown Bag Lunchtime's discussion with Anne Fausto-Sterling, Distinguished Visiting Professor. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Women's Soccer vs. University of Vermont. Field House Soccer Field.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop. Open to the campus. Angell Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "Conquer Your Midterm Exams — Test Taking Skills." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:15 pm — Dr. Anne Fausto-Sterling's lecture on "Race, Gender, and Sexuality: Natural Formations or Cultural Formulations?" Sponsored by the Visiting Distinguished Professor Series. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:30 pm — Students for the Advancement of Management sponsors a guest speaker. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Plattsburgh College Night sponsored by the Admission's Office and the Northeastern New York Counseling Association. Field House.

7 - 9 pm — Phi Kappa Chi Sorority Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Union of Concerned Students meeting with various special guests (to be announced). Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobic Program sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday through Thursday at 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm and Friday and Sunday at 3:30 pm. Open to the campus no charge. You must wear proper footwear. Angell Center Blue Room.

Bus to Montreal — The Campus Life Office will be sponsoring a Bus to Montreal on Saturday, October 3. Bus departs from the Angell Center at 9 am, destination Dominion Square. Returns to campus by 6 pm. Tickets: $9.00 round trip and on sale at the Angell Center Desk beginning Monday, September 28. For more information, call 564-3824.

The Walking Club now forming on campus. We are looking for all persons interested in walking a 40-minute course during the noon hour, Monday through Friday. Interested? If so contact Melanie Wyand, at 3824, Sally Stay at 2187 or Helen Rock, EAP coordinator, at 3102.

Applications are being accepted for the 1988 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program. The deadline for receipt of applications is October 16. An informational meeting and tour of the Cell Science facilities at Miner Center will be held at 1 pm on October 2. For further information, arrangements for the visit and applications, contact the Biology Secretary in Beaumont 207 (564-3155) or Dr. William Graziadei, Miner Center (1-846-7144).

The Plattsburgh Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa — National Leadership Honor Society is now accepting nominations of juniors, seniors or graduate students for membership in ODK. Nominations should be sent to: Cheryle Hogle, Faculty Secretary of ODK, Angell Center 110, no later than October 9, 1987.

On Wednesday, October 7, the Office of Career/Life Planning and Placement will host members of the admissions staff from SUNY Health Science Center in Syracuse who wish to meet with interested students and/or faculty (in Beaumont Hall, Rm 202, from 3 pm to 4:30 pm) to talk about careers-training in cytotechnology, medical technology, physical therapy and respiratory care; College of Medicine (M.D.); and the College of Graduate Studies (anatomy and cell biology, biochemistry, microbiology and immunology, pharmacology and physiology). This will be an informal session for those interested in receiving current information about admission to graduate programs at the

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Anne Fausto-Sterling, Distinguished Visiting Professor, speaking on: "The Cultural Construction of Women's Diseases: Osteoporosis and Premenstrual Syndrome." Sponsored by Women's Studies and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop — "Resumes and Cover Letters." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "Conquer Your Midterm Exams — Test Taking Skills." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

5 - 7 pm — Alpha Kappa Phi Sorority Rush. All women welcome! Angell Center Conference Room.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies Seminar Series for Women presents: "How to Handle Conflict." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged at Hawkins Room 106. Sibley 408.

Health Science Center. Pre-med and medical technology students are particularly encouraged to attend. Underclassmen considering graduate work also are welcome.

The SUNY Plattsburgh Employee Assistance Program (EAP), located at 217 Memorial Hall, is part of a statewide and union effort to help employees deal with a wide variety of personal problems. The EAP program is a confidential assessment and referral service for state employees and will offer workshops and programs to the campus community to promote wellness. Two coordinators, Dave Bedworth and Helen Rock, are available by appointment for referrals by supervisors or self-referrals. For further information, please call 564-EAPP (3277), or 564-3105.

Representatives from the Duke University Medical Center will be on campus on October 8 from 1 to 4 pm in room 202 of Beaumont Hall to discuss internships in Medical Technology and other medical programs at Duke. For further information, contact Dr. R. Sudds in Beaumont 320.

All child and family services and human service majors who plan to participate in field work activities during the spring semester are reminded that an important planning meeting will be held on Monday, Oct. 19 at 4 pm in Room 117 of Ward Hall. Contact Dr. Jane Gore in 107B in Ward Hall (564-4175) for more information.

The Political Science Department will host its 5th annual student/faculty/administration retreat this weekend (Friday & Saturday, Oct. 2 - 3) at the Twin Valleys Outdoor Education Center, near Elizabethtown. Participation is cost-free to students (and probably for others as well) but is limited to the first 25 to register. Transportation will be provided. Activities will include hiking and other sports and discussions on contemporary issues ranging from the fight over the Bork nomination to the Supreme Court to U.S. involvement in the Persian Gulf. Sign-up, on a first-come, first-served basis, is in the Political Science Department Office in Hawkins Hall 111-B (564-3825). The retreat is co-sponsored by College Auxiliary Services.

Elaine Ferat, administrative assistant, School of Advanced International Studies, Johns Hopkins University, will be available at the Center for the Study of Canada on Tuesday morning, October 6, to talk to students interested in the graduate program at the University. SAIS is heavily oriented for students interested in business, economics and politics. Ms. Ferat will have information on entrance requirements, financial aid, application procedures and the like.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

$370M FIPSE Grant to Boost Value-Added Project

SUNY Plattsburgh has won a $369,900 grant from the U.S. Department of Education's Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE) to refine its Value-Added program, a program designed to measure how students learn and how institutions contribute to the learning process.

Project Director Moran

Dr. Thomas Moran, assistant vice president for academic affairs and project director, explained the venture. "During the past few years, colleges and universities have become more concerned with measuring their impact on the intellectual and social development of their students. Under this grant, we will work with faculty from our own campus and from the SUNY Arts and Science Colleges at Buffalo, Cortland, Fredonia, and Potsdam to develop tests which will measure student progress in specific areas of study." Moran added that, to his knowledge, this is the first time that several institutions have worked together to jointly develop comprehensive examinations which can compare student performance across the group.

Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren commented, "We at Plattsburgh are extremely pleased to receive FIPSE's support for our Value-Added program. We are firmly committed to providing the best possible education for our students and this grant will take us closer to that goal." Academic Vice President Jerome Supple concurred, and noted that FIPSE funds only about 3% of the applications it receives. Supple commended Moran for his excellent work on the proposal.

Moran explained the timetable for the project. "This semester", he said, "four academic departments will be chosen and team members from each campus will be selected. The teams will meet in the spring for orientation and training and to begin exploration of assessment strategies. Next summer, we'll develop the first set of tests, which will be reviewed and refined by the various campus departments during the fall. In the spring of 1989, we'll test the examinations by administering them to juniors and seniors, and analyzing the results. After appropriate modification, the tests will be given to students once again. We hope to complete our work in mid-1990. At that time, when we are satisfied that they accurately measure student progress, we'll begin making them available to a larger number of institutions."

SUNY Central, Moran said, will provide technical support and assistance. Dr. Sherry Penney, vice chancellor for academic programs, policy and planning, will co-chair, with Moran, a planning committee comprised of academic vice presidents from the five participating institutions. The Directors of Institutional Research will also work closely with the teams.

SUNY Plattsburgh instituted the Value-Added Project in the fall of 1984, under former President Joseph C. Burke, who said at that time to the faculty, "The quality of a college or university must be judged not on its ability to recruit the brightest students and receive the most resources, but on its ability to assist

(Continued on following page)

weekly

Published by the Office of College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community • October 7, 1987

Plattsburgh, Clarkson U. Sign BS/MBA 4 + 1 Articulation Pact

SUNY Plattsburgh and Clarkson University's School of Management have established a BS/MBA 4 + 1 program, according to Dr. Wallace Feldman, dean of the School of Business and Economics.

Feldman said the program will allow qualified Plattsburgh students completing a four-year bachelor of science degree, to enter Clarkson's graduate management program and earn a master of science in management systems in just one year. Students interested in the program will receive guidance in planning their undergraduate programs to include courses which serve as a foundation for graduate work in management.

Feldman said the agreement is the first of its kind to be established in Plattsburgh's business school. "This agreement will not only give our students early decisions on entry into a graduate program, it is also an acknowledgement that our program provides completely acceptable prerequisites for entry into a fully accredited program."

Clarkson's graduate management program is accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business. The school currently has 19 articulation agreements with various colleges throughout the state including St. Lawrence University, Skidmore College, SUNY Potsdam, and Siena College.

Research Activity Grows; Campus Gets 28% of GRI Allocation

The SUNY Research Foundation's "Expenditure Profile" for the period July 1, 1986 through June 30, 1987 indicates that Plattsburgh State is making its mark as a campus where research activity is growing.

College Night Program Expected to Attract Up to 3,000 Students

Approximately 130 colleges and universities from all over the eastern United States and as far away as Colorado will be represented at the North Eastern New York Counselors Association (NENYCA) College Night program to be held this evening (Oct. 7) from 7 to 9 o'clock at the Plattsburgh State Field House.

According to Richard Higgins, director of admissions at SUNY Plattsburgh and co-coordinator of the program hosted annually by the college, an estimated 3,000 high school students and their parents are expected to attend this year's event. Higgins said that 22 high schools in Clinton and Essex Counties have agreed to promote the College Night program by encouraging their juniors and seniors to take part. The list of participating institutions ranges from SUNY's two- and four-year colleges and University Centers to military schools, hospital schools of nursing, secretarial and beauty schools, schools of engineering and leading private colleges and universities.

"College Night affords prospective students and their parents an ideal opportunity to meet with college representatives to gain a better understanding of admission requirements, curriculum specializations, costs and student life considerations pertinent to a wide variety of institutions," commented Higgins.

Assisting Higgins as program coordinator is Robert Dailey, former guidance counselor at Beekmantown Central High School.

Moreover, this development is manifest in the proportion of funding the college has received under the SUNY Graduate and Research Initiative (GRI) designed to stimulate further faculty participation in research.

The Research Foundation's expenditure profile shows that SUNY Plattsburgh received $1,766,139 in external funding for research during the one-year period covered in the report. That ranks the college second (to the much larger Buffalo State campus) among the University's arts and science colleges and ninth overall in SUNY, including its University and Health Science Centers and its specialized colleges, such as the College of Environmental Science and Forestry at Syracuse.

An expenditure breakdown for the college shows a year-by-year increase in external funding for sponsored research in each of the past four years. In fiscal year 1982-83 funding for research here totaled $842,609. It has increased annually since then to $888,964 in 1983-84; $1,180,084 in 1984-85; and $1,510,877 in 1985-86 to this past year's $1.7 million-plus.

Meanwhile, the college received word last week that it has been awarded $29,034 from a total of $105,000 in GRI funds allocated to the University's thirteen arts and science colleges. Rounded off, Plattsburgh's share is 28% of the total.

In a letter to President Charles O. Warren, SUNY Provost Joseph C. Burke explained that the funds were awarded "to stimulate further faculty participation in research" and that they were "... distributed proportionately to the externally funded research activities on (the SUNY Plattsburgh) campus in the Research Foundation year that ended in June of 1987."

FIPSE Grant Enhances Value Added

the students it enrolls to become 'all they are capable of being.' "

The project has three major forms of data collection. The first consists of administering the Competency Examinations of the American College Testing (ACT) Service to all freshmen. At the end of the sophomore year, students take a second ACT test designed to measure their acquisition of the general knowledge expected after the completion of the lower division of college study. Finally, all students are expected to take a nationally normed exit test, such as the Graduate Record Examination or the National Teacher Examination to measure the degree of learning achieved in their major fields of study. In some areas of study, no such test is available, and it is at this level that the tests to be developed will be included in the process.

(Continued from page 1)

Another form of student assessment data is derived from student self-reports on outcomes questionnaires, in which students provide their own impressions of how they have developed and what they have learned during their time at the institution. Finally, the ACT Student Opinion Survey is used to determine student perceptions of the institution, its services and climate for learning.

SUNY Plattsburgh has received national attention for its Value-Added project. The project has been cited in "The Chronicle of Higher Education," "The New York Times," and in an article in "Change" magazine, in which author Peter Ewell identified the college as one of five institutions in the nation which are considered to be 'lead' institutions in their respective states.

Persistence Rate Increase Contributes to Enrollment Gains

The latest data on enrollment for fall 1987, although still regarded as preliminary, indicate the college has exceeded its goal by a wide margin.

According to an Office of Institutional Research (OIR) report dated September 25, SUNY Plattsburgh has enrolled 6,408 undergraduate and graduate students — 5,202 full-time and 1,206 part-time. The campus goal for the fall term of academic 1987-88 had been 6,090 in total number of students, with 5,010 to be enrolled full-time and the remaining 1,080 on a part-time basis.

According to Janet M. Edwards, assistant to the president for enrollment management, two factors combined to produce an enrollment that is approximately 200 over projections for full-time students: an increase in the yield rate for full-time freshmen and an increase in the persistence rate for students enrolled currently on a full-time basis. "Increased enrollments at outreach sites in Glens Falls, Saranac Lake, Malone and Ticonderoga account for most of the increase of about 200 part-time students," said Edwards, "and they bring our graduate enrollment to its highest level since 1976." The college has enrolled 643 students at the graduate level — 142 full-time and 501 part-time.

Edwards stated that the projection of 3,285 continuing/returning full-time undergraduates was based on an anticipation of a one percent increase in persistence among freshmen. "Preliminary enrollment figures of 3,387 exceed this already increased goal by approximately 100 students," she said.

Faculty in Montreal This Week to Take Part in ACSUS Parley

Several faculty from the Center for the Study of Canada are participating in the biennial conference of the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States (ACSUS), being held this week in Montreal.

Dr. Richard Beach, Center director and president of ACSUS since 1985, concludes his term of office during the conference.

Several faculty members are on chairing sessions during the conference. Faculty and their seminars are: Dr. Bruce Butterfield, associate professor of English, "Language and the Artist in Mavis Gallant"; Dr. Jeanne Kissner, associate director of the Center, "Quebec Literature: Contemporary Forms"; Dr. Edwin Hamblet, professor of French, "Intimate Relations in Quebec Fiction"; Dr. Martin Lubin, professor of political science, "Multiculturalism"; Dr. Prem Gandhi, professor of business and economics, "Canada-US Free Trade: Evolution or Post-Mortem."

In addition, Lubin will serve as a discussant during a panel on "Regionalism, Ethnicity and War — Hot and Cold"; Kissner will participate in a panel discussion of "The Mission of Canadian Studies Programs in Public Schools and Beyond"; and Dr. Philip Reines, associate professor of communication, will present a paper on "The Message of Quebec Cinema."

Farce, 'House of Blue Leaves' Opens This Evening in Hartman

"The House of Blue Leaves," a farce/tragedy by John Guare will be presented at 8 p.m. in the Hartman Theatre October 7 - 10 and October 14 - 17.

Director Charles Kline said of the play, "Even though it takes place in Queens, its theme pervades every fiber of American life. Anyone who has ever dreamed the American Dream, or has known anyone who has, will be at home in this dramatic comedy, which makes you laugh and cry and feel and then makes you feel good that you laughed and cried and felt."

Cast members include Joe Harding, Greg Waagner, Renee LaTulippe, Patricia Nippert, Aimee Loughman, Elizabeth Bonnabeau, Laura Zemanek, Sidra Samantha McRorey, Robert Timlin, Spelman Beaubrun, and David Steinberg. Tickets are available at the Myers Box Office.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Business & Economics
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
3 Positions
Management (2)
Marketing (1)
Political Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

College Council Meets Thursday

The October meeting of the SUNY Plattsburgh College Council will take place tomorrow (Oct. 8) at 3 p.m. in the Cardinal Lounge of the Angell College Center.

Agenda items include a report on academic computing services by Dr. Raney Ellis, director of academic computing, and a progress report on library automation by Robert Burton, director of libraries. College Council meetings are open to all.

Women's Cross Country Team Takes 3rd in LeMoyne Invitational

The Plattsburgh State women's cross country team raced to a third-place finish Saturday in the prestigious LeMoyne Invitation meet to highlight the past week's activity on the intercollegiate athletic scene. Sophomore Julie Dobert finished the 3.1-mile course in 18:38 to pace the Cardinals, who finished behind nationally ranked Ithaca College and the University of Rochester. Meanwhile, the men's cross country team wound up 11th in a very strong 17-team field.

In soccer, the Cardinal men lost twice in the past week — 1 - 0 to Potsdam and 2 - 1 to New Paltz — to fall to 4-6-2 on the season. The women's soccer team dropped a 2-0 decision to Albany early in the week, but rebounded to tie Oneonta, 5-5, on Saturday as Beth Campbell tallied twice.

The Cardinal women's volleyball team finished fifth in its own Cardinal Classic tournament on Saturday, defeating Russell Sage and St. Michael's to finish 2-4 in the competition won by unbeaten St. Lawrence. Lynn Becker took both first singles matches and was a winner in doubles also to lead the women's tennis team to a 7-2 triumph over Potsdam State last Monday.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Donald Adams, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, is co-author (with Donald Brown, a former student who graduated in 1984) of "Cycling of Methane in Acidified Freshwater Environments," an article which appears in the proceedings of an international conference on Acid Rain: Scientific and Technical Advances held in Lisbon in September. . . Dr. Dennis Costanzo, assistant professor of art history in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, has been invited to contribute an article on the history of depictions of urban life to The Dictionary of Art, a 28-volume reference being compiled by Macmillan Publishers, London. . . "Evidence on the Nature and Content of the Harvest Strategy" is the title of a paper by Dr. Helen Deresky, associate professor in the School of Business and Economics, that has been accepted for presentation at the seventh annual international conference of the Strategic Management Society to be held next month in Philadelphia. . . Dr. Philip English, assistant professor of communication arts, spent the 1986-87 academic year as a faculty exchange scholar at Southeastern Louisiana University in Hammond, LA. During the year, he presented several lectures and papers on various aspects of television evangelical rhetoric. In September, his article entitled "Revivals, Regions and Romance: The Mythical Rhetoric of Protestant Evangelism" was published in Southeast Studies. . . Dr. Yenoim Guibbory, associate professor of music, has been appointed Visiting Fellow in Music at Cornell University for the spring of 1988. He will visit Cornell periodically to research performance traditions of the eighteenth century, and to perform. . . Dr. Ann Hasting, assistant vice president for academic affairs, presented a workshop entitled "Cooperative Education in a Non-Urban Setting" at the New York State Cooperative Experiential Education Association Annual Conference held recently in Albany. Richard Probert, director of the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, was selected as one of 23 arts administrators and fine arts deans from throughout the United States who began a 12-day tour of Amsterdam, Prague, Vienna and Budapest on September 26. The group is meeting with members of government and with other professionals in educational institutions in each city in addition to visiting galleries and performance venues in each. The tour is designed to acquaint American art educators with European approaches to teaching the arts and to inform European educators about methods employed in U.S. institutions of higher learning. Probert received the invitation to join the tour this past summer while attending the International Conference of Fine Arts Deans in London. . . Dr. Thomas Rumney, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, has published a volume of bibliography entitled "The Physical Geography of Canada — Climate, Ice and Water Studies: A Selected Bibliography". . . Carolee Smith, director of public information, has been invited to serve on the Public Information Officers Advisory Committee of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities. . . Dr. Nicholas G. Stupiansky, assistant professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, has been elected to a three-year term on the Executive Board of the New York State Association of Teacher Educators (NYSATE). . . Dr. Norman E. Teator, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, conducted a full day workshop on "Enhancing Self-Esteem" for middle and secondary school teachers at a recent Broadalbin-Perth School District's Superintendents' Conference Day. . . Carolyn White, a senior elementary education major from Morrisonville, is the author of "It's Not Just a College Experience, It's an Experience," an article that appears in the September issue of IMPACT, the publication of the New York State Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development. The article focuses on the strengths of the SUNY Plattsburgh teacher education program.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8 – THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8

12:15 pm – Women's Studies Forum presents Anne Fausto-Sterling, Distinguished Visiting Professor, speaking on: "The Cultural Construction of Women's Diseases: Osteoporosis and Premenstrual Syndrome." Sponsored by Women's Studies and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm – Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop – "Resumes and Cover Letters." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 - 6 pm – Intramural entries due for men's broomball, men's and women's indoor soccer and co-ed bowling. Entry fee is $4 and sign-up is at the Angell Center Desk.

4:15 pm – Special Services Project Workshop: "Conquer Your Midterm Exams – Test Taking Skills." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

5 - 7 pm – Alpha Kappa Phi Sorority Rush. All women welcome! Angell Center Conference Room.

7 - 10 pm – Life Planning Strategies Seminar Series for Women presents: "How to Handle Conflict." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged at Hawkins Room 106. Sibley 408.

8 pm – College Main Stage Production, "The House of Blue Leaves." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, faculty/staff $3, public $4 and on sale at Myers Box Office Mondays - Fridays from 1 - 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm on the evening of the performance. Myers Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9

noon - 12:50 pm – Behavioral Science Colloquy presents Anne Fausto-Sterling, Distinguished Visiting Professor speaking on "Gender Issues and Sociobiology." Angell Center Amnesty Room.

2:30 pm – Academic Affairs Advisement Workshop for Advisors of Undeclared Majors. Open to all faculty advisors. Angell Center Orchard Room.

7 pm – Intervarsity Christian Fellowship weekly Christian fellowship with speakers, singing, testimonies, retreats and more. Angell Center Blue Room.

8 pm – Student Association Activities Coordination Board presents speaker Larry Linville. S.A. members tickets are $2.50, public $5 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm – College Main Stage Production, "The House of Blue Leaves." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, faculty/staff $3, public $4 and on sale at Myer's Box Office Mondays - Fridays from 1 - 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm on the evening of the performance. Myer's Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

9 pm – Friday Night at the Movie presents "Wuthering Heights." Sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10

9 am – Day Hike Up Giant (moderate difficulty). Sponsored by the Adirondack Experience Club and Campus Life. Bus tickets are $2 and on sale at the Angell College Center Desk. Bus leaves from in front of the Angell College Center.

9 am – Chi Alpha Christian Fellowship Breakfast – Guest speaker is nationally acclaimed Evangelist Tiff Shuttlesworth. No charge for students and $2.95 for the public. Orchard Room, Angell Center.

noon – Trip to AuSable Chasm – Walking tour, boat ride and transportation to the Chasm. Sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. All tickets are $2 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from the Angell College Center.

12:30 pm – Men's and Women's Cross Country vs. Middlebury. Field House.

8 pm – College Main Stage Production, "The House of Blue Leaves." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, faculty/staff $3, public $4 and on sale at Myer's Box Office Mondays – Fridays from 1 - 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm on the evening of the performance. Myer's Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11

6:45 & 9:15 pm – Student Association Film Series presents "Crocodile Dundee." Open to the campus. S.A. members 50c, faculty $1. Tickets are on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 12

8 pm – Campus Poet Series presents Suzanne Pierce and Joseph Segriff. Sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature and the Faculty of Arts and Science. Newman Center at 92 Broad Street.

10:15 pm – Student Association Senate meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13

11:30 am - 1:15 pm – UUP Benefits Luncheon. Open to members only. No charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:15 pm – Omicron Delta Kappa meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

12:15 - 1:15 pm – Adult Student Group weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge, Angell Center second floor.

3 pm – Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop – "Targeting Your Job Search." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 - 6 pm – Faculty Senate Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Orchard Room.

4:45 pm – Faculty By-Laws Revisions Informational Meeting. Sponsored by the Faculty Senate. Open to all faculty. Angell Center Ballroom B.

7:30 pm – International Film Series presents "Mephisto" (1981), directed by Istvan Szabo (Russian). Sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 208.

7:30 pm — Nutrition Lecture sponsored by the Marriott Corporation. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14

11 am - 2:30 pm — Fundraiser — Stuffed animals for $4 — We will deliver! Sponsored by the Dietetics Food Service Management Club. Angell Center Lobby.

11 am & 1 pm — State Comptroller General Information Sessions sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3 pm — Women's Soccer vs. St. Michael's College. Field House.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop — "Interview Techniques." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Union of Concerned Students meeting with various special guests to be announced. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — College Main Stage Production, "The House of Blue Leaves." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, faculty/staff $3, public $4 and on sale at Myer's Box Office Mondays - Fridays from 1 - 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm on the evening of the performance. Myer's Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15

11 am - 2:30 pm — Fundraiser — Stuffed animals for $4 — We will deliver! Sponsored by the Dietetics Food Service Management Club. Angell Center Lobby.

11 am - 3 pm — CV/PH Blood Drive sponsored by Sigma Pi Fraternity. Angell Center Ballrooms.

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Marcia Dickson speaking on "Evil Mothers in Drama." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 pm — Behavioral Science Colloquy presents Bill Tooke speaking on "Measurement and Theory of Moral Behavior." Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop — "Considering Graduate School." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3:30 pm — Men's Soccer vs. St. Rose College. Field House.

4:30 pm — American Marketing Association general meeting. Angell Center Ballroom A.

7 - 9 pm — Phi Kappa Chi Sorority Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies — A Seminar Series for Women presents: "Make Financial Planning Work for You." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged at the Center for Lifelong Learning in Hawkins Hall. Sibley 408.

7:30 pm — Support Group for Anorexia Nervosa and Bulimia. Sponsored by College Health Services. Open to the campus. Student Health Center.

8 pm — College Main Stage Production, "The House of Blue Leaves." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, faculty/staff $3, public $4 and on sale at Myer's Box Office Mondays - Fridays from 1 - 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm on the evening of the performance. Myer's Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobic Program sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday through Thursday at 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm and Friday and Sunday at 3:30 pm. Open to the campus no charge. You must wear proper footwear. Angell Center Blue Room.

The Walking Club now forming on campus. We are looking for all persons interested in walking a 40-minute course during the noon hour, Monday through Friday. Interested? If so contact Melanie Wyand, at 3824, Sally Stay at 2187 or Helen Rock, EAP coordinator, at 3102.

Applications are being accepted for the 1988 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program. The deadline for receipt of applications is October 16. For further information, arrangements for the visit and applications, contact the Biology Secretary in Beaumont 207 (564-3155) or Dr. William Graziadei, Miner Center (1-846-7144).

The Plattsburgh Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa — National Leadership Honor Society is now accepting nominations of juniors, seniors or graduate students for membership in ODK. Nominations should be sent to: Cheryl Hogle, Faculty Secretary of ODK, Angell Center 110, no later than October 9, 1987.

The SUNY Plattsburgh Employee Assistance Program (EAP), located at 217 Memorial Hall, is part of a statewide and union effort to help employees deal with a wide variety of personal problems. The EAP program is a confidential assessment and referral service for state employees and will offer workshops and programs to the campus community to promote wellness. Two coordinators, Dave Bedworth and Helen Rock, are available by appointment for referrals by supervisors or self-referrals. For further information, please call 564-EAPP (3277), or 564-3105.

All child and family services and human service majors who plan to participate in field work activities during the spring semester are reminded that an important planning meeting will be held on Monday, Oct. 19 at 4 pm in Room 117 of Ward Hall. Contact Dr. Jane Gore in 107B in Ward Hall (564-4175) for more information.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery

September 16 - October 18

Drawings and Prints by Famed Caricaturist Al Hirschfeld

Rockwell Kent Alcove Gallery

September 16 - November 8

Paintings and Drawings by James Fitzgerald

Rockwell Kent Gallery

September 16 - November 6

A Collection of Prints from the Atelier Project

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

Largest-ever Homecoming Weekend Forecast

Homecoming '87, set for October 16 - 18, is attracting yet another record crowd, according to Mal Lavery, director of alumni affairs, and several new twists have been added to the weekend schedule.

For the first time, there will be a formal 60-year reunion. Lavery explained that Mrs. Crockett Harrison '27 has worked diligently for more than a year to arrange the reunion, and members of the class will join the Golden Anniversary Class for a special luncheon at the Valcour Educational Center on Saturday. This year's 50th anniversary class, the class of 1937, is also responding enthusiastically to the invitation, Lavery said.

He added that the Class of 1952 will meet in record numbers to celebrate their 35th reunion, thanks to the efforts of Dr. Ed Barton, professor emeritus and advisor to the honored class. Additionally, more than 100 people are expected to celebrate the Class of 1962's Silver Anniversary. Lavery expressed his appreciation to Dr. Hilton Heming, professor emeritus, and Stasia Arcarese '62 for their efforts in organizing that reunion.

The Center for the Study of Canada and the in vitro cell biology program will each host special reunions for former students, each for the first time. Canadian Studies students and past officers and members of Club Canada have been invited to participate in the reunion program, and a fifth year reunion of IVCBB students is planned for the Miner Center.

Dr. William Graziadei, who is coordinating the Miner reunion, said that plans include a picnic, hike, and a special brunch on Sunday at the Center. Nursing and human resources graduates from all class years will once again be welcomed back to their former departments.

The weekend kicks off Friday evening with a buffet dinner in the Orchard Room. On Saturday morning, alumni in honored classes (from years ending in 7 or 2) are encouraged to participate in this year's Homecoming parade. The parade theme this year is "Every Day's a Holiday" and the usual array of floats will take part. Following the parade, members of the honored classes will gather for reunion luncheons to be held in various locations around the city.

Saturday evening, President and Mrs. Charles Warren will host a reception in honor of all the alumni, followed by a dinner dance featuring the Big Band sound of the 18-piece Roger Thorpe Orchestra. A highlight of the evening will be the crowning of the student king and queen.

On Sunday morning, the Cardinal Booster Club and the Alumni Association will co-sponsor the Hall of Fame brunch. Following the brunch, Doris Benton '50, William Garvey '71, Francis E. "Bud" Miller '38, and John H. "Jack" Potter '61 will be formally inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Faculty and staff are invited to participate in any of the weekend festivities. Details are available in the Alumni Office, Kehoe 811 (564-2090).

Ambassador Niles' Visit Highlights 'Canada Day' Observance

The college's annual Canada Day celebration, sponsored by the Center for the Study of Canada, will be held on Thursday, October 22.

The highlight of the day, according to Dr. Richard Beach, Center director, will be a guest lecture by Thomas Niles, the United States ambassador to Canada. Niles will discuss Canada/United States relations from an ambassador's point of view at 4:15 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom.

Beach said, "This is a rare opportunity for the campus and the city to have someone as distinguished as Ambassador Niles join us for Canada Day. The timing could not be better since October is turning out to be the critical month for the free trade negotiations which have been going on between our two countries during the past two years. The issue of free trade could have very important implications for North Country businesses."

Other Canada Day activities include an evening appearance by the noted Tudor Singers of Montreal; a discussion of "The Latin American Contribution to Canada: Before and After the Immigration Crisis"; a presentation by Dr. Eugene Link on "Norman Bethune, M.D., A Canadian Humanitarian"; a Canadian film festival featuring several films produced by the National Film Board of Canada; and a Canadian lunch special in the Orchard Room.

President Names All-Campus Centennial Celebration Committee

President Charles O. Warren has announced the appointment of a "permanent" committee that will plan and carry out a comprehensive observance in 1989 of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the college.

Dr. Manganel

Named the Centennial Celebration Committee, the 15-member group will meet for the first time on Thursday (Oct. 15) at 4 p.m. in the sixth floor board room of the Kehoe Administration Building. It will be chaired by Dr. Annette Manganel, professor emerita of education.

Also accepting invitations to serve are Patricia Bentley, associate librarian; Dr. Bruce Butterfield, associate professor of English; Dores Candussi, assistant professor of communication; Kevin Days, student representative; Don Garratt, assistant to the president for college relations and development; Robert M. Garrow, chairperson of the College Council; Dr. Jane Gore, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources; William Laundry, director of campus life; Betty Lennon, senior stenographer in the department of physical education and recreational sports; J. Clark Mitchell, assistant professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services; Dr. John Myers, professor of history; and Dr. Douglas Skopp, professor of history.

President Warren and Richard Davino, president of the Student Association, will serve as ex-officio members of the committee.

Skopp Calls for Help With College History

Dr. Douglas Skopp, who will write the history of the college to coincide with the 100th anniversary in 1989 of its founding, is seeking help of faculty and staff, faculty emeriti and residents in the community at-large.

"Most welcome will be memorabilia of all kinds as well as recordings, documents and, especially, photographs of historical significance," said Skopp. He said he would be interested in interviewing individuals who believe their recollections can contribute to his research.

Correspondence should be sent to Skopp at his office in Room 321 in Champlain Valley Hall. He can be reached by telephone at 564-2213.

A report, issued last spring, of a Preliminary (Centennial) Planning Committee formed last winter and charged to develop "an appropriate centennial celebration plan," will serve as the springboard for future planning by the newly appointed committee. The original committee was asked to formulate a proposal for "an integrated and comprehensive design for the commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the College at Plattsburgh." Its recommendations focused on a variety of events and activities that include a Founders Day observance, an academic convocation, a program to honor "alumni of distinction," arts events, a speakers' series, and publication of a history of the college. Dr. Skopp has agreed to take on the latter project.

"The work of the preliminary planning committee was superb — it will make our job much easier," exclaimed Centennial Celebration Committee Chairperson Manganel. "We have an exciting two years ahead of us. Our group is strong and diverse. With this nucleus of capable, creative people involved in the planning and organizational process, the college's centennial year celebration will be memorable for campus and community alike."

10 Accept Appointments to First Permanent Commission on Women

SUNY Plattsburgh's Permanent Commission on Women has become a working group.

President Charles O. Warren has announced that the following members of the faculty and staff have accepted appointments to the Commission: Dr. Stuart Baum, professor of chemistry; Dr. Suzann Buckley, professor of history; Dr. Mark Cohen, professor of anthropology; Dr. Raymond Domenico, associate professor of hearing and speech science; Dr. H.Z. Liu, dean of the Faculty of Arts and Science; Dr. E. Thomas Moran, assistant to the vice president for academic affairs; Ms. Anna Nardelli, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services; Dr. Anita Rapone, assistant professor of history; Ms. Janet Saunders, director of personnel and affirmative action; Ms. Susan Spissinger, director of sponsored research; and Dr. Eleanor Stoller, professor of sociology.

The permanent commission was formed by President Warren as a result of a recommendation of an advisory committee established last spring to respond to a report of a SUNY Plattsburgh Women's Committee. That report suggested a five-point initial agenda for the commission that focuses on issues such as the elimination of sex-based inequities in salary, hiring and professional advancement; enhancement of scholarship on women and the incorporation of gender issues in the curriculum; education of the campus community relative to gender biases; and expansion of ways to provide a safe, healthy and supportive environment for women on campus.

The commission has not yet established an initial meeting date. Election of a chairperson is expected to be at the top of agenda at the first meeting.

Effort Begun to Reverse Decline in Applications for RA Posts

A steady decline in recent years in the number of student candidates for positions as residence hall assistants (RAs) has been described as a "serious campus concern."

In a presentation to the College Council on Thursday, Council member Sally Webb pointed out that where 175 students applied for RA positions for 43 available slots in academic 1977-78, there were 92 applicants for 43 RA openings for the current academic year. "This is not a local phenomena," reported Webb, "as research indicates that many colleges and universities are experiencing this problem." She noted that most common among reasons students cite when asked about the declining popularity of RA positions were the desire to experience off-campus living and an attitude, generally, that the job "just isn't worth it." Webb said it is apparent that a large number of students "are unwilling to make the personal sacrifices of time and freedom that the RA position requires."

RA responsibilities are complex, but in general they require the student to serve as a behavior model, providing peer assistance and leadership to students. RAs are considered members of the college staff, and they are expected to adhere to professional standards. In addition to interpreting and enforcing college regulations in the residence halls and elsewhere on campus, they are obligated to provide programs for residents that are designed to enhance the total education experience. RAs must also maintain a minimum 2.5 cumulative grade-point average (last spring, the aggregate gpa for all RAs for the semester was 3.25).

Remuneration for RAs is related to length of service: full room rent waiver and a $600 meal plan credit for the first year; room rent waiver and an $800 meal plan credit in the second year; and room rent waiver and a $1,000 meal plan credit in subsequent years.

Webb stated that a concerted effort is underway to maximize RA recruitment efforts with emphasis on the rewards of the position beyond those that are monetary (experience, personal growth, acquisition of leadership skills, etc.). Applications for RA positions for the 1988-89 academic year will be available in the Office of Campus Life on October 19, and must be completed and returned by December 4.

Phonathon Results Encouraging

The 1987 student phonathon campaign in support of the Annual Alumni Fund has been underway for about three weeks, and an analysis of the early results indicate the effort is headed for success. Through the first 12 evenings of calling, the student solicitors had received gift pledges from 1,195 alumni totaling nearly $23,000. Among those pledging gifts were 276 alumni who had never done so before. The phonathon goal for the year is $50,000 (one-half of the Annual Alumni Fund's overall goal), and it is estimated it will take pledges from 2,000 alumni to achieve it. With 16 calling nights remaining in the campaign, optimism prevails among the students who comprise the phonathon team.

Several Steps Remain in '87-88 Discretionary Increase Schedule

The timetable for faculty and staff evaluation for discretionary increases for 1986-87 has been in effect since early in October, but several important steps remain in the process. The remainder of the schedule, with actions to take place, is as follows:

- Monday & Tuesday, Oct. 19 & 20: Deans' consultation with Faculty Affairs Committees (individual files in Deans' offices).
- Wednesday, Oct. 21, through Monday, Oct. 26: Files submitted for evaluation review to the vice president for academic affairs and the president. Individuals may review and respond to evaluative evidence in file (files in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action).
- Monday, Oct. 26: Recommendations for discretionary increases for professional employees due in the President's Office.
- Tuesday, Oct. 27: Individuals and chairpersons/directors notified if intended action by the president is contrary to recommendations.
- Wednesday, Oct. 28 through Monday, Nov. 2: President or his designee meets with individuals/evaluation groups to discuss pending decisions.

(Continued on back page)

Cross Country Team's Dobert Named 1st 'Athlete of the Week'

The women's cross country team was unsuccessful in its dual meet with Middlebury College here on Saturday, but the performance of the Cardinals' Julie Dobert was impressive enough to earn her the spotlight as the first student-athlete to be named the Plattsburgh State "Student-Athlete of the Week."

Dobert, a sophomore from Rensselaer, ran the Plattsburgh campus 3.5-miles course in 21:54 — her personal best time — to finish first in the meet. The Cardinal men also lost to Middlebury, and also in spite of a first-place finish by a Plattsburgh runner as Jim Miller turned in a time of 27:09 over the 5.1-mile course.

Fernando Gualtieri accounted for all the scoring as the men's soccer team nipped Skidmore College, 2-1, on Tuesday, then lost to Union College by the same score on Saturday. Gualtieri's game-winner against Skidmore came with 12 seconds left in the game; his goal at Union with eight minutes to play had broken a scoreless tie, but the Dutchmen rallied to pull out the win. The women's soccer team was blanked twice during the week — 8-0 on Wednesday by the University of Vermont and 1-0 on Saturday by Middlebury.

Plattsburgh's women's volleyball team defeated Russell Sage College and Potsdam in Saturday's Oneonta State Tournament, but finished fourth in the field dominated by Hamilton College. The women's tennis team, hampered by injuries, suffered a 9-0 loss to Middlebury on Thursday.

The Athlete-of-the-Week ballot was instituted effective this week by the Department of Physical Education and Recreational Sports (PEARS). Coaches' nominations for the honor will be selected by a committee consisting of Peter Luguri, acting director of athletics, Julie Terrizzi, Student Association sports information director, and two coaches from sports teams not in season.

Black Poetry Day' Observance Features Poet-Author Giovanni

Noted poet and author Nikki Giovanni will be featured speaker for the observance of Black Poetry Day in Plattsburgh this weekend.

Giovanni, the author of Gemini, an autobiography, and two books of poems — Spin a Soft Black Song, for children, and Cotton Candy on a Rainy Day, for adults — will read from her works at 7:45 p.m. on Friday (Oct. 16) in the Orchard Room of the Angell Center. The program is free and open to the public. A reception hosted by Akeba, the Black students' organization at Plattsburgh State, will follow.

Black Poetry Day is celebrated on Oct. 17, the birth date of Jupiter Hammon, the first Black in America to publish his own verses. It is funded by the New York State Council on the Arts. Ms. Giovanni's appearance at Plattsburgh is sponsored by the New York State Writer's Institute and the college English Department's Visiting Poets and Writers Series.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Business & Economics
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
3 Positions
Management (2)
Marketing (1)
Center for Art, Music & Theatre
Rehearsal Accompanist	10/5/87	10/15/87
Center for Lifelong Learning
Adjunct Teaching Faculty	10/3/87	Open
(Extension sites)
Mathematics
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/13/87	12/1/87
Political Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
Assistant or Full Professor	10/13/87	11/10/87
(Part-time)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

Discretionary Timetable

(Continued from previous page)

- Wednesday, Nov. 4: Decisions by president.
- Thursday, Nov. 5: Individuals notified of decisions.

Meanwhile, William G. Woltjen, assistant vice president for finance, reports that $135,123 is available for discretionary increases for faculty, professional staff and librarians in the United University Professions (UUP) bargaining unit. The total represents one percent of the salary base as of June 30, 1987. Final guidelines relative to award maximum/minimum have yet to be approved by the SUNY Trustees. However, if they remain the same as in previous years, the maximum would be $3,000 and the minimum, $750.

The agreement between the State of New York and UUP stipulates that the discretionary salary increases are to be retroactive to July 1, 1987 for professional employees and September 1, 1987 for faculty, and that they are to be distributed no later than December 31, of this year.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15 – THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15

11 am - 2:30 pm – Fundraiser – Stuffed animals for $4 – We will deliver! Sponsored by the Dietetics Food Service Management Club. Angell Center Lobby.

11 am - 3 pm – CV/PH Blood Drive sponsored by Sigma Pi Fraternity. Angell Center Ballrooms.

12:15 pm – Women's Studies Forum presents Marcia Dickson speaking on "Evil Mothers in Drama." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 pm – Behavioral Science Colloquy presents Bill Tooke speaking on "Measurement and Theory of Moral Behavior." Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 pm – Career Life Planning and Placement Workshop – "Considering Graduate School." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3:30 pm – Men's Soccer vs. St. Rose College. Field House.

4:30 pm – American Marketing Association general meeting. Angell Center Ballroom A.

7 - 9 pm – Phi Kappa Chi Sorority Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 - 10 pm – Life Planning Strategies – A Seminar Series for Women presents: "Make Financial Planning Work for You." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged at the Center for Lifelong Learning in Hawkins Hall. Sibley 408.

7:30 pm – Support Group for Anorexia Nervosa and Bulimia. Sponsored by College Health Services. Open to the campus. Student Health Center.

8 pm – College Main Stage Production, "The House of Blue Leaves." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, faculty/staff $3, public $4 and on sale at Myers Box Office Mondays - Fridays from 1 - 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm on the evening of the performance. Myers Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

8 pm – South African speaker sponsored by the Union of Concerned Students. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16

7 - 9:30 pm – Intervarsity Christian Fellowship weekly Christian fellowship. Angell Center Blue Room.

7 - 9 pm – Alumni Association Class Reunion Buffet. Open to all alumni. Tickets are $6 and on sale at the door. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm – College Main Stage Production, "The House of Blue Leaves." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. Tickets: S.A. members $1, faculty/staff $3, public $4 and on sale at Myers Box Office Mondays - Fridays from 1- 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm on the evening of the performance. Myers Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

9 pm – Annual Homecoming Fireworks Display sponsored by the Student Association. Memorial Hall Field.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17

9:30 am – Fifth Annual Omicron Delta Kappa Alumni Breakfast. A Continental breakfast for Alumni of ODK. Open to members. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

10 am – Annual Homecoming Parade sponsored by the Alumni Association and the Student Association. The route of the parade is from Plattsburgh Plaza down Cornelia, through downtown and back up Broad Street.

3 pm – Women's Soccer vs. Skidmore College. Field House.

3 - 5 pm – Nursing Department Open House – All alumni and guests are welcome. Hawkins Hall Room 209.

4 - 5:30 pm – Center for Human Resources Reception – with special recognition to all counseling graduates. All Home Economics, Food/Nutrition and Human Services Alumni are welcome. Ward Hall.

6:30 - 1 am – President's Reception and Homecoming Dinner Dance featuring the Roger Thorpe Orchestra. Sponsored by the Alumni Association. Open to all alumni and guests. Advance ticket(s) ($15.00) on sale at the College Relations Office. Angell Center Blue Room and Ballroom.

8 pm – College Main Stage Production, "The House of Blue Leaves." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, faculty/staff $3, public $4 and on sale at Myers Box Office Mondays - Fridays from 1 - 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm on the evening of the performance. Myers Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

10 pm - 2 am – Homecoming Semi-Formal: "Everyday is a Holiday" – sponsored by the Student Association. Open to the campus. Student tickets are $2 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Field House.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18

6:45 & 9:15 pm – Student Association Film Committee presents "Platoon." Open to the campus. S.A. member tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 19

10:15 pm – Student Association Senate meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20

noon – U.U.P. Executive Board meeting. U.U.P. members welcome. Angell Center Conference Room.

12:15 - 1:15 pm – Adult Student Group weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge, Angell Center second floor.

3 pm – Placement Orientation Workshop sponsored by the Career Life Planning and Placement Office. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Women's Soccer vs. Potsdam. Field House.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "Finding Five References for Your Paper." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:30 pm — Tuesday Reflections presents Dr. Caridad Buncab and Dr. Young Jang speaking on "An Asian Unrest: The Philippines and South Korea." Sponsored by the Faculty for Arts and Science. Open to the campus and public no charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 - 9 pm — Foot Locker Informational sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21

3 pm — Men's Soccer vs. Clarkson College. Field House Soccer Field.

3 pm — "Resumes and Cover Letters" — A workshop sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Faculty-Greek Reception sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Orchard Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "Finding Five References for Your Paper." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm — Union of Concerned Students meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22

All Day — Canada Day — Watch for poster for details. Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Canada. Angell College Center.

10 am - 2 pm — Kelly Services — Sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center Lobby.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "Finding Five References for Your Paper." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies Seminar Series for Women presents: "Knowing Your Skills and Using Them to Your Advantage." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $20 and can be arranged in Hawkins Room 106. Sibley 408.

8 pm — Tudor Singers sponsored by Music Council, Canadian Studies and Council on the Arts for Clinton County. S.A. members $1, public $7 and faculty $4. Tickets on sale at the Hartman Box Office. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

NOTES

Nutrition News and Views Aerobic Program sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday - Thursday: 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm, Friday and Sunday: 3:30 pm and Saturday at 1:00 pm. Open to the campus no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

Bus to Montreal — The Campus Life Office will be sponsoring a Bus to Montreal on Saturday, October 24. Bus departs from the Angell Center at 9 am, destination is Dominion Square. The bus returns to campus by 6 pm. Tickets are $9.00 round trip and on sale at the Angell Center Desk beginning Monday, October 19. For more information call 564-3824.

The Recreational Sports Office is pleased to announce an addition to its programming opportunities: noon hour low/no impact aerobics for faculty, staff, and students. Co-sponsored with Health Services and Employee Assistance Program funded by CAS Special Services.

Starting October 19 and ending December 13. Monday - Friday 12:05 - 12:45 in the Memorial Hall Dance Studio. Instructors are Anne Mrozik and Stacey Levitt.

Panoramic photographs by Roger Williams, Professor in the Center for Art, Music & Theatre, will be on exhibition in concurrent solo shows at the Nexus and Council on the Arts for Clinton County Galleries in Plattsburgh. The fifty color photographs on view during October and November consist of some of the more unusual geological and geographical formations in the Southwest and Western United States, as well as the Adirondacks. The Council on the Arts Gallery is at 64 Margaret Street; The Nexus Gallery is located at 24 Charlotte Street.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery

September 16 - October 18

Drawings and Prints by Famed Caricaturist Al Hirschfeld

Rockwell Kent Alcove Gallery

September 16 - November 8

Paintings and Drawings by James Fitzgerald

Rockwell Kent Gallery

September 16 - November 6

A Collection of Prints from the Atelier Project

Winkel Sculpture Court to be Dedicated Saturday

The Winkel Sculpture Court, which houses 42 of the works of internationally renowned sculptor Nina Winkel, will be formally dedicated on October 24. The courtyard, an enclosed two-story atrium located in the John W. Myers Fine Arts Building, is the largest exhibition space in the country devoted to the works of one woman.

The Winkel Sculpture Court will showcase many of Nina Winkel's varied works, including these being stored on campus in preparation for Saturday's official opening of the Court.

The ceremony will begin at 5 p.m. in the Hartman Theatre. Dr. Jerome Komisar, acting chancellor of the State University of New York, and Dr. Joseph C.

Burke, SUNY provost and former Plattsburgh president, will be among those honoring the Winkels.

President Charles O. Warren will preside over the ceremony. Other speakers will include Council representative Sarah Webb; Laura Winn, president of Art Resources, representing the student body; and Edward Brohel, gallery director. Council Chairman Robert Garrow will formally name the courtyard, and Nina and George Winkel will present a response.

Immediately following the ceremony, the Winkels will cut the ribbon to formally open the courtyard. A reception will follow and the public is invited.

Born in Borken, Germany in 1905, Nina Winkel fled Europe in 1942 with her husband George, leaving behind family, possessions and cultural ties. Arriving in New York City, she began a lasting affiliation with the Sculpture Center, of which she is president emeritus.

Gallery Director Edward R. Brohel described her work. "A vital philosophy of life animates the sculpture, while its formal and historical references include 20th century German expressionist art, as well as the late medieval religious and folk art of southern Germany. Opposing this expressionist direction, a strong current of classical interest is present both in the iconography and the full balanced contours of the forms."

Mrs. Winkel has won five gold medals for her
(Continued on following page)

Komisar to Keynote SUNY Parley on Articulation and Transfer

At least 45 SUNY two- and four-year colleges will be represented at a SUNY-Wide Convocation on Articulation and Transfer to be held on the Plattsburgh State and Clinton Community College campuses October 22-24.

Dr. Ingrun LaFleur, associate vice president of academic affairs, explained that colleges have been asked to send teams to the convocation, including academic executives, transfer admissions staff members and faculty members. Issues to be examined include the admissions process for transfer students, advisement of transfer students, campus climate and personal/academic adjustment of transfer students, articulation and joint admissions programs, support services for students, and faculty involvement in the transfer process.

Keynote speakers include Acting SUNY Chancellor Jerome Komisar, Dr. Richard Richardson of Arizona State University, and Dr. Howard Simmons, associate executive director of the Middle States Association. Resource people from SUNY Central will include Vice Chancellor Sherry Penney, Vice Chancellor J. Norman Hostetter, and Assistant Vice Chancellor David Truax.

The convocation is sponsored by SUNY Central, the SUNY Faculty Senate and the Faculty Council of Community Colleges. It is supported by a Ford Foundation grant which is intended to help coordinate information on the transfer process and to examine the transfer of minorities within the SUNY system. The grant is administered by Dr. Sherry Penney.

Contract Signed With Donning Co. to Publish Pictorial History

The Plattsburgh College Foundation has signed a contract with the Donning Company Publishers of Norfolk, VA, to sponsor publication in 1989 of a limited edition of a pictorial history of SUNY Plattsburgh to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the founding of the college.

As sponsor, the Foundation has provided $7,588 in "up front" funding to initiate the project. The funding represents 20 percent of the total cost, with the balance due in June of 1989 during the height of the college's Centennial Celebration.

The Foundation will maintain exclusive rights to the sale of the book, and sales are expected to generate a profit of approximately $12,000. Dr. Douglas Skopp, professor of history, will coordinate the project and write and edit the manuscript.

Specifications call for the book to be 8½ x 11 inches in size, to be approximately 200 pages in length and to contain about 350 photographs. It will have a deluxe cover, be custom bound and feature a full-color dust jacket.

The Donning company has produced pictorial histories of the College of William and Mary and Old Dominion University, and is in the process of expanding its college and university series to include Cornell University, SUNY Buffalo, Skidmore College, Syracuse University and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, among others.

SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren (left) and Professor of History Dr. Douglas Skopp (center) admire sample collegiate pictorial history published by the Donning Co., whose representative, Franklin Hall III (right), marketing associate, visited the campus recently. Donning will produce a pictorial history on Plattsburgh State to commemorate the college's 100th anniversary celebration in 1989, and Skopp will coordinate the project and serve as writer-editor of the manuscript.

Winkel Sculpture Court

(Continued from page 1)

work, including the E. Watrous Gold Medal (three times) and the Samuel F.B. Morse Medal. An Academician of the National Academy of Design, she is a Fellow of the National Sculpture Society and a winner of that organization's Louis Bennett Prize.

The Winkels gave a definitive collection of her work, numbering more than 300 sculptures, clay studies and drawings, to the college in 1984. The gift is a comprehensive view of fifty years of her creative accomplishments.

Financed by private donations to the Plattsburgh College Foundation, the courtyard will be administered by the SUNY Plattsburgh Art Galleries and joins the Rockwell Kent Gallery and the Myers Fine Arts Gallery as part of the college's Museum Without Walls.

Regular gallery hours for the Winkel Sculpture Court will be 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, 6 - 9 p.m. on Thursday, and 2 - 5 pm on Sunday and admission is free. Guided tours are available by appointment and may be arranged by calling Phyllis Freedman at 564-2813.

Sigma Theta Tau, Honorary Nursing Society, Inducts 10

Five seniors, three members of the Class of 1987 and two alumni from the local community were inducted to SUNY Plattsburgh's Gamma Delta Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau, the international honor society of nursing, during ceremonies held Sunday evening at the Newman Center.

Sigma Theta Tau recognizes superior achievement and leadership qualities. It fosters high professional standards and creative work and a strengthened commitment to the ideals and purposes of the nursing profession.

The undergraduate inductees, all seniors, and their hometown are: Claire Anderson, Whitehall; Donna Carroll, Saugerties; Nancy Allen Fiege, Plattsburgh; Jenifer Potter, Bombay; and Joyce Woods, Greenwich. Inductees from last May's graduating class and their places of residence are: Ann Fonda of Liverpool; Gretchen Hoffman of Catskill; and Brenda Provencha of Mooers.

Inducted in recognition of their community leadership as nursing professionals were Gayle Beaudoin, a member of the Class of 1969, and Cynthia Hannah, a 1983 Plattsburgh State graduate, both of Plattsburgh.

Alumni Board Okays '88 Budget; Plans Spring 'Leaders' Conference

The Plattsburgh Alumni Association Board of Directors has approved a $75,000 program budget to help fund the college's Alumni program in 1988. The action was taken on Sunday at the board's fall meeting.

Daniel Takacs '58, elementary principal in the Wappingers Falls Central School District, was re-elected president of the Alumni Association. Also elected to one-year terms were Virginia Damianos '50, vice president; Nancy McGaulley '51, treasurer and Stasia Arcarese '62, secretary.

Among the items approved in the program budget was an allocation to fund an Alumni Leadership Conference in June of 1988. Participants will include about 50 leaders of alumni clubs in eight areas of New York State and in the Boston area. They will be invited to campus for an intensive weekend-long session designed to both re-acquaint them with their Alma Mater and to inform them of the College's need for assistance in such areas as recruitment, placement, fund raising and legislative relations.

At the board meeting the members received reports relative to the progress of the Plattsburgh College

Takacs

Foundation in general, and the alumni phonathon campaign in particular, as well as reports on upcoming spring reunions and the Undergraduate Alumni Council. The board members also discussed Homecoming Weekend activities.

The board's next meeting is scheduled for April.

Proponent of 'Reality Theory' to Give Seminar Here Tuesday

Dr. William Glasser, a world-renowned psychiatrist and educator, will demonstrate how to motivate adolescents during a seminar on his "reality therapy and control theory psychology" to be held on Tuesday (Oct. 27) from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom.

The seminar, co-sponsored by the SUNY Plattsburgh Center for Lifelong Learning and the Clinton County Mental Health Association, is designed for educators, helping professionals, counselors, parents, students and others interested in working with young people and helping them to solve their problems.

Registration for the seminar is being handled by the Center for Lifelong Learning (564-2050), and the fee schedule is $20 for students, $25 for faculty and $35 for the general public. A one-credit option at the graduate level also is available.

Varied Activities Scheduled for 'Alcohol Awareness Week'

This is National Alcohol Awareness Week throughout the country, and SUNY Plattsburgh is observing the week with several activities, according to Ed Engelbride, director of campus community activities.

"Colleges across the country have been encouraged to emphasize alcohol education programs this week," Englebride said, "and we are focusing on efforts to increase the consciousness level of the entire college community concerning the use and effects of alcohol."

Among the activities scheduled this week are inservice training sessions for RA's; breathalyzer demonstrations; an awareness workshop for Greeks presented by Donna Skerry, coordinator of Clinton County STOP-DWI; and a presentation on alcohol by Sandra Lushia of the Clinton County Council on Alcoholism.

The Adirondack, Banks and Whiteface Hall Councils are also sponsoring a non-alcoholic Hawaiian Dance on Friday evening. In addition, members of the Greek organizations are distributing information on alcohol awareness throughout the week in the Angell College Center lobby.

Homecoming '87

Thanks to the efforts of Crockett and Fannie Collins Harrison ('27) of Grove City, PA, seven alumni returned to campus Homecoming weekend to observe the first organized reunion of a SUNY Plattsburgh 60th anniversary class. The Harrisons attended their 60th reunion luncheon at Valcour Educational Conference Center wearing headwear they have retained that was fashionable on campus during the Roaring '20s.

Kane, Dobert Head Cardinal Women to 2nd Place in SUNYAC Meet

The women's cross-country team, led by Kathy Kane and Julie Dobert, took second place in the State University of New York Athletic Conference Championships on Saturday in Buffalo. Kane finished second, with Dobert right behind her in third place. Sue Hutchins, Janet Day and Judy Serth also finished in the top 20 for Plattsburgh. The men's team finished fifth in the conference meet.

The men's soccer team defeated St. Rose in a lopsided, 5 - 0, match on Thursday. Jeff Esposito scored two goals for the Cardinals. Tom Faraci, Fernando Gualtieri and Wayne Smithling also tallied. Earlier in the week, the Cardinal men lost to Johnson State, 2 - 1.

Ring Ceremony, Banner-raising to Usher-in New Hockey Season

Veterans from the 1986-87 national championship Plattsburgh State hockey team will have a few moments to bask in glory Saturday night before they begin the quest for a second consecutive NCAA title.

In a ceremony scheduled for 7 p.m. at Stafford Arena, eighteen lettermen from last season's SUNYAC, ECAC and NCAA championship team, as well as fourth-year coach Steve Hoar, will receive rings signifying their achievement. On hand to salute them will be New York State Senator Ronald B. Stafford, for whom the college ice arena is named, and Plattsburgh State President Charles O. Warren. Following the ring ceremony, tri-captains Jeff Bunyon, Joey Ferras and Dan Marshall will raise a banner heralding the Cardinals' national championship season in which they compiled an overall record of 34 - 6, going 23 - 1 in the ECAC and 17 - 0 against SUNY competition.

At 8 p.m., a new season will begin as the Cardinals take on the Redmen of McGill University. McGill will be the first of 31 teams to challenge Plattsburgh during the regular season, and one of 17 to do so at Stafford Arena.

Centennial Celebration Committee Schedules Wednesday Open Meeting

Representatives of the 1989 Centennial Celebration Committee will hold an open meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 28 from 1 to 5 pm in Meeting Room 2 of the Angell College Center for members of the college community who wish to express opinions or present ideas relative to programming for the celebration.

Professor Emeritus of Education Annette Manganel, who chairs the committee, invites faculty, staff, students and community residents to drop by to talk informally about how the college can most appropriately observe the 100th anniversary of its founding.

The women's soccer team ended its losing streak on Wednesday by edging St. Michael's College, 1 - 0. The goal, at 35:29 of the first half, was scored by Judy Wisotzke. On Saturday, however, the Cardinal women tasted defeat again, losing to Skidmore, 5 - 1.

Four alumni were inducted to the Plattsburgh State Sports Hall of Fame on Sunday during Homecoming festivities in recognition of their athletic and career accomplishments (all in the field of education) and their contributions to society. L-R: Jack Potter '61, Francis E. "Bud" Miller '38, Doris E. Benton '50, and William Garvey '70.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Business & Economics
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
3 Positions
Management (2)
Marketing (1)
Center for Human Resources
Instructor/Associate Professor	10/21/87	Open
3 Positions
Food Science (1)
Hotel Management (2)
Center for Lifelong Learning
Adjunct Teaching Faculty	10/3/87	Open
(Extension sites)
English
Lecturer Part-time (Vita Bank)	10/14/87	Open
Foreign Languages & Literature
Assistant Professor	10/14/87	12/31/87
Maintenance & Operations
Janitor	10/14/87	10/28/87
Mathematics
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/13/87	12/1/87
Political Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
Assistant or Full Professor	10/13/87	11/10/87
(Part-time)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22 – THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22

All Day — Canada Day — Watch for poster for details. Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Canada. Angell College Center.

10 am - 2 pm — Kelly Services — Sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center Lobby.

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Dr. Bruce Butterfield, "Canadian Women Writers." Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop: "Finding Five References for Your Paper." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:30 - 5:45 pm — Pre-Advisement Event for Center Majors as well as all undeclared majors. This meeting is timely with advisement beginning October 26th. Refreshments will be served. Sponsored by Human Resources. Ward Hall Lounge.

7 pm — Alpha Sigma Phi sponsors guest speaker, Sandra Lushia of the Clinton County Council on Alcoholism. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies Seminar Series for Women presents: "Knowing Your Skills and Using Them to Your Advantage." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $20 and can be arranged in Hawkins Room 106. Sibley 408.

8 pm — Tudor Singers sponsored by Music Council, Canadian Studies and Council on the Arts for Clinton County. S.A. members $1, public $7 and faculty $4. Tickets on sale at the Hartman Box Office Monday - Friday from 1 - 4 pm and on the night of the performance at the Hawkins Hall Box Office from 7 - 8 pm. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23

8 am — Transfer Articulation Program sponsored by Academic Affairs and the Center for Lifelong Learning. Arrangements can be made at the Center for Lifelong Learning. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge and Ballroom.

8 am — Reading Conference sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $35 and can be arranged at the Center for Lifelong Learning in Hawkins 106. Sibley Cafetorium and Gym.

10 am - 2 pm — Kelly Services — sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center Lobby.

12:30 pm — Res Nostra Luncheon Discussions. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 - 9:30 pm — Intervarsity Christian Fellowship weekly Christian fellowship. Angell Center Blue Room.

9 pm — Friday Night at the Movies presents "Day of the Locust." Sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24

8 am - 2 pm — Transfer Articulation Program sponsored by Academic Affairs and the Center for Lifelong Learning. Arrangements can be made at the Center for Lifelong Learning. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge and Ballroom.

9 am - 6 pm — Bus to Montreal sponsored by Campus Life. Round trip tickets are $9 and can be purchased at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from the Angell College Center.

1 pm — Women's Soccer vs. Binghamton. Field House.

5 pm — Winkel Sculpture Court Opening — Dedication Ceremonies followed by a reception. Sponsored by Plattsburgh State Art Galleries. Hartman Theatre.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 25

3 pm — PSUC Cardinal Singers with Richard Zielinski, Conductor and Alan Frank, Guest Conductor. St. Peter's Church, Cornelia St.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "The Fly." Open to the campus. S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 26

4 pm — Psychology Advisement. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:30 - 5:45 pm — Workshops for Visually Impaired Students and Young Adults to be held on successive Mondays. Sponsored by Special Services Project and the Commission for the Blind. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

5 - 7:30 pm — Pumpkin sales — orders taken and pumpkins delivered each day. Sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Rho Broadcasting Society. Angell Center Lobby.

7 pm — Ski Club Organizational Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballrooms.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27

8:30 am — Reality Therapy and Control Therapy featuring Dr. William Glasser. Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee for S.A. members is $20, public $35 and faculty $25 and can be arranged at the Center for Lifelong Learning. Angell Center Ballroom.

noon — U.U.P. Executive Board Meeting. Members welcome. Angell Center Conference Room.

12:15 - 1:15 pm — Adult Student Group Weekly Meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge, Angell Center Second Floor.

12:15 pm — Omicron Delta Kappa regular meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 pm — Interview Techniques Workshop sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop — "Building a Better Term Paper — Without Plagiarism, Panic or Procrastination." Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 - 7:30 pm — Pumpkin sales — orders taken and pumpkins delivered each day. Sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Rho Broadcasting Society. Angell Center Lobby.

7:30 pm — International Film Series presents "My Brilliant Career" (Australian), directed by Gillian Armstrong. Sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 208.

8 pm — Visual Artist Series presents: Audrey Flack, Painter — Slide Lecture. Sponsored by Art Resources.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 28

1 - 2:30 pm — Berkshire Medical Center of Pittsfield, MA — Employment Opportunities for Junior and Senior Nursing Students sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Sign up at the Placement Office, Kehoe 606. Hawkins Hall Room 204.

3 pm — Considering Graduate School Workshop sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop — "Building a Better Term Paper — Without Plagiarism, Panic or Procrastination." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

5 - 7:30 pm — Pumpkin sales — orders taken and pumpkins delivered each day. Sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Rho Broadcasting Society. Angell Center Lobby.

7 pm — Union of Concerned Students Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — MILC Concert sponsored by the Student Association Concert Committee. S.A. members $1, public $2. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballrooms.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "The Commission on the Status of Women: Concept and Agenda," a discussion with President Charles O. Warren and members of the commission. Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 pm — Behavioral Science Colloquy features Dr. Raney Ellis speaking on "The 17-Campus Computer Acquisition: A Study in Decision Making." Sponsored by the Behavioral Science Department. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 pm — Targeting Your Job Search Workshop sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Special Services Project Workshop — "Building a Better Term Paper — Without Plagiarism, Panic or Procrastination." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:30 pm — American Marketing Association general meeting. All are welcome. Angell Center Ballroom A.

4:30 pm — R.A. Informational Session sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

5 - 7:30 pm — Pumpkin sales — orders taken and pumpkins delivered each day. Sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Rho Broadcasting. Angell Center Lobby.

7 - 9 pm — Union College Graduate MBA Programs in Health Systems Administration Informational Session. Sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies Seminar Series for Women presents: "Knowing Your Skills and Using Them to Your Advantage." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $20 and can be arranged at Hawkins 106. Sibley 408.

NOTES

The Recreational Sports Office is pleased to announce an addition to their programming opportunities: Noon Hour Low/No Impact

Aerobics for faculty, staff and students. Co-sponsored with Health Services and the Employee Assistance Program and funded by College Auxiliary Services Special Projects. Beginning October 19 and ending December 13, the program will be held Monday - Friday at 12:05 - 12:45 pm in Memorial Hall Dance Studio. Instructors are Anne Mrozik and Stacey Levitt.

Weekday Temporary Shuttle Now in Operation — Monday - Friday 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. The shuttle will run continuously between the Field House parking lot adjacent to the football field and the campus. The shuttle will run from the campus to the Field House parking lot on the half hour. Pick up point will be the pull-off area in front of the Angell College Center. Watch "Cardinal Points" for schedule adjustment or discontinuation.

Applications for 1988-89 Resident Assistant Positions will be available at the Angell College Center Desk as of October 19, 1987. All full-time students who will be enrolled in an on-campus program during the 1988-89 academic year and who have a 2.5 cumulative average, effective January 1988 are eligible to apply. Interested students should attend an information session on Thursday, October 29 at 4:30 pm in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. The application deadline is Friday, December 4 at 4:00 pm and must be filed at the Campus Life Office.

Do You Feel Stressed? The Psychological Services Center is running a Stress Management Clinic. Students will be taught on an individual basis how to relax and control their tension using relaxation techniques and biofeedback equipment. The Clinic Services are open to all students and are free of charge. You may phone ahead for an appointment (564-3086) or further information. Walk-ins are welcome. The Clinic is located at the Psychological Services Center in the Infirmary. Staff trainers are Carol Feldman, Tracy LeGrow and Joan McFeely under the supervision of Dr. Jacquelyn Connelly.

United University Professions' Committee on Professional Development/Quality of Work Life is sponsoring a workshop on "Teaching the College Student with a Learning Disability" to be held Friday (October 23) at SUNY Central in Albany. Michele Little, assistant director/counselor of the Special Services Project will be participating in a panel presentation, "Some Programs that Work." She will be representing programs from four-year schools. Persons interested in attending are encouraged to contact Ms. Little at extension 2810.

The Feinberg Library has received a copy of TIAA-CREF: The Future Agenda, a "draft for comment" of the report of the Special Trustee Joint Committee established to investigate new investment products for TIAA-CREF accumulations and premiums. It is available at the Reference Desk in the library.

New Faculty Members: Days Inn and Century 21 Realtors are sponsoring complimentary two-hour tours of the Plattsburgh area conducted by Northeast Discoveries. The tour will focus on historic Plattsburgh with stories of lifestyles of today and yesterday, Lake Champlain and the Saranac River's role in the region, the paper industry, and will include brief visits to City Hall, museums, and the Air Force Base. Tours will be November 4 from 8:45 to 11 am, and November 11 from 1:45 - 4 pm. Make reservations by October 30 by calling 561-0403.

Note to campus community: The Office of College Relations may now be contacted by electronic mail. Send your messages for Weekly to C. Smith. We'll check the mailbox every morning for your news.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

Hundreds Celebrate Winkel Sculpture Court Debut

On Saturday evening, more than 400 people joined in the celebration of the opening of the Winkel Sculpture Court, which Acting SUNY Chancellor Jerome Komisar called "a magnificent addition to SUNY Plattsburgh's renowned art galleries." Komisar was one of five speakers who paid tribute to the Winkels. "This sculpture court," he said, "is filled with passion and insight, with a daring and beguiling imagination . . . George and Nina Winkel . . . have given the university a great gift, a testimony to the human soul's immortality."

Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren described the process which made the court a reality. Designed by Pat Crosby, working with director of facilities J. Derek Allan and director of galleries Edward Brohel, the courtyard was constructed by Crosby-Campbell Design/Build. Some of the special work inside the court was done by Lee Appliances, Jeffords Steel and Engineering, Clark's Greenhouse, and Walt and Mike Maliniak. In addition, many friends of the Winkels graciously and generously supported the project financially. "I would like to say thank you to all those people," Warren said, "and commend them on a job well done."

SUNY Provost Joseph C. Burke, who as president of Plattsburgh State helped develop the concept of the Winkel Sculpture Court, declared that "marvels and miracles emerge, as if by magic," in Nina Winkel's works. "The subjects . . . are no less astonishing than their style," he said. "They represent an astonishing array — a mixture of mythology and mysticism. Such subjects should seem strange and foreign to us in the North Country, and yet they seem strangely familiar . . . for (the Winkel) sculpture reflects that communion of strength and sensitivity that characterize our mountains and our people."

College Council member Sally Webb, who introduced the resolution creating the court, told the audience about the Winkels — of their meeting more than 55 years ago in Paris, of the early days of the Second World War when both were interned in France, of their flight to America, of the hard times during their first years here, and of their life together in Keene Valley — a life of love and contentment. "The Winkels are an unforgettable couple," she said. "They delight in life — and in each other."

Laura Winn, president of Art Resources and a senior visual arts majors from Liverpool, thanked the Winkels for their generosity to the college and to its students. She said that having Nina Winkel's work so accessible to beginning artists was extremely valuable, and added how much art students appreciate the scholarships established by the Winkels.

Nina and George Winkel unveiled the bronze plaque which will be permanently installed in the Winkel Sculpture Court.

Director of Galleries Edward Brohel read a telegram of congratulations from Dr. Imelda M. Radice, director of the National Museum on Women in the Arts, then added his own congratulations. "Nina Winkel's art," he said, "is an example of some of the best currents in American society. Coming out of age-old European traditions, it experienced great pain and catastrophe. Transplanted to America, her art worked through these tragedies to once again grasp the joyous, the beautiful and the serious in life."

Council Chairperson Robert Garrow officially named the Winkel Sculpture Court, noting his personal pleasure at its creation. As the Winkels unveiled the bronze plaque which will be installed in the court,

(Continued on page 2)

Computer Technology Has Impact on Teaching-Learning Process

Computing is not just for computer science instruction, data analysis and data processing any more.

Dr. Raney Ellis, director of the Office of Academic Computing (OAC), gave that message to the College Council during a recent meeting. Ellis told the Council members, "The modern academic computing environment contains a set of tools to use for improvement of learning and teaching."

The college's computing facilities began many years ago with a single central computer, Ellis said. Over the years, SUNY Plattsburgh has added microcomputers and a superminicomputer. The most recent purchase has been a CD-ROM player. A CD-ROM, Ellis explained, is a compact disc that stores enormous amounts of information and can be accessed for reading only. Most of the 100-plus products available on CD-ROM are databases of one sort or another. The OAC has purchased a software library, which contains public domain and shareware software.

"But," Ellis said, "hardware and software are useless without intelligent people using them. . . . The really important development arena for academic computing services is in helping people discover how they can use the technology to do certain of their jobs in new, more efficient, and qualitatively different ways."

Ellis cited several faculty members who have incorporated computer technology into their teaching. Among them are Dr. William Graziadei, who uses a spreadsheet program which allows cell biology students to enter data and do calculations much more efficiently, and Dr. Roy Malpass, who is using electronic mail in his Honors Seminar and BITNET (a computer system providing links to countless other locations in the United States and Europe) in his professional collaborations.

Ellis concluded his report with some directions for the future. "We need," he said, "to improve access to computing services for faculty, to install a network on the campus so that diverse machines can be electronically linked for sharing information, to find ways to incorporate new technologies as they appear, and to look at interactive computer-driven video for instructional purposes."

Following Ellis' presentation, College Council members toured the OAC and the microcomputer laboratory.

'Weekly' on E-Mail System

"Weekly" has a new electronic mailbox. We can be contacted via the main computer by sending messages to either D. Doyle or C. Smith. We'll check for your messages every morning, so if you have a story or a calendar note for "Weekly," try sending it electronically! If you haven't yet learned how to use e-mail and would like to, contact Raney Ellis, Office of Academic Computing. It's fast, it's easy, and it's fun.

Special Guest From Canada

Thomas Niles, U.S. Ambassador to Canada, was the special guest on campus during the annual Canada Day celebration last Thursday. Niles held a news conference, gave an address on U.S.-Canada Relations, and was feted at a reception in his honor. During the reception, Dan Marshall (l.), president of Club Canada, presented the Ambassador with an honorary membership in the club.

Winkel Sculpture Court

(Continued from page 1)

Warren read its inscription. A standing ovation greeted a brief acknowledgment by George Winkel.

Following the formal ceremony, the Winkels were joined by Curtis E. Shipman, president of the Plattsburgh College Foundation, at the door to the court for a ribbon-cutting ceremony which officially opened the gallery.

The Winkel Sculpture Court will be open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, 6 - 9 p.m. on Thursday, and 2 - 5 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free.

ODK to Host Reception for Faculty

Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honor society, will host a welcoming reception in honor of new faculty, librarians and professionals at 7 p.m. on Friday, October 30 in the Angell Center Blue Room. President Charles O. Warren will welcome the new faculty members and all faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

Women End Soccer Campaign With 2 Wins; Icers Lose to McGill

The women's soccer team won a pair of victories during the past week to finish the 1987 campaign on a strong note. The Cardinals whipped arch-rival Potsdam, 3-1, early in the week and came back on Saturday to edge Binghamton State, 1-0, in the season finale. Coach Kris Wood's team won five games this fall while losing nine and tying one. Cardinal men, meanwhile, slipped to 6-9-2 by losing to Clarkson University, 3-0, on Wednesday. Clarkson became the first opponent this season to score more than two goals against this year's Plattsburgh State soccer team.

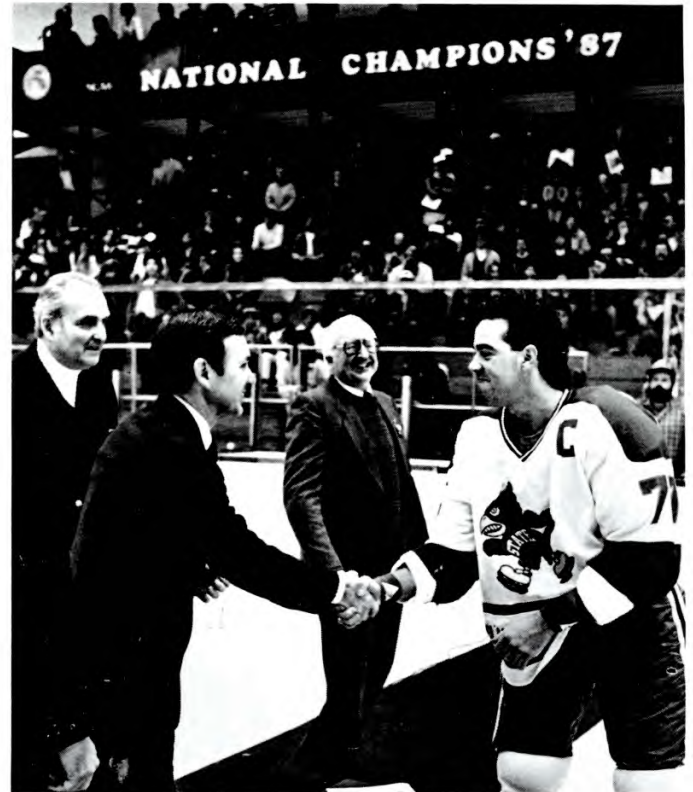

The Cardinal hockey team opened defense of its 1987 NCAA national championship on a sour note Saturday, losing to McGill University, 9-5. Plattsburgh and McGill battled to a 5-5 standoff after two periods, but the Redmen from Montreal scored four unanswered goals in the final stanza to turn the game into a rout. Senior tri-captain Joey Ferras scored a goal and assisted on two others to lead the Cardinal offense.

The women's tennis team ended its season in positive fashion as first-singles substitute Stacey Roarty won the consolation round in the SUNYAC championships played last weekend in Syracuse. Sophomore Roarty defeated the number one players from both Brockport State and Buffalo State to gain the consolation prize.

In cross country, the Cardinal men finished 13th in the 29-team field in last weekend's Albany Invitational Meet, won by Southern Connecticut. Jim Miller was the first Cardinal to finish the course, placing 31st in 27:20. The women's volleyball team wrapped up its season with a 12-15, 15-11, 15-7 victory over Paul Smith's College. Senior Captain Heidi Cox led the Cardinals with 21 points, eight aces, 11 kills and one block.

Champions Honored

Members of Plattsburgh State's 1987 NCAA Division III national championship hockey team received rings symbolic of their achievement on Saturday during ceremonies at the Ronald B. Stafford Arena that preceded the opening game of the 1987-88 season. President Charles O. Warren congratulates senior tri-captain Joey Ferras as ceremony participants Senator Stafford (L) and Vice President for Student Affairs Eldridge W. Roark (center, background) look on.

Women's Forum Events Feature Writer-Editor Greta Nemiroff

Greta Hofmann Nemiroff, a writer and educator who is co-director of the New School at Dawson College in Montreal, will present two lectures next Thursday (Nov. 5) as guest of the college's Women's Forum.

At 11:45 a.m., Nemiroff will discuss "Assessing Gender Bias in a Learning Environment," and at 4:15 p.m. she will describe "How to Make Humanistic Education Work." Both talks will be held in the Angell College Center Cardinal Lounge.

Nemiroff teaches courses in English, humanities and women's studies at Dawson College. She is the editor of "Women and Men: Interdisciplinary Readings on Gender" and of "Celebrating Women: Poetry and Short Stories By and About Canadian Women." Her visit to Plattsburgh State is supported by the college's Women's Studies Program, its Center for the Study of Canada and College Auxiliary Services.

Poet Kessler to Give Reading

Poet Milton Kessler will give a reading from his work at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, November 4 in the CVH Commons.

Kessler, who has been professor of English at SUNY Binghamton since 1965, has published three collections of poetry, A Road Came Once, Wood Lawn North, and Sailing Too Far. He was co-editor, with John Logan of Choice: A Magazine of Poetry and Graphics and has collaborated on translations from the Japanese and ancient Egyptain.

Kessler's reading is free and open to the campus and community.

Dr. Helen Deresky, associate professor in the School of Business and Economics, will present a paper entitled "The Canadian MBA Student's Priority for Work Outcomes and Rewards: Gender Effects and Comparisons with Selected Commonwealth MBA Samples" at the international session of the Association of Human Resources Management and Organizational Behavior Conference to be held next month in Philadelphia. . . Janet M. Edwards, assistant to the president for enrollment management, served as a panelist on the topic, "Regents vs. H.S. Diploma — Why Such a Dilemma?", during an open forum discussion at the Program for Operation Inform held recently at the SUNY College of Agriculture and Technology at Cobleskill. . . Dr. Philip English, assistant professor of English, delivered a paper entitled "After the Fall: The Theological Intolerance and Naivete of Television Evangelists" at a meeting of the Popular Culture Association of the South held recently in Louisville, KY. Additionally, he presented a paper entitled "Macho Man Savage, Jake the Snake and Mad Marie: The Redemptive Rhetoric of Professional Wrestling" at the New York State Speech Communication Convention held recently in Rochester. . . Dr. Edward Hamblet, professor of French, reviewed Solitude rompue, a "Festschrift" in honor of Professor David Hayne of the University of Toronto, in Volume 5 of Quebec Studies. . . Dr. Ann Hastings, assistant vice president for academic affairs and director of the cooperative education program, presented a workshop on "Cooperative Education in a Rural Setting" at the 16th Annual Conference of the National Society for Internships and Experiential Education held recently at Smuggler's Notch, VT. . . Dr. Padmini Gulati, assistant professor in the Center for Human Resources, organized and chaired a session on "Homelessness" at a recent meeting of the Society for the Study of Social Problems held in Chicago. . . "Propaganda and the Law: The Case of Three Canadian Films," an essay by Dr. J. Justin Gustainis, associate professor of communication, has been accepted for publication in the book, Propaganda: Pluralistic Perspectives, to be published by Praeger. . . Drs. Fritz Kissner and George Flynn, professor and assistant professor of physics, respectively, made a presentation on "A New Approach to Introductory Physics at a Four-Year College" at a recent conference entitled "The Introductory Physics Course for Engineering and Physical Sciences" held recently at SUNY Stony Brook. . . "Potassium: A Prescription for Good Health" is the title of a feature article in the September 23 edition of the Cleveland Plain Dealer that focuses on the research published by Dr. Richard D. Moore, professor of biology, in his book "The K Factor: Reversing and Preventing High Blood Pressure Without Drugs". . . Dr. Thomas Moran gave an invited presentation on "Comprehensive Assessment in Academic Disciplines" during a Conference on the Liberal Arts in the Professions held recently at the University of Michigan. Moran is a member of the Advisory Board for the National Center on Postsecondary Research at the University of Michigan. . . Dr. Thomas Morrissey, chairperson of the Department of English, Dr. Thomas Moran, assistant vice president for academic affairs, and Dr. Ingrun Lafleur, associate vice president for academic affairs, served recently as consultants to the Curriculum Committee of Champlain College in Burlington on the topics of writing across the curriculum, general education curriculum development, and assessment. Lafleur gave a presentation on October 8 on Tell Me a Riddle by Tillie Olsen as part of the Essex Humanities series at the Blackwatch Memorial Library in Ticonderoga.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Bursar's Office
Calculations Clerk I	10/21/87	10/31/87
Business & Economics
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
3 Positions
Management (2)
Marketing (1)
Center for Human Resources
Instructor/Associate Professor	10/21/87	Open
3 Positions
Food Science (1)
Hotel Management (2)
Center for Lifelong Learning
Adjunct Teaching Faculty	10/3/87	Open
(Extension sites)
Computer Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/26/87	2/29/88
2 Positions
English
Lecturer Part-time (Vita Bank)	10/14/87	Open
Faculty Senate
Typist Part-Time	10/19/87	10/29/87
Foreign Languages & Literature
Assistant Professor	10/14/87	12/1/87
Mathematics
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/13/87	12/1/87
Political Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	11/13/87
Assistant or Full Professor	10/13/87	11/10/87
(Part-time)
Technical Assistance Center
Staff Assistant	10/26/87	11/16/87
Grant Coordinator	10/26/87	11/16/87
(Research Foundation)
Accounts Manager	10/26/87	11/16/87
(Research Foundation)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29 – THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29

12:15 pm – Women's Studies Forum presents "The Commission on the Status of Women: Concept and Agenda," with President Charles O. Warren and Commission members. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 pm – Behavioral Science Colloquy features Dr. Raney Ellis speaking on "The 17-Campus Computer Acquisition: A Study in Decision Making." Sponsored by the Behavioral Science Department. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

3 pm – Targeting Your Job Search Workshop sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm – The Economics Club presents a lecture on Careers in Banking. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm – Special Services Project Workshop – "Building a Better Term Paper – Without Plagiarism, Panic or Procrastination." Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:30 pm – American Marketing Association meeting with guest speaker Sean McNamara, Retail Advertising Manager of the "Press Republican," speaking on "Advertising." Angell Center Ballroom B.

4:30 pm – R.A. Informational Session sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

5 - 7:30 pm – Pumpkin sales – orders taken and pumpkins delivered each day. Sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Rho Broadcasting. Angell Center Lobby.

7 pm – Student Voter Rights Forum with speakers Dr. Lary Shaffer, S.A. President Richard Davino and a S.A.S.U. representative. The forum will let students know how important their vote can be in local elections and why the local Board of Elections no longer recognizes on-campus students' right to vote. There will also be a discussion about the options students have for the purpose of regaining their right to vote in local elections. Angell Center Ballroom B.

7 - 9 pm – Union College Graduate MBA Programs in Health Systems Administration Informational Session. Sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 - 10 pm – Life Planning Strategies Seminar Series for Women presents: "Knowing Your Skills and Using Them to Your Advantage." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $20 and can be arranged at Hawkins 106. Sibley 408.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30

9:30 am - 3:30 pm – Youth Speak Out on Teen Pregnancy. Sponsored by the Clinton County Youth Bureau and the Center for Lifelong Learning. Open to the campus. Interested participants should contact Kate Chilton at 2050. Sibley Hall Gym.

5 - 7:30 pm – Pumpkin Sales – orders taken and pumpkins delivered each day. Sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Rho Broadcasting Society. Angell Center lobby.

7 - 9:30 pm – Intervarsity Christian Fellowship weekly Christian fellowship. Angell Center Blue Room.

8 pm – BACCHUS Halloween Dance sponsored by BACCHUS and Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballrooms.

9 pm – Friday Night at the Movies presents "Bonnie and Clyde" sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31

5 - 7:30 pm – Pumpkin Sales – orders taken and pumpkins delivered each day. Sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Rho Broadcasting Society. Angell Center lobby.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1

6:45 & 9:15 pm – Student Association Film Committee presents "Little Shop of Horrors." Open to the campus. S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1. Tickets are on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2

10:30 am - 1:30 pm – Alfred University Graduate Programs sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center lobby.

11 am - 2 pm – Pace University Graduate Programs (all majors) sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center lobby.

4:30 - 5:45 pm – Workshops for Visually Impaired Students and Young Adults being held on successive Mondays (11/2, 11/9 & 11/16). Sponsored by Special Services Project and the Commission for the Blind. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

10:15 pm – Student Association Senate meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3

12:15 - 1:15 pm – Adult Student Group weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge, Angell Center second floor.

8 pm – Champlain Valley Chamber Music Series presents Yenoin Guibbory, violin, and Peter Kairoff, piano. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4

7 pm – Union of Concerned Students meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm – Admissions – Peer Recruitment Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm – Visiting Poet and Writers Series presents Milton

Kessler, author of "A Road Came Once" and "Wood Lawn North," reading from his poetry. Sponsored by the SUNY Guest Scholar Program and the Department of English. Open to the campus and public no charge. CVH Commons.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5

9 - 11 am & 1 - 3:30 pm — Free immunization clinic at the Health Center — Rubella, Rubeola and Tetanus.

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Greta Hofmann Nemiroff speaking on "Assessing Gender Bias in a Learning Environment." Sponsored by Women's Studies and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — Greta Hofmann Nemiroff, Co-director of the New School, Montreal, will speak on "How to Make Humanistic Education Work." Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Canada, Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Admissions — Peer Recruitment. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Adirondack Experience Club weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7:30 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies — A Seminar Series for Women presents: "Enjoying and Appreciating Ballet." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged through the Center for Lifelong Learning in Hawkins Hall. Sibley Hall Room 408.

8 & 10 pm — Activities Coordination Board presents Voyager IV — Laser Light Show. Tickets: S.A. members $2, public $4 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

NOTES

Nutrition News and Views Aerobic Program sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday -Thursday: 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm, Friday and Sunday: 3:30 pm and Saturday at 1:00 pm. Open to the campus no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

The Recreational Sports Office is pleased to announce an addition to their programming opportunities: Noon Hour Low/No Impact Aerobics for faculty, staff and students. Co-sponsored with Health Services and the Employee Assistance Program and funded by College Auxiliary Services Special Projects. Beginning October 19 and ending December 13, the program will be held Monday - Friday at 12:05 - 12:45 pm in Memorial Hall Dance Studio. Instructors are Anne Mrozik and Stacey Levitt.

Weekday Temporary Shuttle Now in Operation — Monday - Friday 8:45 am to 4:00 pm. The shuttle will run continuously between the Field House parking lot adjacent to the football field and the campus. The shuttle will run from the campus to the Field House parking lot on the half hour. Pick up point will be the pull-off area in front of the Angell College Center. Watch "Cardinal Points" for schedule adjustment or discontinuation.

Applications for 1988-89 Resident Assistant Positions will be available at the Angell College Center Desk. All full-time students who will be enrolled in an on-campus program during the 1988-89 academic year and who have a 2.5 cumulative average, effective January 1988 are eligible to apply. Interested students should attend an information session on Thursday, October 29 at 4:30 pm in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. The application deadline is Friday, December 4 at 4:00 pm and must be filed at the Campus Life Office.

Do You Feel Stressed? The Psychological Services Center is running a Stress Management Clinic. Students will be taught on an individual basis how to relax and control their tension using relaxation techniques and biofeedback equipment. The Clinic Services are open to all students and are free of charge. You may phone ahead for an appointment (564-3086) or further information. Walk-ins are welcome. The Clinic is located at the Psychological Services Center in the Infirmary. Staff trainers are Carol Feldman, Tracy LeGrow and Joan McFeely under the supervision of Dr. Jacquelyn Connelly.

American Red Cross CPR Classes — Continuous sessions of CPR Certification Training will be conducted at Memorial Hall throughout the fall semester. The program is open to faculty, staff and students and is on Sundays and Tuesdays from 6 - 9 pm. For additional information, call Kyle Page (564-4149) or Leith Bardon (564-4150). There is a $5.00 course fee.

Peer Recruiters Wanted — The Admissions Office is searching for student volunteers to act as Peer Recruiters during the Thanksgiving and Winter Vacations. The students will represent Plattsburgh State at their area high schools and community colleges. The Peer Recruitment Program offers prospective students the opportunity to become familiar with the college from a current students' viewpoint. Surveys completed by incoming students during orientation sessions indicate that current students are regarded as the best source of information about the college. Students interested in participating in the program are required to attend one of two training sessions. These sessions are scheduled for Wednesday, November 4, and Thursday, November 5, and will be held in the Cardinal Lounge from 7 - 8 pm. For further information, please contact Toni at the Admissions Office (564-2040).

The SUNY Trustees will conduct a public hearing on Nov. 18 from 1:30 to 3 pm in the Elisabeth Luce Moore Room at State University Plaza in Albany. The purpose of the hearing is to receive testimony and statements from concerned individuals about issues (issues related to an individual campus can be brought to the attention of the Trustees by writing to the Board at State University Plaza, Albany, 12246). Persons wishing to present prepared testimony are requested to write to Miss Martha Downey, University Secretary, at the address given above, prior to Nov. 17, to identify briefly the subject of their testimony and to provide an address and telephone number for the purpose of confirming their places on the agenda. Persons wishing to make brief, extemporaneous comments are asked to give their names to the hearing officer on the day of the hearing.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Rockwell Kent Alcove Gallery
September 16 - November 8
Paintings and Drawings by James Fitzgerald

Rockwell Kent Gallery
September 16 - November 6
A Collection of Prints from the Atelier Project

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

Trustees Ask $2.2 Million Increase for College

Plattsburgh State's operating budget for fiscal 1988-89 would increase by 9.2 percent, or $2,224,500, under the total budget request for SUNY approved recently by the University's Board of Trustees. The college's budget in the next fiscal year would total $26,307,500.

Included in the increased allocation would be $424,700 in funds for 20 additional positions. The college's budget proposes that the positions be distributed in support of a proposed freshman year experience program, an effort designed to improve retention of first-year students; in support of teacher education, which is experiencing a dramatic surge in demand among students; and in support of the School of Business and Economics and the newly approved program in hotel-restaurant management. Administrative and service areas that would benefit include financial aid, minority affairs, business affairs, computer/data base user services, and maintenance and operations.

Other program increases would be $70,000 for the college's Value-Added project; $213,700 for "inflation catch-up," covering program categories such as general supplies and equipment, temporary service, contractual services and computer services; $250,000 for television studio equipment; and $50,000 in increased tuition waivers for teaching professionals who supervise the college's student teachers.

SUNY's overall request for its 64 campuses totals $2.8 billion, representing a 14.4 percent increase over the University's 1987-88 budget. The budget has been submitted to the governor and will be shared in its current form with members of the state legislature.

College Controller John Homburger noted that this budget period will be the first in which individual legislators will have access to original totals and specific programs requests for each campus. In the past, he said, legislators have seen only the version worked over by the state's division of the budget and passed on subsequently by the governor.

Homburger also predicted that lobbying efforts by and within SUNY will be greater this year than in any previous year.

weekly

Published by the Office of College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community • November 4, 1987

Grant to TAC to Help Meet Needs of Northern Tier Unemployed

SUNY Plattsburgh's Technical Assistance Center has received $135,000 from federal, state and local sources to work toward meeting the needs of dislocated workers in Franklin and St. Lawrence counties and to assist in the long-term economic recovery of the region.

Project director Claire Barnett said that the various sources of funding include the U.S. Economic Development Administration ($90,000), the New York State Department of Economic Development ($35,000), and local governments in the two counties (total of $10,000).

Barnett explained the reason behind the grant application. "Over a two-year period, between the cutbacks at General Motors and Alcoa and the closing of three smaller plants in the Malone area, approximately 2,000 people will lose jobs in those two counties." Many of these workers have deep roots in the area and do not want to relocate, she said. The region, however, is already somewhat economically depressed and the U.S. economy as a whole is undergoing a radical restructuring which is hollowing out its traditional manufacturing base.

Money from the grant will be used to hire a coordinator and an economic consultant. Barnett said the first objective is to identify the means to create as many jobs as possible for the dislocated work force. A second objective is to identify the ways to reduce the ripple effect of the dislocation and to retain as many jobs as possible in the impact area.

An advisory committee for the grant will be convened in the near future. The committee will be comprised of persons from the two-county area from both the private and public sector. Barnett concluded, "This project is a fine example of cooperation between local, state and federal agencies." She estimated that the project will take approximately nine months.

Stephen's Contributes Theatre Attire Valued at $46,000-plus

An extensive collection of bridal gowns, tuxedos and other formal attire has been donated through the Plattsburgh College Foundation to the theatre department's costume collection. The gift, made by Stephen's Bridal and Formal Wear, is valued at $46,591.

The list of items includes 76 bridal gowns, 78 full-length gowns, 120 pairs of shoes, more than two dozen tuxedos, top hats and canes, and parasols. The items, according to Stephen Duso, proprietor of Stephen's, represents consumer samples, which are no longer in the store's current inventory.

Dr. Ruth Kline, who supervises the costume collection, expressed her gratitude to Duso, and said, "This gift is a very welcome addition to our costume collection. In fact, we've put part of it to immediate use. Some of the gowns will be used in our presentation of 'As You Like It,' which opens next Wednesday."

"As You Like It," William Shakespeare's comedy about the romantic and sexual longings of youthful lovers, will be presented in the Hartman Theatre November 11 - 14 and 18 - 21.

Cast members include Aaron B. Conte, Michelle Lee Vedder, Amy F. Altobelli, Darrin Reed, Greg Waagner, Stefanie Lavine, Bradley Alexander, Joe Harding, Riccardo Melara, Karen Anderson, Thomas J. Mebert III, Robert Hegeman, David Steinberg, Christian Purdy, Spelman Beaubrun, Gordon Riggs, William Bradford Hurst, and James Casey IV.

State Radon Program Director to Hold Seminar Here Tuesday

Larry Keefe, director of the State Health Department's Radon Program, will be on campus next week to present a seminar entitled "Radon Infiltration of Homes." The seminar, which is open to the campus and the community, will be held on Tuesday (Nov. 10) at 8 p.m. in Hudson Hall room 106.

Radon, a colorless, odorless gas, is a decay product of uranium found naturally in some rocks and soils. When its decay products are inhaled deeply, they tend to lodge in the lungs, damaging tissue and sometimes causing lung cancer.

A recent survey conducted by the Environmental Protection Agency of homes in 10 states found that 20% of those homes had radon concentrations deemed to be unsafe. The State Health Department is trying to assess the extent of the radon problem in the North Country.

Keefe's talk will cover the health threat posed by high radon levels, existing data on radon concentrations in homes, mitigation strategies and the state's Radon Program.

His visit is sponsored by the Northern New York Section of the American Chemical Society and Sigma Xi.

Dr. Ruth Kline, assistant professor of theatre, hangs one of the wedding gowns donated to the theatre department's costume collection by Stephen's.

Committee Formed to Search for Director of Libraries

A search committee for a director of libraries to succeed Robert M. Burton, who has announced his retirement, has been formed and has begun its charge.

According to committee Chairperson, Dr. Ann Hasting, assistant vice president for academic affairs and director of cooperative education, 46 applications for the position are on file already and they will continue to be accepted for the foreseeable future. She said that it is the committee's goal to recommend a candidate for appointment "at the earliest possible date."

Members of the college community are invited to apply or to nominate candidates for the position. Hasting said that the search committee plans to keep the campus community informed relative to the progress of its search, and that open meetings will be scheduled as candidates are brought to campus.

The committee membership, in addition to Hasting, is as follows: Patricia Bentley, associate librarian; Kenneth Duquette, technical specialist; Theresa Holscher, media/reserve supervisor; Carla List, associate librarian; Marilyn Morton, associate professor of nursing; Dr. Gordon Pollard, professor of anthropology; and Dr. Michael Stoller, associate professor in the School of Business and Economics. Appointment of a student member is pending.

CAS Support Enhances Campus Programs, Facility Improvements

The slogan "Sponsored by CAS" should be as familiar to campus personnel at SUNY Plattsburgh who plan and conduct programs as "Made in the U.S.A." is to workers in the American garment industry.

A recent report compiled by Stanley Supinski, executive director of College Auxiliary Services (CAS), points out that this college enterprise has pumped nearly $900,000 into campus programs during the past three years alone. That total augments an additional $1.4 million CAS has invested over the same period in equipment purchases and in renovation of facilities under its jurisdiction.

"Everybody knows we're responsible for food service, including dining halls and vending, and for student vehicles and student accounts, management of the College Store, Twin Valleys, the Valcour Educational Conference Center and like services," said Supinski. "But few fully understand the scope of Auxiliary Services or their impact in areas ranging from facilities improvement and campus beautification to enhancement of the educational mission of this college. After operating expenses, all monies we generate are returned to benefit the campus community."

For example, said Supinski, it is CAS that provides board subsidies for student resident assistants. Moreover, CAS has contributed $5,000 in each of the past three years to the Plattsburgh College Foundation's scholarship program. It has committed approximately $19,000 to fund cultural and ethnic programs and activities during the current academic year, as well as more than $7,000 in support of tutorial services offered through the college's Special Services Project.

"Our budget for 'programs' this academic year is $311,641," said Supinski, "and that reflects an increase of more than $34,000 in comparison with what we spent only two years ago." He noted that annual special events — student recognition week,

Homecoming fireworks displays and spring commencement programs, for example — as well as ongoing projects (e.g., campus beautification) and education programs (Tuesday Reflections, Women's Studies Forums, etc.) and conferences and workshops all depend upon, and receive CAS funding.

"Our capital expenditure projects include renovation of the Angell Center Sundowner Room, which is nearing completion," added Supinski "and major reconstruction of the commissary and bakery, Clinton Dining Hall and the College Store."

CAS doesn't enjoy a "free ride" at Plattsburgh State. It has returned more than $100,000 per year in each of the past three years to the State of New York as payment for rent in the spaces it occupies and for utilities. "It would be nice to have this kind of money available to supplement the already substantial financial support we give to our campus community," concluded Supinski.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Stuart Baum, professor of biology, discussed "Reproductive Technologies" at the annual conference of the Science Teachers Association of New York State held Oct. 31 - Nov. 2 in Ellenville. . . Dr. John L. Meyer, professor of communication, chaired a program entitled "Voices on the Constitution," in which several constitutional addresses and ratification speeches were read by a panel of public speaking professors in honor of the bicentennial celebration of the U.S. Constitution, at the 45th annual convention of the New York State Speech Communication Association held recently in Rochester. Meyer also served as chairperson and respondent of a convention program on research entitled "Schema for Improving Oral Communication". . . Dr. Philip Reines gave the principal address at the Oct. 22 commencement of the Community College of the Air Force in exercises held at Plattsburgh Air Force Base. . . Five members of the finance and accounting staff attended the 68th annual meeting of the Eastern Association of College and University Business Officers (EACUBO) on the theme, "2002: Survival or Excellence," held Oct. 18-21 in Pittsburgh. The five are: William Woltjen, assistant vice president for finance; John Homburger, controller; Clark Foster, administrative assistant for finance; Debra Sutliff, assistant to the controller, and Diane Wyand, college accountant. SUNY Plattsburgh staff served as the host committee for the 1986 meeting, held in Montreal.

Regents' Group Appoints Duken

Judith Duken '59, director of the North Country Teacher Resource Center, has been appointed by the New York State Board of Regents to the Regents Advisory Council on Learning Technologies. The council is charged with looking at future directions for the Center for Learning Technologies, reviewing its progress and proposing ideas for consideration by its administrators. Duken will serve a three-year term.

Duken, a former chairperson of the Plattsburgh College Council, was the first SUNY alumnus to be named to the State University Board of Trustees and is currently a member of that body's executive committee.

Card Hockey Team Evens Record; Dobert Shines at Albany Meet

The Plattsburgh State hockey team won a pair on the road over the weekend to even its record on the season at 2 - 2. The Cardinals defeated Canisius, 8 - 6, Friday to spoil the Griffins' homecoming weekend, then walloped Fredonia, 11 - 1, on Saturday. Senior Tim Collins had a big weekend for the Cardinals, scoring three-goal hat tricks in both games. Tri-captain Joey Ferras, also a senior, scored his 100th career goal in the Cardinal uniform against Fredonia. This weekend Plattsburgh hosts the Pepsi Cola Cardinal Classic at Stafford Arena. Army takes on Holy Cross in the tournament opener on Friday at 4 p.m. and the Cardinals will meet New England College at 8. The winners will face off at 8 p.m. on Saturday for the championship, with the consolation game scheduled for 4. All passes are suspended for the tournament.

The women's country team finished fourth in the New York State Women's Athletic Association

Singers Cooney, Warner & Davis Headline Folk Concert Agenda

Folk music at its finest will be featured on campus in the next two weeks.

The college's Center for Lifelong Learning has booked concert appearances by singer, storyteller, instrumentalist Michael Cooney scheduled for Friday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom, and by the Jeff Warner and Jeff Davis duo set for 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 14 in the small auditorium of Hawkins Hall.

Billed by Sing Out magazine as the "Roads Scholar," Cooney will demonstrate his musical versatility by performing ragtime, traditional ballads, turn-of-the-century songs and whimsical tunes and drinking songs on guitar, banjo, pennywhistle, harmonica, jews-harp, kazoo and concertina. He has performed on network television, in countless music halls, coffee houses and on concert stages from coast to coast. In addition to his concert appearance, Cooney will perform songs "in celebration of the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution" at 4:30 p.m. on Friday in the Angell Center Orchard Room.

Minstrels Warner and Davis play guitar, banjo and fiddle and sing songs of the sea, ballads, work songs and the blues. A team for more than ten years, they have performed at the Smithsonian, Newport, Mystic Seaport, Philadelphia and University of Chicago folk festivals.

Tickets are $3.50 for the Cooney concert and $2.50 for the Warner-Davis performance (with the exception of all students, who will be admitted free) and are on sale at the Center for Lifelong Learning in Hawkins Hall or Family Drug on Healy Ave. in Plattsburgh.

Championships held at Albany State over the weekend. Julie Dobert finished first among the Cardinal runners, and sixth in the field, with a personal best time of 18:15.9 over the 3.5-mile course.

The men's soccer team ended its season last Thursday with a 1 - 0 upset victory over Green Mountain College. Fernando Gualtieri scored the game-winner with 6:20 remaining in the game. The Cardinals finished the campaign with a 7 - 9 - 2 record.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Business & Economics
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
3 Positions
Management (2)
Marketing (1)
Center for Human Resources
Instructor/Associate Professor	10/21/87	2/15/87
3 Positions
Food Science (1)
Hotel Management (2)
Center for Lifelong Learning
Adjunct Teaching Faculty	10/3/87	Open
(Extension sites)
Computer Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/26/87	2/29/88
2 Positions
English
Lecturer Part-time (Vita Bank)	10/14/87	Open
Foreign Languages & Literature
Assistant Professor	10/14/87	12/1/87
Library
Director of Libraries	7/8/87	Open
Mathematics
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/13/87	12/1/87
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/27/87	1/20/88
Political Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	11/13/87
Assistant or Full Professor	10/13/87	11/10/87
(Part-time)
Psychology
Lecturer Part-time	10/22/87	11/20/87
Sociology
Instructor Part-time	10/22/87	11/20/87
Technical Assistance Center
Staff Assistant	10/26/87	11/16/87
Grant Coordinator	10/26/87	11/16/87
(Research Foundation)
Accounts Manager	10/26/87	11/16/87
(Research Foundation)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5 — THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5

9 - 11 am & 1 - 3:30 pm — Free immunization clinic at the Health Center — Rubella, Rubeola and Tetanus.

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Greta Hofmann Nemiroff speaking on "Assessing Gender Bias in a Learning Environment." Sponsored by Women's Studies and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — Greta Hofmann Nemiroff, Co-director of the New School, Montreal, will speak on "How to Make Humanistic Education Work." Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Canada, Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Admissions — Peer Recruitment. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Adirondack Experience Club weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7:30 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies — A Seminar Series for Women presents: "Enjoying and Appreciating Ballet." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged through the Center for Lifelong Learning in Hawkins Hall. Sibley Hall Room 408.

8 & 10 pm — Activities Coordination Board presents Voyager IV — Laser Light Show. Tickets: S.A. members $2, public $4 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6

4 - 6 pm — Omicron Delta Kappa Orientation Meeting for New Members. Open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 & 8 pm — Men's Ice Hockey sponsors the Cardinal Classic.

4 pm — Holy Cross vs. West Point

8 pm — PSUC vs. New England College

Open to the campus and public. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $3.50, under 18 $1.50 and on sale at the door. Field House.

4:30 pm — Michael Cooney, singer, storyteller and instrumentalist, will sing songs in celebration of the Bi-Centennial of the U.S. Constitution. Sponsored by the campus Bi-Centennial Celebration Committee. Angell Center Orchard Room.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents Star Trek Festival "Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan." Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

7 - 9:30 pm — Intervarsity Christian Fellowship. Angell Center Blue Room.

9 pm — Friday Night at the Movies presents: "The Gospel According to St. Matthew." Yokum 202.

9 - 11 am & 1 - 3:30 pm — Free Immunization Clinic for Rubella, Rubeola and Tetanus. Open to the campus. Health Center.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7

8 am — Hike up Whiteface Mountain (moderate difficulty). Car pooling required. Open to the campus. Meet at the Angell College Center.

4 & 8 pm — Men's Ice Hockey. The Cardinal Classic (semi-finals and championship game). Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $3.50, under 18 $1.50 and on sale at the door. Field House.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents Star Trek Festival, "Star Trek III: The Search for Spock." S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents Star Trek Festival, "Star Trek IV: The Voyage Home." Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9

4:30 - 6 pm — Exchange Programs between Plattsburgh and England at Chester College and Liverpool Institute. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:30 - 5:45 pm — Workshops for Visually Impaired Students and Young Adults to be held on successive Mondays (November 9, 16). Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — Campus Poets Series presents Jeff Cochran. Newman Center, 92 Broad Street.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10

10 am - 3 pm — United States Marine Corp Officer/Selection Program. Angell Center Lobby.

noon — U.U.P. Executive Board meeting. U.U.P. members welcome. Angell Center Conference Room.

12:15 - 1:15 pm — Adult Student Group weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge. Angell Center second floor.

4:15 pm — Faculty Senate meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Orchard Room.

7:30 pm — International Film Series presents — "Brother Sun, Sister Moon" (1973) directed by Franco Zeffirelli. Yokum 208.

8 pm — Student Association Concert Committee presents "Squeeze." Tickets: S.A. members $7, public $14 on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Tickets on the day of the show: S.A. members $9, public $16 on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Field House.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum present Kezia Vilardi speaking on "The Impact of AIDS on Women." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 pm — Behavioral Science Colloquy presents Bill Gaedert speaking on "Towards an Understanding of Personal Accomplishments." Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4 - 5:30 pm — U.U.P. Negotiations Meeting: Meet the Team. Open discussion with chief U.U.P. negotiator on contract issues. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:30 pm — American Marketing Association general meeting. Open to the campus. Redcay 135.

7 - 10 pm — Life Planning Strategies — A Seminar for Women presents: "Becoming a More Effective Leader." Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged at the Center for Lifelong Learning. Sibley Hall Room 408.

7:30 pm — Adirondack Experience Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — Student Association Activities Coordination Board Speakers Forum presents Robert Hasting — U.F.O. Expert. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $3 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — "As You Like It" sponsored by College Mainstage

Productions." Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $4, faculty $3 and on sale at the Myer's Box Office Monday - Friday from 1 to 4 pm and between 7 and 8 on the evening of performance. Hartman Theatre, Myers Fine Arts.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11

10 am - 3 pm — United States Marine Corps Officer Selection Program. Angell Center Lobby.

4:30 - 6:30 pm — United States Marine Corps Officer Selection Program Information Session. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7 pm — Union of Concerned Students meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey vs. University of Ottawa. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $3.50, under 18 $1.50 and on sale at the door. Stafford Ice Arena, Field House.

8 pm — Air Band Auditions sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — "As You Like It," College Mainstage Production. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $4, faculty $3 and on sale at the Myer's Box Office Monday - Friday from 1 to 4 pm and between 7 and 8 pm the evening of performance. Hartman Theatre, Myers Fine Arts.

NOTES

Nutrition News and Views Aerobic Program sponsored by Marriott Corporation and the Office of Campus Life. Monday - Thursday: 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm, Friday and Sunday: 3:30 pm and Saturday at 1:00 pm. Open to the campus no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

The Recreational Sports Office is pleased to announce an addition to their programming opportunities: Noon Hour Low/No Impact Aerobics for faculty, staff and students. Co-sponsored with Health Services and the Employee Assistance Program and funded by College Auxiliary Services Special Projects. Beginning October 19 and ending December 13, the program will be held Monday - Friday at 12:05 - 12:45 pm in Memorial Hall Dance Studio. Instructors are Anne Mrozik and Stacey Levitt.

Weekday Temporary Shuttle Now in Operation — Monday - Friday 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. The shuttle will run continuously between the Field House parking lot adjacent to the football field and the campus. The shuttle will run from the campus to the Field House parking lot on the half hour. Pick up point will be the pull-off area in front of the Angell College Center. Watch "Cardinal Points" for schedule adjustment or discontinuation.

Attention Juniors, Seniors, Graduate Students — The Faculty Women's Organization is offering a $500 scholarship for the spring 1988 semester. To apply a student must currently be attending Plattsburgh State on a full-time basis and have already achieved the junior, senior or graduate level of study. Furthermore, an applicant must have a current g.p.a. of at least 3.0 as an undergraduate or 3.5 as a graduate student and have financial need as determined by the Financial Aid Office. The Financial Aid Form, two letters of recommendation and a formal letter describing career objectives, academic progress to date and financial need must be submitted together with the application form to the Financial Aid Office no later than November 25, 1987. The scholarship recipient will be determined by December 31, 1987. The basic scholarship application form is available NOW in the campus Financial Aid Office, Kehoe 401.

Do You Feel Stressed? The Psychological Services Center is running a Stress Management Clinic. Students will be taught on an individual basis how to relax and control their tension using relaxation techniques and biofeedback equipment. The Clinic Services are open to all students and are free of charge. You may phone ahead for an appointment (564-3086) or further information. Walk-ins are welcome. The Clinic is located at the Psychological Services Center in the Infirmary. Staff Trainers are Carol Feldman, Tracy LeGrow and Joan McFeely under the supervision of Dr. Jacquelyn Connelly.

American Red Cross CPR Classes — Continuous sessions of CPR Certification Training will be conducted at Memorial Hall throughout the fall semester. The program is open to faculty, staff and students and is on Sundays and Tuesdays from 6 - 9 p.m. For additional information call Kyle Page (564-4149) or Leith Bardon (564-4150). There is a $5.00 course fee.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Rockwell Kent Alcove Gallery
September 16 - November 8
Paintings and Drawings by James Fitzgerald

Rockwell Kent Gallery
September 16 - November 6
A Collection of Prints from the Atelier Project

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

PAFB Enrollment Has Doubled; Could Do So Again

Enrollment of Plattsburgh Air Force Base personnel and dependents at SUNY Plattsburgh has more than doubled during the past four years, according to Dr. H. Griffin Walling, director of the Center for Lifelong Learning. That fact, and others, were explained to Air Base and college personnel during a luncheon last week on the base, hosted by Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren and the Center for Lifelong Learning.

Warren and Colonel Joseph Bream, commander of the 380th Command Support Group (otherwise known as the base commander), welcomed the group and both emphasized the benefits of continuing cooperation.

Cheryl Marshall, coordinator of the college's base extension office, reviewed some facts and figures for the assemblage. During the spring of 1983, she said, 46 military personnel using the Air Force Tuition Assistance benefits were enrolled at Plattsburgh, compared to 104 last spring. From fall, 1983 to fall of 1986 (figures were not yet available for 1987), enrollment in the same category jumped from 54 to 112.

"But these figures do not tell the whole story," Marshall explained. "They do not include G.I. Bill enrollment, dependents (wives and children of active-duty military personnel), and officers who choose to pay for courses themselves rather than incur additional commitment." When those other categories are taken into account, the estimated total enrollment for PAFB-related students at SUNY Plattsburgh reaches approximately 262 in the fall of 1986 and 231 in the spring of 1987.

Walling said that the current enrollment of undergraduates for PAFB could easily double again. A needs assessment survey, which drew 732 responses, was conducted on the base last spring. The survey showed considerable interest on the part of both officers and enlisted personnel in beginning or continuing their education. While more than 41% of the responding officers had already completed a master's degree, 78% of the enlisted sample has yet to achieve an associate's degree. Asked what programs they were interested in, respondents cited business management (38.9%) and computer science (26.5%). Other popular responses included administration, accounting, electronics, and foreign language.

More than 65% indicated a preference for early evening and night classes, since most work the day shift. Half of those responding cited a preference for classes on the base.

Walling summed up the current needs of the program. "If we want this area of enrollment to continue to grow," he said, "we need to do three things — offer more courses on the base, offer more evening courses on both the base and campus (particularly in courses that meet the general education requirements), and expand and improve our marketing on base."

Two Special Events Mark Observance of 'Adult Learning Week'

November 15 - 21 is Adult Learning Week and will be marked on campus by two special events.

The college's Adult Student Group will host a "Meeting with the President" at 7 p.m. on Monday, November 16 in the Angell College Center Conference Room. President Charles O. Warren will be the group's special guest. On Thursday, November 19, Dr. Lary Shaffer will be the featured speaker during a reception honoring adult students, which will be held from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

"The number of adult students — those over the age of 25 — is increasing every year," said Bette Brohel, coordinator of the Adult Learning Services Office, a component of the Center for Lifelong Learning. This fall, 708 of the 5,753 undergraduate students fall into the category of adult learners. Two hundred forty-eight of those students are 35 years of age or older, and six are at least 60 years old.

On the graduate level, 580 of the 695 enrolled are over 25, with 230 of that number over 35. "They have become a very significant percentage of the student body," Brohel said, "and in many cases, they are dealing with some very special problems while trying to finish their education. Many have full-time jobs and most have families.

"Some travel long distances to class," she added, noting that several students drive to class every day from Ticonderoga, a distance of 90 miles each way. "Adult Learning Week is a time to recognize these students and to offer them support and encouragement for their determination," she said.

The entire campus community is invited to attend the two special events during the week.

Chamber 'Image Recognition Award' Cites Campus Beautification

When the Plattsburgh and Clinton County Chamber of Commerce awarded its first "community image recognition certificates" to eight area businesses, organizations, individuals and towns recently, the college's Campus Beautification Committee was prominent among them. The Chamber awards were created to recognize "efforts to improve the physical image of the Clinton County community."

Campus beautification has been an organized activity at SUNY Plattsburgh for about five years, and it has depended upon the interest and hard work of volunteers representing a variety of offices and departments as well as the student body. Signs of the committee's contributions to the ambiance of the

J. Derek Allan, campus Beautification Committee chairperson and committee member Dauir Woodin show off college's Community Image Recognition Certificate.

Fall Exhibit of Faculty Works To Open Next Week in Myers

Members of the visual arts faculty will have their works showcased during the semi-annual faculty exhibition which will run from November 15 through December 18 in the Myers Fine Arts Gallery. Included in the exhibit will be photographs and paintings by William Crosby, prints by Nicholas Hill, ceramic pieces by William Klock, paintings by Rick Mikkelsen and William Robbins, sculptures by Don Osborn, photographs by Roger Williams, and designs by Rick Salzman.

Photo or painting? This Rick Mikkelsen creation will be part of the faculty exhibition.

Gallery director Edward Brohel said, "The art produced by a studio faculty is the critical ingredient in their profession as artist-teachers. The art faculty members at Plattsburgh State are unique in their high level of artistic accomplishment and application. They show an intense understanding and use of the potential of their mediums."

An opening reception will be held in the Myers Gallery on Sunday, November 15 from 2 to 5 p.m.

campus are visible throughout the campus and range from flower beds, tree plantings and guard rails that restrict access to grassy areas, to the installation of trash receptacles, benches and picnic tables in the vicinity of Amitie Plaza and the "gallery without walls" exhibit in many parts of the academic complex.

However, in the opinion of beautification Committee member and college Registrar Dauir Woodin, the major accomplishment of the committee has been creation of an awareness of the importance of the aesthetic appearance of the campus. "We see less and less litter on campus grounds," said Woodin. "Rather, it is more common to observe people bending down to pick up discarded trash. Also, visitors from other campuses often express surprise that graffiti is practically non-existent here."

Lecture on Apartheid Features Visiting Professor of History

"Apartheid in the Bloodstream: Refugee Views of South Africa" is the topic of a lecture to be given by Dr. Roger Morton, visiting assistant professor of history, at SUNY Plattsburgh on November 17. Morton's lecture will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be held in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

Morton is a specialist in East African history and the history of southern Africa. He has worked in Nigeria, Kenya and Botswana. Most recently he was senior lecturer in history at the University of Botswana.

The lecture is sponsored by the Office of the Dean of Arts and Science as part of the International Awareness Program. It is free and open to the public.

'Planning Money' for Hawkins Renovations in Proposed Budget

The 1988-89 budget recommendation for SUNY approved in late October by the University's Trustees seeks more than $250 million for capital construction, additions and major alterations to buildings at SUNY campuses. Several projects at Plattsburgh State are included in that request.

According to J. Derek Allan, director of facilities, the college has submitted proposals to fund 111 separate construction projects on campus valued at from just over $2,000 to several millions of dollars. State University Construction Fund officials confirmed last Friday that the Trustees' request includes monies for SUNY Plattsburgh's number one project, in Allan's estimation — $832,000 for rehabilitation and preservation of Hawkins Hall — and for several others that are new or on-going.

Allan pointed out that the proposed allocation for Hawkins Hall represents "planning money" for a project it is estimated will cost $5.2 million to complete in the long run. The renovations required in Hawkins, he said, include upgrading or replacement of electrical, heating and ventilation systems and doors and windows, improvements in the quality of the classroom environment in the building as well as improvements to accommodate departmental needs.

Other requests for this campus approved by the Trustees include $20,000 in planning money to expand the college's telecommunications system, a project whose total cost is estimated at $117,000; $35,000 for window replacement in the Kehoe Administration Building and Hawkins Hall; $91,000 added to an existing contract to repair the roof of the Myers Fine Arts Building; $234,000 for roofing insulation in Hud-

International Business Seminar Could Profit Variety of Majors

Students interested in a career in international business could benefit from a seminar on opportunities in the field scheduled for 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. today (Oct. 11) in the Cardinal Lounge of the Angell College Center.

The seminar, sponsored by the International Business Club with support from the college's Office of Career Planning and Placement, will focus on products and services and international operations of Combustion Engineering, Inc. of Stamford, CT, and its Rochester-based subsidiary, Process Automation Business. Featured speakers will be Joseph Laundry and Carol Hutchinson, both corporate officers with Process Automation. The seminar should be of interest to students, including freshmen and sophomores, who are majoring in chemistry, communication, computer science, engineering, English/-journalism, environmental science, foreign language, international studies, mathematics and physics.

son and Beaumont Halls; and $21,000 for site improvement to "Amitie Plaza."

The budget recommendation must be included in the Executive Budget and be approved by the State Legislature.

Pepsi Gift Supports Tourney; Scholarship Program Also Wins

Successful conduct of this past weekend's Pepsi Cola Cardinal Classic hockey tournament and the basketball season tip-off tourney scheduled for Nov. 20 - 21 is tied to corporate sponsorship, but the college's general scholarship program also benefits by Pepsi support.

"It would be impossible to meet expenses for these two prestigious tournaments without the support of the Pepsi Cola Bottling Company in Keeseville," remarked Don Garrant, assistant to the president for college relations and development. "Pepsi has been backing these events for several years."

Keeseville Pepsi Cola Bottling Co. General Manager Dick Thomas (center, holding poster) attended campus luncheon planning session for Pepsi-sponsored Cardinal Classic tournaments in ice hockey and men's basketball. L-R: Peter Luguri, acting director of athletics, Plattsburgh State President Charles O. Warren, Thomas, hockey coach Steve Hoar and men's basketball Larry Cowan.

Garrant pointed out that Pepsi funding for the two tournaments totaled $6,500 — $5,000 for hockey and the balance for basketball. He added, however, that the Keeseville firm has also provided $1,000 for the college's student aid program.

"The total gift is the largest we have received in support of the College Foundation's 1987 business campaign," said Garrant, "and it moves us very close to achieving the campaign's $90,000 goal for the year. We're grateful for the continuing support of Ted Prime, president of Pepsi Cola Bottling in Keeseville, and Dick Thomas, sales manager for the company."

Army Wins Pepsi Classic in OT; Women Runners 2nd in ECACs

For the second year in a row, the Plattsburgh State hockey team failed in its bid to capture its own Pepsi Cola Cardinal Classic tournament. The Cardinals clobbered New England College, 12 - 2, Friday night, with sophomore defenseman Dave Doucette picking up six points on two goals and four assists, to move to Saturday's championship game against Army, 6 - 2 winners over Holy Cross in the preliminary round. However, the Cadets fought back from one-goal deficits three times to knot the contest, 3 - 3, in regulation, then scored at 1:40 of the second overtime period to capture the title. Doucette was named MVP of the all-tournament team. Other Cardinals named to the all-star squad were forward Joey Ferras, defenseman Chris Panek and goalie Tony Martino, who was brilliant in the nets in stopping 45 shots.

In cross country competition, the Cardinal women took second place behind Ithaca College, currently ranked second in the nation, in Saturday's ECAC Division III championship meet hosted by Tufts University. Kathy Kane, with a fourth place finish in 18:29 over the 3.1-mile course, and Julie Dobert, who finished fifth with an identical time, were the Cardinals' top performers. The women runners finished a distant second to Ithaca but ahead of two other nationally ranked teams — Colby College and Bates University. The men's cross country team, meanwhile, placed 13th in the New York State collegiate championships held in Schenectady. Jim Miller was the top Cardinal runner, finishing 30th with a time of 27:07 over the five-mile course.

The men's and women's swimming teams finished 10th and seventh, respectively, in Saturday's Great Dane Relays hosted by Albany State.

Athletes of the Week

Plattsburgh State's Athletes of the Week for the week ending Nov. 7 were hockey defenseman Dave Doucette and cross country star Kathy Kane.

Haunted House for Charity

A Halloween Haunted House, organized by three resident assistants, has raised $813 for two charitable organizations. RAs Bryan Hartman, Dina Casey, and Joe Cresanti organized the spook house, which was sponsored by the Resident Assistants Association, College Auxiliary Services, the residence hall councils, and the Office of Campus Life. More than 1,200 people visited the Haunted House during its three-day existence in the upper Clinton Lounge. Proceeds were split between the YMCA and Big Brothers/Big Sisters, and were presented to those organizations on Monday, November 9.

(R to L): Resident assistants Dina Casey, Bryan Hartman, and Joe Cresanti presented the proceeds from the Haunted House to Joan LaPier of the YMCA and Marguerite Adams, of Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Northern New York.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Business & Economics
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	Open
3 Positions
Management (2)
Marketing (1)
Center for Human Resources
Instructor/Associate Professor	10/21/87	2/15/88
3 Positions
Food Science (1)
Hotel Management (2)
Center for Lifelong Learning
Adjunct Teaching Faculty	10/3/87	Open
(Extension sites)
Computer Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/26/87	2/29/88
2 Positions
English
Lecturer Part-time (Vita Bank)	10/14/87	Open
Foreign Languages & Literature
Assistant Professor	10/14/87	12/1/87
Library
Director of Libraries	7/8/87	Open
Mathematics
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/13/87	12/1/87
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/27/87	1/20/88
Political Science
Assistant/Associate Professor	9/28/87	11/13/87
Psychology
Lecturer Part-time	10/22/87	11/20/87
Sociology
Instructor Part-time	10/22/87	11/20/87

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12 – THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12

12:15 pm – Women's Studies Forum presents Kezia Vilardi speaking on "The Impact of AIDS on Women." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:20 pm – Behavioral Science Colloquy presents Bill Gaeddert speaking on "Towards an Understanding of Personal Accomplishments." Sponsored by the Behavioral Science Department. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4 - 5:30 pm – U.U.P. Negotiations Meeting: Meet the Team. Open discussion with chief U.U.P. negotiator on contract issues. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:30 pm – American Marketing Association general meeting. Open to the campus. Redcay 135.

7 - 10 pm – Life Planning Strategies – A Seminar for Women presents: "Becoming a More Effective Leader." Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Registration fee is $10 and can be arranged at the Center for Lifelong Learning. Sibley Hall Room 408.

7:30 pm – Adirondack Experience Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7:30 pm – Sexual Harassment Workshop – Will explore the possibilities of a student peer counseling group for sexual harassment victims. Sponsored by the Center for Women's Concerns. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm – Student Association Activities Coordination Board Speakers Forum presents Robert Hasting – U.F.O. Expert. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $3 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm – "As You Like It" sponsored by College Mainstage Productions." Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $4, faculty $3 and on sale at the Myers Box Office Monday - Friday from 1 to 4 pm and between 7 and 8 on the evening of performance. Hartman Theatre, Myers Fine Arts.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13

10:30 - 11:30 am – Orientation Session for prospective counseling graduate students. Sponsored by the Counseling Department. Ward Hall 106.

7:30 pm – Men's Hockey vs. St. Bonaventure. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $3.50, under 18 $1.50 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk and at the door. Ronald B. Stafford Arena, Field House.

8 pm – "As You Like It" sponsored by College Mainstage Productions. See Thursday, Nov. 12 at 8 pm for details and ticket information.

9 pm – Air Band Contest – A benefit for the Clinton County STOP-DWI Program. Sponsored by Campus Life.

General admission tickets are $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

9 pm – Friday Night at the Movies presents "The Heiress" sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14

10 am - 5 pm – Fall Arts and Crafts Fair sponsored by Campus Life. General admission is 50¢ at the door. Field House Gymnasium.

6:30 pm – Folk Music Concert – Jeff Warner and Jeff Davis. Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Tickets: S.A. members free, public $2.50 and are available at the Center for Lifelong Learning, Family Drug or at the door. Hawkins Hall Small Auditorium.

7:30 pm – Men's Hockey vs. Brockport. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $3.50, under 18 $1.50 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk and at the door. Ronald B. Stafford Arena, Field House.

8 pm – "As You Like It" sponsored by College Mainstage Productions. See Thursday, Nov. 12 at 8 pm for details and ticket information.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15

6:45 & 9:15 pm – Student Association Film Committee presents "The Color of Money." Open to the campus. Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

7 pm – Joslin Diabetes Summer Camp – Informational Session sponsored by the Center for Teacher Education/Co-op Program. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16

10 am - 3 pm – Summer Employment Recruitment sponsored by Student Employment/Financial Aid. Angell Center Lobby.

3:30 pm – Student Employee Recognition Ceremony – honoring graduating seniors employed on campus. Sponsored by Student Employment/Financial Aid. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm – Paul Madden from the Joslin Diabetes Center will discuss nutrition and diabetes education. Sponsored by the Dietetics Foodservice Management Club. Ward Hall Lounge.

7 pm – Adult Student Group Evening Meeting. Invited guest – Dr. Charles Warren. Sponsored by the Adult Student Group. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17

10 am - 3 pm — Summer Employment Recruitment sponsored by Student Employment/Financial Aid. Angell Center Lobby.

11 am - 3 pm — CV/PH Blood Drive sponsored by Theta Alpha Lambda. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballroom.

4:30 - 6 pm — Tuesday Reflections presents Dr. Philip English, Communication Department speaking on "The Louisiana Redneck and the Pentecostal Rednose: Jimmy Swaggart, the Bakkers and the Fundamentalist Shuffle." Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — "Apartheid in the Bloodstream: Refugee Views of South Africa," a lecture by Dr. Roger Morton, History Department. Sponsored by the Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — The Tipu Project — A talk on research being conducted on an archeological site in Belize, Central America. Sponsored by the Anthropology Club. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18

12:30 pm — Nicaragua: People and Issues sponsored by the Latin American Studies Program. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — "Life in Chemistry After Plattsburgh." Hudson 317.

7 - 9 pm — Professional Public Relations personnel speaking on "Concepts of Public Relations in Their Organization." Sponsored by the Department of Communication. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 — "As You Like It" sponsored by College Mainstage Productions. See Thursday, Nov. 12 at 8 pm for details and ticket information.

8 - 9 pm — Poetry Reading by Elliot Richman. Sponsored by the Visiting Writers Series. CVH Commons.

8 pm — Guest speaker Dian Ulner speaking on "Relationships and Then Some." Sponsored by Circle K International. Angell Center Orchard Room.

8 pm — Sinfonia — Yenoin Guibbory, Conductor. Small Auditorium Hawkins Hall.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19

10 am - 2 pm — Walt Disney College Program Co-op Information and Interview Session sponsored by the Hotel and Restaurant Management Program and Cooperative Education Program. Open to the campus. Sibley Hall Cafetorium.

11 am - 2 pm — U.S. Peace Corps Information sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center Lobby.

noon - 1:30 pm — General Information Session for students interested in foreign language opportunities with the United States Army. Sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Penny Dugan speaking on "Feminist Visions of the Future." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 - 6 pm — IRS Examination Division will hold a general information session regarding career opportunities with the IRS Exam Division. Sponsored by Career Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 - 5:30 pm — U.S. Peace Corps general information session regarding career opportunities. Sponsored by Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:30 pm — Anthropology Club meeting. Open to the campus. Redcay 105.

7:30 pm — Adirondack Experience Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7:30 pm — Support Group for Anorexia Nervosa and Bulimia sponsored by College Health Services. Open to the campus. Student Health Center.

7:30 pm — "How to Keep From Going Bonkers in ACC Lab." Dr. Naomi McCormick will discuss stresses associated with computer science major. Sponsored by the Computer Science Club. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — "As You Like It" sponsored by College Mainstage Productions. See Thursday, Nov. 12 at 8 pm for details and ticket information.

NOTES

The Recreational Sports Office is pleased to announce an addition to their programming opportunities: Noon Hour Low/No Impact Aerobics for faculty, staff and students. Co-sponsored with Health Services and the Employee Assistance Program and funded by College Auxiliary Services Special Projects. Beginning October 19 and ending December 13, the program will be held Monday - Friday at 12:05 - 12:45 pm in Memorial Hall Dance Studio. Instructors are Anne Mrozik and Stacey Levitt.

Weekday Temporary Shuttle Now in Operation — Monday - Friday 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. The shuttle will run continuously between the Field House parking lot adjacent to the football field and the campus. The shuttle will run from the campus to the Field House parking lot on the half hour. Pick up point will be the pull-off area in front of the Angell College Center. Watch "Cardinal Points" for schedule adjustment or discontinuation.

Applications for 1988-89 Resident Assistant Positions are available at the Angell College Center Desk. All full-time students who will be enrolled in an on-campus program during the 1988-89 academic year and who have a 2.5 cumulative average, effective January 1988 are eligible to apply. The application deadline is Friday, December 4 at 4:00 pm and must be filed at the Campus Life Office.

American Red Cross CPR Classes — Continuous sessions of CPR Certification Training will be conducted at Memorial Hall throughout the fall semester. The program is open to faculty, staff and students and is on Sundays and Tuesdays from 6 - 9 pm. For additional information call Kyle Page (564-4149) or Leith Bardon (564-4150). There is a $5.00 course fee.

Plattsburgh-Oswego Psychologists Devise 'COMPSYCH' Service

Psychologists around the country who are interested in using computers for teaching or for research purposes will soon find it much easier to learn about new software, to obtain new 'freeware' (software that's distributed at no cost), to find other psychologists interested in a particular subject area, and to keep abreast of new developments and upcoming conferences in their field, thanks to an innovative project being developed by two SUNY Plattsburgh faculty and one from SUNY Oswego.

Margaret Anderson and Dr. Roger Hornby, lecturer and professor of psychology, respectively, are working closely with Dr. David Bozak, director of information sciences at Oswego, to develop an electronic information and distribution service for psychological software. They've christened the system COMPSYCH.

The project was conceived after Anderson and Hornby began integrating computers into the undergraduate psychology curriculum, but found it was difficult, if not impossible, to find out what software was available and whether it was appropriate for their use. "We decided to try to help others avoid an experience similar to ours," Anderson said.

COMPSYCH will be accessible only by computer. "The central component of the system," Anderson explained, "will be a topically organized catalog, listing available software of interest to psychologists. The listing will include commercial products, as well as freeware, and will contain a brief description of the program. User comments on packages and programs will also be available.

"In addition, the system will contain an actual library of freeware available for downloading, a directory of users and their primary areas of interest, and a bulletin board for communication among users."

Anderson said that AT&T has donated the hardware for COMPSYCH. The hardware will be housed on the Oswego campus. "To my knowledge," Anderson said, "this is the first system of this type in any discipline, although there is one that distributes math freeware."

Anderson and Hornby said the system is slated to go on line in January.

Council Officer Wayne Byrne Receives Service Award from ACT

College Council Vice-Chairperson Wayne H. Byrne has received a special Service Award from the Association of College Trustees (ACT) Board of Directors. The award, given in recognition of his long-term service to both the local Council and to ACT, was presented to Byrne by Francis G. Healey, first vice president, at the recent ACT conference in Rochester.

Byrne was nominated for the award by President Charles O. Warren and Council Chairperson Robert M. Garrow, who cited Byrne for "his dedicated and distinguished service to not only the Plattsburgh College Council and ACT, but to the improvement of education as a whole."

Warren said, "No one deserves an award of this nature more than Wayne Byrne. He has been a dedicated member of our Council for 18 years, and his advice and counsel have been extremely valued by the college administration."

Garrow concurred, adding, "Mr. Byrne takes his membership on the Council very seriously and he is highly regarded by our other members and by the members of ACT, as well."

Wayne Byrne (right) receives congratulations from SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren on his selection for ACT award.

Byrne was named to the Council in 1969 and has
(Continued on page 2)

Market Fall Has No Serious Effect on Foundation Investments

The sharp decline in the stock market during a 20-day period last month will not have a serious impact on investments held by the Plattsburgh College Foundation. That was welcome news to the Foundation's Board of Trustees, which held its fall meeting last Thursday in the Orchard Room of the Angell Center.

Roger Forrence, chairman of the Foundation's investment committee, told the board that the Foundation is almost entirely invested in the Common Fund, which handles college and university investments exclusively. He said that the Common Fund's investments were not hit as hard as those held by the general public and that the Foundation shouldn't expect a significant decrease in income in 1987. In fact, he said, the market value of Foundation investments should be higher on January 1 of 1988 than on the same date a year ago.

The board was informed that with about six weeks to go in the campaign, Annual Giving for 1987 was at 96 percent of its $306,000 goal, with gifts and pledges totaling $294,206. Endowment giving, meanwhile, totaled nearly $156,000, and it was reported that gifts to endowments this year were ahead of those of a year ago in the first week in November by about $70,000 and could exceed the 1986 total by more than $100,000 by year's end.

In other discussions, the Foundation board was told that $7,000 in funds had been received to date in 1987 for advertising in the Stafford Ice Arena. Advertising dollars are part of an account now valued at more than $25,000, with funds marked to purchase equipment and to renovate the facility. Also, it was announced that the college's fund-raising program will be strengthened by filling a professional staff vacancy with the position of director of development, and the board approved the sale of a small parcel of land it had owned on Cumberland Head for $2,000.

Parents Fund Phonathon Effects Enthusiasm as Well as Dollars

A pilot project to solicit contributions by telephone from parents of undergraduates has met with unqualified success.

According to Alumni Affairs Director Malcolm Lavery, who supervised the project, ten student phonathon campaign participants generated pledges of support totaling $8,870 from 693 parents in six nights of calling. The calls were made to parents who reside in counties where the college draws its heaviest concentration of students.

Lavery explained that the phonathon represented the first phase in a two-phase Parents Fund campaign for 1987. He said that parents who were not reached by phone will be solicited by direct mail during the remainder of November. The goal for the Parents Fund this year is $10,000, with donations marked for refurbishing the late night study room in Feinberg Library. Last year's initial drive among parents brought in $4,600 in gifts from 134 parents.

Feedback from the student solicitors, Lavery said,

ACT Honors Byrne (Cont. from page 1)

been reappointed twice since that time. He has served as vice-chairperson of the Council since 1981. Byrne has chaired the budget committee for approximately 15 years, and has also served on the student relations and the public relations committees. He is the Council's liaison to the Faculty Senate and to the Art Galleries and Collections committee. As a member of the Council, he has assisted in the selection of two Plattsburgh State presidents.

A member of ACT's Board of Directors since its creation, he is a past chairman of the organization. He has also chaired its legislative committee.

indicates that parents contacted during the phonathon were very receptive to the callers and the concept of the drive. He gave credit to success of the effort to student phonathon coordinators Toni Tormos, a senior English major from Hopewell Junction, and Ann Margaret Goesch, a speech and hearing handicapped education major from Athens, both of whom are seniors. Tormos and Goesch have served as leaders on the student phonathon team that had been calling alumni four nights per week each week from Sept. 14 until the conclusion recently of that component of the Annual Alumni Fund campaign.

Faculty/Staff Fund Campaign Closing in on Goal for 1987

With gifts totaling $14,475 and pledges via payroll deduction amounting to slightly more than $10,500, the Plattsburgh College Foundation's Faculty/Staff Campaign remains a little shy of its $25,000 goal for 1987.

"We need about $1,150 to achieve the goal," remarked Dr. Nancy Church, assistant professor in the School of Business and Economics and a tri-captain of the campus fund drive. "With about six weeks left in the campaign, we must count on outright gifts from faculty and staff rather than use of payroll deduction. The importance of achieving success in the drive cannot be overstated. The support of the campus community sends an assuring message to businesses, alumni and other friends in the community who are asked to provide financial support to the Foundation annually and who do, indeed, provide that support."

Kane, Dobert Qualify for NCAA's; Hockey Cardinals Win Three

Plattsburgh State's cross country sensations Kathy Kane and Julie Dobert finished sixth and seventh, respectively, in last weekend's New York State regional qualifying meet in Saratoga Springs to earn bids to this coming weekend's NCAA Division III national championships and a chance to earn All-America recognition. The national championships will be held on Saturday at Hope College in Holland, Michigan. The top 25 finishers in the race are named automatically to the All-America team.

The Cardinal hockey team posted three victories in the past week to improve its overall record to 6-3. Plattsburgh came from behind to nip a talented University of Ottawa squad, 7-5, on Wednesday, with senior Tim Collins netting the hat trick, including the game-winner late in the third period. The Cards scored four times in the third period on Friday to turn back upset-minded St. Bonaventure, 7-5, in the first meeting-ever between the two schools, then routed SUNYAC rival Brockport State, 11-2, on Saturday. Freshman Rob McDougall saw his first action as a Cardinal skater in the Brockport game, and came through with a pair of goals and an assist before being forced to leave the ice because of injury. Coach Steve Hoar's Cardinals face their toughest ECAC Division III West test of the still-young season Saturday when Rochester Tech invades Stafford Arena for a 7:30 p.m. encounter.

Plattsburgh State's men's and women's basketball teams open their 1987-88 seasons this weekend. The men host the Pepsi Cardinal Classic on Friday and Saturday, meeting Johnson State at 8 p.m. in the first round, following the 6 p.m. tourney opener matching Hawthorne College against St. Joseph's. The consolation game is scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday while Friday's winners will meet at 3 p.m. for the tournament title. The weekend action will mark the coaching debut of new Cardinal head coach Larry Cowan.

Coach Phoebe Sturm's women Cardinals will open their campaign in Rochester Friday at 8 p.m. against the host institution in the St. John Fisher Tip-Off Tournament. The College of Staten Island and Lycoming College complete the tourney field.

Athletes of the Week

Plattsburgh State's Athletes of the Week for the week ending Nov. 14 were Jeff Bunyon, the co-captain of the hockey team who tallied four goals and as many assists in the Cardinals' victories over Ottawa, St. Bonaventure and Brockport State, and Kathy Kane and Julie Dobert, who shared the honor on the basis of their performances in qualifying for the NCAA Division III national championships.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

(Continued from back page)

Theory and the Utilization of Research" at the annual meeting of the American Evaluation Association held recently in Boston. . . Dr. Jean Ostasz, assistant professor, and Michael Oliver, instructor, in the Center for Human Resources presented papers entitled "Nutrition Education Techniques" and "Career Skills in the Food Service Industry" at a Capital District Leaders in Education Convention held recently in Saratoga Springs. . . Dr. Mary L. Roark, assistant professor in the Center for Human Resources, was a SUNY Guest Scholar at Buffalo State College where she addressed Women's Studies Forum on "Preventing Campus Violence: What Individuals Can Do," and a Student Affairs Speaker's Series on "Preventing Campus Violence: What Institutions Can Do". . . Joan B. Rhodes, assistant professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, served recently as a reader for the national teacher examinations sponsored by the Educational Testing Service. . . Dr. Thomas Rumney, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, is the author of a review of Harold Meeks' Vermont Lands and Resources that has been published in Vermont History. . . Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of the Faculty of Professional Studies, served as chairperson of a 15-member Middle States Association accreditation visitation team to Kennard-Dale High School in Gawn Grove, Pa. . . President Charles O. Warren delivered a presentation and served as a member of a panel on "Minority Access" at the 81st annual meeting of the Association of Colleges and Universities of the State of New York (ACUSNY) held last Friday at Lehman College of CUNY.

College Council Meets Dec. 3

The next monthly meeting of the SUNY Plattsburgh College Council will be held on Thursday, Dec. 3 at 3 p.m. in the Cardinal Lounge of the Angell College Center.

Council meetings are open to all. The agenda for the December meeting was being formulated in the Office of the President as this issue of Weekly went to press.

College's Honorary Degree Committee Seeks Nominees for Centennial Year

The campus honorary degree committee will meet on December 4 to begin consideration of possible recipients for honorary degrees to be awarded during the academic year 1989-90, which is the college's Centennial Year.

The committee encourages the entire campus community to participate in the process by suggesting possible nominees. Anyone wishing to make a suggestion to the committee is asked to send the name and some supporting information to the President's Office on or before December 1.

The October 1987 edition of the Hungarian Heritage Review, the official publication of the Rakoczi Foundation in Canada and the United States, is devoted to Dr. Francis Bethlen, professor of economics. Bethlen is pictured on the cover of the publication. Additionally, a two-page article entitled "The Hungarian-American Educator With Ancestral Roots in Historical Transylvania" traces Bethlen's family background and upbringing, his role in the Hungarian Resistance Movement during World War II, including his work in assisting Swedish Diplomat Raoul Wallenberg in the effort to save Hungarian Jews from extermination, his emigration to the U.S., his educational pursuits and his career accomplishments as a member of the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty. . . Dr. Raymond Domenico, chairperson of the hearing and speech department, and Donald C. Zoss, clinic director at the Speech and Hearing Center, were guest speakers at a Graduate Recruitment Day held recently at the College of St. Rose. . . Dr. Jane Gore, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, recently addressed the New York State Council on Children and Families' School Age Child Care Program in Albany on the topic, "Working Effectively with Schools and Parents." Gore was partially responsible for seeing that a New York State MODEL After School Child Care Program was established in the Chazy School system last year. . . Dr. Janet Groth, assistant professor of English, lectured recently on Toni Morrison's novel, The Bluest Eye, in Malone's Wead Library as a participant in the on-going Essex-Clinton-Franklin Counties Humanities Series. Her review of Mary K. DeShazer's book, Inspiring Women: Re-Imagining the Muse, has been accepted for publication in The Cincinnati Review of Politics and the Arts, and she has been invited to present a paper entitled "Edmund Wilson: A Critic for Our Time" at the regional meeting of the North-East Modern Language Association to be held in March in Providence. . . Dr. J. Justin Gustainis, associate professor of communication, recently presented a paper entitled "Watergate and Iranscam: A Nixon/Reagan Analog" at the annual meeting of the Speech Communication Association held recently in Boston. . . Color intaglio prints by Nicholas Hill, visiting associate professor of art, were included in an exhibition entitled "Recent Acquisitions" at the Exhibition Hall of the United States Department of State in Washington, D.C. The exhibition included works by 26 American artists that have been purchased by the State Department in the past year. . . "Preparation, Structure and Magnetic Properties Containing the Double Keggin Anion" is the title of a research paper co-authored by Dr. Gerald Kokoszka, professor of chemistry, that has appeared in Inorganic Chemistry. One of the co-authors is Alan Goldstein, a former student of Kokoszka's who graduated last May. . . Dr. John McCormick, associate professor of computer science, has received a gift of more than 500 logic devices from Texas Instruments, Inc. for use in the college's computer controlled systems laboratory. . . Dr. Charles Mitchell, professor of education, gave a presentation entitled "Survey of Women in Science Education: A Statistical Summary and Recommendations" at the National Science Teachers Association area convention held last week in Pittsburgh. . . Dr. Thomas Moran, assistant to the vice president for academic affairs, discussed "Critical

(Continued on page 3)

Print Sale & Exhibit Underway in Kent Gallery into December

The docents of the college's art galleries are sponsoring a print sale and exhibit in the Rockwell Kent Gallery through December 18 (except Thanksgiving week). Docent Phyllis Freedman said, "This sale is giving everyone the opportunity to buy fine art prints at affordable prices from such established artists as Adolph Dehn, Honore Daumier and Rockwell Kent, as well as contemporary and up-and-coming artists."

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Opening Date	Closing Date
Business & Economics
Management (2)	9/28/87	Open
Marketing (1)
Center for Human Resources
Food Science (1)	10/21/87	2/15/88
Hotel Management (2)
Personal & Family Finance	11/13/87	12/1/87
Center for Lifelong Learning
Adjunct Teaching Faculty (Extension sites)	10/3/87	Open
Computer Science
2 Positions	10/26/87	2/29/88
English
Lecturer Part-time (Vita Bank)	10/14/87	Open
Foreign Languages & Literature
Assistant Professor	10/14/87	12/1/87
Library
Director of Libraries	7/8/87	Open
Maintenance & Operations
General Mechanic (Washers & Dryers)	11/6/87	11/20/87
Mathematics
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/13/87	12/1/87
Assistant/Associate Professor	10/27/87	1/20/88
Psychology
Lecturer Part-time	10/22/87	11/20/87
Sociology
Instructor Part-time	10/22/87	11/20/87

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

